SEDALIA, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 24, 1909.

VOL. 3 NO. 275. PRICE FIVE CENTS

TOMORROW is Thanksgiving, a day set apart, since the time of the Pilgrim fathers, in which to render from grateful hearts acknowledgment to the Giver of all good for the blessings that have come to us during the year that has now been numbered with those that are gone. Not one is there among us but that has some cause for gratitude; not one but has felt in some way the beneficient grace of an All wise Providence, guarding and directing life's devious course. True, there are many who suffer from hardships, from illness, poverty, sorrow—many to whom the skies are dark and dreary, and who cry aloud from anguished hearts that the burden is heavy—the pathway dark, but over all and through all each must feel that something of goodness, something of joy, something of sweetness has come to them, even though it may not have lingered long or wholly transformed their lives from sorrow's gloom to gladsome sunshine.

Each, searching deep into the heart, can find some blessing, some joy, some gift of peace, some measure of happiness for which to give thanks, and giving, go out into the world with greater strength, brighter eyes and firmer purpose, facing the future with steadfast courage and determined belief in themselves and their God.

Therefore, from the cottage of the poor, from the palace of the rich, from the humble and from those in high places will arise united paeans of praise that will echo and reach throughout the universe and swell the glad music of Paradise

'Tis a beautiful custom, this giving of thanks by a great nation, this acknowledgment of the Divine guidance that first gave a safe refuge on Plymouth Rock to the weary searchers for freedom, and since has so potently protected and fostered a weak and helpless people through the vicissitudes and struggles of strenuous years and brought them to the high place they now occupy among the nations of the earth.

Truly this people, as a people, have just cause for thankfulness that it is as a light set upon a hill, a beacon to all the world, to greater and better government, to freedom and to the benevolent brotherhood of man.

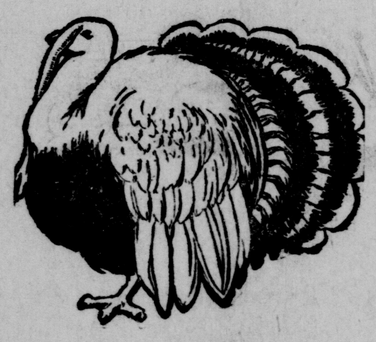

But in all our thanksgiving let us not forget those less fortunate than ourselves, those who see no rift in the clouds, who search wearily, and sometimes vainly, for some cause for gratitude.

Let us remember them this day, and in remembering give some just reason for uniting with us in praise and thanksgiving.

Thus can we show the true spirit of thanks, and in adding to the happiness of others fill our own hearts with the truest joy of life.

THE MUSICAL CLUB

SPLENDID PROGRAM CARRIED OUT AT THIS MORNING'S SESSION.

MRS. BARDSANG CHILD'S "SONGS"

Miss Jessie Smith Was the Accompanist—Miss Helen Norton Gave Readings That Delighted the Large Audience.

One of the most beautiful and interesting programs ever given by the Ladies' Musical club was listened to by about two hundred ladies at the Elks' club rooms this morning.

The subject was "Child's Music," and the songs were all given by Mrs. Charles H. Bard. It was the universal opinion of all fortunate enough to be present that Mrs. Bard never sang better, and though always sweet and sympathetic, her voice has gained in fullness and brilliancy.

It would be impossible to say in which song Mrs. Bard excelled, but the audience was enchanted with every one, from the quaint "Plaint of the Little Bisque Doll" to the funny advice of "Don't Be What You Aint."

Especially interesting were the songs from Kipling's "Jungle Book," and Mrs. Bard is to be congratulated upon the beautiful and artistic manner in which she sang her entire program.

Of Miss Jessie Smith's accompaniments too much in praise cannot be said. In every song she was in thorough sympathy with the singer and her work throughout was artistic and of a high grade. Particularly noticeable was her delicate and descriptive playing in the songs, "Jack Frost" and "An Open Secret."

Miss Helen Norton read most beautifully and feelingly Riley's "At Aunty's House" and Eugene Field's "Japanese Lullaby," "Wynken, Blynken and Nod" and "Little Boy Blue." The last three were recited to a soft piano accompaniment by Miss Annabel Ernst, which added much to the effect.

The following is the program as given:

SOCIETY WOMAN'S HAIR

A Simple Treatment That Will Make It Truly Fascinating—W. E. Bard Drug Co. Guarantees It.

Nowadays every up-to-date woman has radiant hair.

What a foolish creature a woman would be if she lost the opportunity to add to her attractions.

Yet in America today there are hundreds of thousands of women with harsh, faded characterless hair who do not make any attempt to improve it.

In Paris most women have beautiful hair, and in America all women who use Parisian Sage have lustrous and luxuriant hair.

And any women reader of the Democrat-Sentinel can have attractive and lustrous hair in a few days' time by using this great hair rejuvenator, Parisian Sage.

W. E. Bard Drug Co. sells a large bottle for 50 cents and they guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is an ideal hair tonic, not sticky or greasy and is sold by leading druggists everywhere. The girl with Auburn hair is on every bottle. Mail orders filled by American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A JEWELERY STORE THAT'S DIFFERENT

This is not the usual sort of jewelry store. Not that any mystery surrounds it. It is a specialty jewelry store. It is the originator and only thorough exponent of a high quality, low price policy devoted to the sale of diamonds, watches, jewelry, and allied lines. It is a thoroughly dependable, safe, and satisfactory store to deal with—a "different store."

BALL TONIGHT

The Middle West lodge No. 20, International Association of Machinists Juniors, will give a Thanksgiving ball Wednesday evening, the grand march to begin at 9:15 p. m.

Extensive preparations have been made that will assure all who attend a splendid reception, as the machinists' apprentices are proud of their annual ball.

The following poem expresses the vim and enthusiasm of the Juniors concerning their organization:

There's an organization at the M. P. shops
That's coming to the front.
They're old and young, short and tall,
But you always find them on the jump.
They're getting stronger every day:
We look at them with joy, for we need them in our toil—
Our own apprentice boys.

Going? Sure, we're going—
Every one from the Mo. P.
Those that can't dance will spend a dollar;
But we're going just to see.
Make a start now with your lady,
But don't forget to call.
Bring your mother and sister—
If you have none, anybody will do.
But be sure and meet me at the apprentice ball.

Come and look at our holiday goods. They have the merit. They will please you. West's Book Shop. Annual opening Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving.

THE CORNWALL CASE

Judge Lamm Discharged Woman Who Figured in Pettis Courts.

Florence Cornwall, whose trial after an indictment by the grand jury for keeping a bawdy house had been returned, attracted so much attention in the Pettis county courts, was discharged yesterday by the state supreme court in division No. 2, under a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was granted by Judge Henry Lamm. The Cornwall woman entered a plea of guilty to the charge against her December, 1908, conditional that she should receive a ninety days' sentence in the county jail, and that a stay of execution be granted provided she would leave her home and not violate the law again. At the expiration of the ninety days the woman, according to the prosecuting attorney, violated her parole, and in August, 1909, after Judge Hoffman had declared her parole revoked, was arrested and committed to the county jail. The woman, through her attorneys, Sangree & Bohling, sued out a writ of habeas corpus. Upon hearing the case, Judge Hoffman set aside the jail sentence and imposed a fine of $200 and ordered the woman into the custody of the sheriff until said fine was paid. The same day the woman presented her petition to Judge Lamm, of the supreme court, who, after Judge Hoffman had again denied the petition, granted the writ and made it returnable on October 1st, 1909. The result was announced yesterday by Judge Lamm, who ordered the woman finally discharged.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 249.

Edwards county, Ill., has been dry for many years. Alexander county, Ill., is one of the wettest counties in the state at present. A drunken negro recently brutally murdered a white woman of Cairo and was burned at the stake. There is a lesson between these two counties and we will give it to you:

Edwards county, DRY, has sent 29 people to jail, while Alexander county, WET, has sent 982. Edwards county, DRY, has sent no one to the penitentiary, while Alexander county, WET, has sent 361. Edwards county, DRY, has sent no children to the reform school, while Alexander county, WET, has sent 66. Edwards county, DRY, has sent 193 people to the insane asylum, while Alexander county, WET, 300. Edwards county, DRY, has a school attendance of 83 per cent, while Alexander county, WET, has 57 per cent. Edwards county, DRY, has an average tax rate of $3.90, while Alexander county, WET, has a tax rate of $5.66. Edwards county, DRY, has collected in taxes $5.30 per capita, while Alexander county, WET, collects $12.02. Edwards county, DRY, has had 50 divorces, while Alexander county, WET, has had 180. There is a difference in the population of the counties, but the above is the ratio per 100,000. Suppose there were four members in your family and if you lived in DRY, Edwards county, you would pay $21.20 taxes. If the same family lived in WET, Alexander county, you would pay $48.02. In other words, you would have to pay $26.88 MORE TAXES to have the saloon in the county. You, Mr. Taxpayer, will pay between 20 and 30 per cent more taxes next month because of the Sedalia saloons. — ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

IS HURLEY TO RETIRE?

Rumor Has It That He Is to Leave the Santa Fe.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 24.—Rumors started some days ago, that James E. Hurley, general manager of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, will soon sever his connection with that company, have gained force.

It is gossip here that he will take the place of A. J. Davidson, who resigned recently as president of the St. Louis & San Francisco.

At the general offices here it is believed that Mr. Hurley's resignation has been written, and that the discussion is now centered upon his probable successor.

It is generally admitted that Fred C. Fox, now general superintendent of the Santa eF, will become general manager.

SUTER OPERATED UPON

Will Be Couple of Weeks Before He Is Out Again.

Harry Suter, one of the pitching staff of the Chicago White Sox, was operated upon for appendicitis at Maywood hospital at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

He stood the operation nicely and is resting well as the Democrat-Sentinel goes to press.

It will be at least a fortnight before Mr. Suter will be able to be up and around. He will then go to San Francisco, Cal. where he owns a cigar store.

SIX LOST THEIR LIVES

Ten Were Also Injured in a Tenement House Blaze.

New York, Nov. 24.—Six persons were burned to death and ten seriously injured here early today in a fire that destroyed a tenement house.

The dead are two women, one man and three children.

Mrs. Rose Caraville was carried down from the third floor, but no sooner reached the ground than she dashed back into the flaming building to rescue three children.

She was never seen again.

WOMEN SENT TO JAIL

Suffragette Advocates Do Not Fare Well in London.

London, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Alice Cahpin, militant suffragette, who injured the clerk at the Bermondsey election, when she smashed a bottle of acid on the ballot box, was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment today.

Alice Neilson Neilans, who made a similar atempt, with less serious results, was sentenced to three months.

No Paper Issued Tomorrow.

Remember, there will not be any issue of the Democrat-Sentinel tomorrow. Bear this in mind and it will save you the trouble of calling up the office and asking, "Why didn't I get my paper tonight?"

It will be your loss if you miss the holiday display at West's Book Shop and Art Studio Friday and Saturday of this week. The first thousand receive souvenirs.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

DESERVED PROMOTION FOR A RAILWAY MAN BORN IN LAFAYETTE COUNTY.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

John W. Dean, who has previously been connected with the operating department of the Gould lines in the west, and who recently has given the best satisfaction at St. Louis as superintendent of terminals for the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain, left Monday to become general superintendent of the Denver & Rio Grande at Pueblo, Colo.

Mr. Dean was born in Lafayette county, Mo., forty-two years ago, entering service as a messenger boy on a work train when the Alton built through Missouri to Kansas City.

He became a telegraph operator and train dispatcher on the Alton, and has been superintendent, trainmaster and terminal superintendent for the Iron Mountain in Arkansas and in St. Louis.

The apointment was made by Horace Clarke, general manager of the Rio Grande, whose brother, C. S. Clarke, is at the head of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain in St. Louis.

Has Conductor Skipped Out?

Ira S. Land, an extra freight conductor on the M., K. & T. out of Parsons, Kas., is alleged to have skipped out, and it is further alleged that he has been guilty of thefts from cars on trains in his charge.

Land's wife eloped a few days ago with a brakeman named L. E. Evans. They were arrested and returned to Parsons. Land forgave and took his wife back.

Evans is still in jail, charged with forgery. Evans has now made affidavit charging Land with grand larceny. Land is missing and his whereabouts is not known.

Taken to Katy Hospital.

E. L. Zoellig, an M., K. & T. shopman, residing at 814 East Ninth street, and the father of Edward Zoellig, clerk for Justice J. B. Rickman, was removed to the M., K. & T railway hospital today to undergo treatment for general debility. Mr. Zoellig has been sick for the past three months.

A Vacancy Is Filled.

General Manager Sullivan, of the Missouri Pacific, announced yesterday that Mr. L. L. Kensinger is appointed acting superintendent of the St. Louis terminals of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain, with office at St. Louis, in place of Mr. J. W. Dean, resigned to accept service with the Rio Grande.

Congratulations for Clardy.

Congratulations by wire, letter and personally poured in upon Vice President M. L. Clardy, of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain, yesterday, on his well merited promotion to general solicitor. He left St. Louis last evening for the west.

Soon to Leave Hospital.

William Lewis, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, who since Oct. 14 has been a patient at the M., K. & T. hospital, suffering from injuries received by being struck by an over head bridge near Higginsville, is now able to be up and around the hospital, and will probably be able to leave the institution within the next ten days.

Automatic Couplers.

G. S. Leisenring, an M., K. & T. brakeman, is laying off.

Russell Hunter, an M., K. & T. brakeman, also Harry Spillers, are laying off.

John Laybourn, a Missouri Pacific engineer, came in from Kansas City at noon today.

One hundred and twenty-two patients are registered at the M., K. & T. hospital today.

W. H. Rogers, an M., K. & T. trainman, is laying off. "Noisy" Chatman is filling the vacancy.

J. M. Chandler, roadmaster for the Missouri Pacific, made a business visit at Warrensburg today.

H. L. White, route agent for the Pacific Express Co., made a business visit at Warrensburg today.

R. D. Williams, of Boonville, attorney for the Missouri Pacific, is here today on legal buiness.

Fred Gramlick, an M., K. & T. fireman and family, left today for Pilot Grove to spend Thanksgiving.

M. C. Burns, foreman of the Missouri Pacific water service, made a business visit at Warrensburg today.

C. M. Hunt, trainmaster for the Missouri Pacific, went to Kansas City this morning on company business.

"Pick" Pennisten, an M., K. & T. brakeman, is laying off to attend a dance to be given by the machinists' apprentices tonight.

James Gornall, a Missouri Pacific engineer, is running on trains Nos. 37 and 38 for Engineer Hank Chapel, who is laying off.

F. K. Tutt, of St. Louis, master mechanic for the Missouri Pacific, returned this morning from a business trip to Jefferson City.

H. N. Reid, an M., K. & T. conductor, returned last afternoon from a business visit in St. Louis, and reported for work today.

B. G. Sullivan, a Missouri Pacific conductor, was treated at the M., K. & T. hospital yesterday for a foreign substance in his right eye.

Harry Reid, night caller for the M., K. & T., will go to Kansas City tonight to witness the Missouri-Kansas football game tomorrow.

Dr. A. J. Campbell, surgeon of the Missouri Pacific shops, will go to Kansas City tomorrow to witness the Missouri-Kansas football game.

G. S. Hayden, a Missouri Pacific conductor, is running on trains Nos. 37 and 38 for Hiram Lewis, who is taking his annual Thanksgiving feast.

J. C. Patterson, a Missouri Pacific conductor, who is a patient at the company hospital in St. Louis, is reported to be improving nicely, according to information received by his family.

O. H. Neal, an employe of the local Missouri Pacific shops, who was seriously injured recently, is getting along nicely at the M., K. & T. hospital.

W. L. Norris, an M., K. & T. conductor, and wife, and W. C. Ingraham, an M., K. & T. engineer, and wife, who have been occupying apartments on the second floor of the State Fair building, have taken apartments at the Blackman hotel.

W. J. McKee, formerly superintendent of the Missouri Pacific in this city, now general superintendent at Kansas City, spent last night in Sedalia, and went to Jefferson City this morning in his special car attached to train No. 22.

Be Buried Side by Side.

Butler, Mo., Nov. 24.—Representative DeArmond's body and that of his grandson will be buried side by side here tomorrow.

THE SCHOOL DONATIONS

In Every Instance They Were in Excess of Last Year.

The public school donations to the city's poor for Thanksgiving will surpass last year's offerings by large amounts.

The provisions and cash offerings were collected after the noon hour today, and will be distributed between the City hospital and Mrs. Eula Cole, secretary of the Associated Board of Charities.

At the High school the cash offerings amounted to about $10, with an equal sum expended for provisions of all kinds.

Summit school donated two barrels of potatoes, one barrel of apples, more than one hundred cans of fruit, onions, all kinds of vegetables and various other provisions, and also clothing.

Prospect school donated two-thirds of a wagon of provisions and $9.12 in cash. Of this amount $1.36 was donated by the "Z. Z. G. B." club.

These are the only schools that reported to the Democrat-Sentinel, but it is said that every school in the city made donations in excess of last year.

168 DEAD BODIES

THEY WERE FOUND IN ST. PAUL MINE AT CHERRY, ILLINOIS, TODAY.

ABOUT 500 FEET FROM MAIN SHAF

Messages Were Scrawled on Wood and Stone—Many of the Dead Were Lying With Their Heads Resting on Their Arms.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 24.—More than 150 bodies were found in the lowest level of the St. Paul mine today. It is now believed all but a score of the missing men have been accounted for.

The bodies were found 500 feet from the main shaft, on an elevated surface, where they had retreated before the advancing water and fatal black damp.

They could not escape the latter and died after a struggle that may have continued for two days.

Messages scrawled on wood and natural slate cropping from the walls placed the number of dead at 168. One message read:

"We are all here to die together."

Nailed onto the walls were two fans made of timbering, tied about pick handles, and under them were the biggest heaps of bodies.

Many of the men lay with their heads resting on their arms, as if sleeping, while others were sitting, as if resting against the wall.

Sixty Couples Will Dance.

GIRL ACCUSED OF MURDER

Woman Is Hiding in House While Funeral Is Held.

Waltham, Mass., Nov. 24.—Miss Hattie Le Blanc, the 17-year-old domestic whom Clarence F. Glover, her employer, charged with shooting him before he died Saturday night, was found last night in the Glover home. The funeral of the dead man had taken place during the afternoon. The girl was placed under arrest.

Since the shooting in Glover's laundry Saturday night and his death bed statement, in which he charged Miss Le Blanc with his death, the police had searched extensively for her.

All manner of theories were set forth as to the cause of the murder, bringing in nearly every conceivable possibility. The attitude of Mrs. Glover in refusing to visit her husband when he was dying, and in disclaiming relationship with the Le Blanc girl, although the latter's sister claimed they were cousins, had caused the authorities to seek an explanation from her.

FURS FOR WOMEN

THEIR ELEGANCE GOES A LONG WAY TOWARDS COMPLETING ATOILETTE.

ARE TRULY A THING OF BEAUTY

Not Only Is Fur Seen on the Gowns and Coats, but in Millinery It Has Never Been Used to a Greater Extent.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.
(By Catherine Mann-Payzant.)

New York, Nov. 24.—It is during these nipping, frosty, crisp days that women turn to furs. It is not alone for the comfort they bring, but for their elegance, the sumptuousness they give to a toilette. A little bit of fur goes further toward making a costume a thing of beauty than any other form of trimming.

This season much fur will be seen on the street dress, as well as on the coat. Tiny narrow bands are being worn on evening dresses, while a band of fur outlining the train of a dinner gown is most effective.

Many of the one-piece gowns are heavy enough for wear without a coat and are made appropriate to the season by the addition of fur trimmings; on very cold days an extra wrap, fur-trimmed, may be worn. A costume carrying out the same idea had a coat of the new sealskin, with a band of the same on the skirt, and the hat was partially trimmed with it.

It is not alone the costume that is decorated with fur, but in millinery it has never been used to a greater degree or better results, as some of the shapes, the turbans, for instance, are entirely of fur, with little or no trimming, and that little consisting of a knot of rosette of velvet or an ornament made of gold or silver braid or with a long airgrette or streamer of marabocet or coque feathers.

Again, the hat may be of velvet, with a deep band of fur, and a head or tail for ornament; or narrow bits of fur may be used on the band and a huge buckle of the fur be used on the left side to hold a wing or quill, but rarely does one see a real plume of any sort on the fur hat. Ostrich feathers seem at their best upon the rich velvet beaver or plush backgrounds or hats made from these materials.

The time was once when a fur garment was bought because it was fashionable always, no matter what changes were made in the realms of smart attire.

In those days the woman who owned a sealskin coat wore it for years in its first cut without question about its style, for seal was fashionable in itself; but all that today is changed, and the furrier's trade is made profitable by it.

As each year comes around a coat is changed, new fur is added to effect the changes, and other kinds of fur are used at times. Braiding, velvet and trimmings are added to these side materials, which quite upset conservative ideas, and it must be said that the results are not always in the best of taste.

Many of the neck pieces are long and wide this season, although the woman who likes the smaller scarf has been remembered and the animal shapes are still considered quite smart.

Whole skins of the not too large animals are used with the head in front and the tail and paws behind on the shoulders. The muffs are made in a similar manner and are wide, deep and flat.

Sable and ermine are used together with a most sumptuous effect. The scarf is large, with the ermine coming next to the face, and outside is a sable skin, with every endeavor made to preserve the animal shapes. The muff is flat, with rounded corners, and has three stripes of ermine and two of sable, with a fringe of ermine tails at the bottom edge.

A new design in the marabout scarfs that is a change from the long thin style lately worn in a shawl shape, falling in a point in the back, and pointed ends in front and fastened with very hadsome brown silk frogs.

The muff is large and flat and held with a brown silk cord. The marabout pieces are found in many shades, but the prettiest and most useful are those of the natural color, the soft dull brown that is so effective with nearly every color worn this winter.

Fox is still worn, with its colors ranging from the deepest black to those dipped with white up to the gray and blue shades. A real fox set is very elegant and appropriate to almost any costume or place.

SLAYER TO BE HANGED

Mrs. Roy Plum Killed in Carl Junction, Mo., by Wm. Wilson.

Jefferson City, Nov. 24.—The supreme court of Missouri has affirmed the death sentence of William Wilson, a negro of Jasper county, and fixed his execution for January 12, 1910. Wilson's victim was Mrs. Roy Plum.

The night of July 12, 1908 Wilson insulted Mrs. Roy Plum, 19 years old, a member of a carnival company which had finished a week's engagement in Carl Junction, Mo. When the woman resented the insult Wilson struck her on the left temple, tied a rope around her neck and dragged the body from the sleeping car, where the attack was made.

GAGE IS TO MARRY

BE THIRD MATRIMONIAL VENTURE

The Bride-to-Be Is Mrs. Ada Ballou, Who Is Said to Be "Beautiful and Accomplished"—Ceremony to Be Said Tomorrow.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 24.—Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury, aged 73, is to have a Thanksgiving present tomorrow. The gift is the hand of Mrs. Ada Ballou, beautiful and charming, and young enough to be the ex-cabinet member's daughter.

Mr. Gage has lived here for some time, and is a devout disciple of Mrs. Katherine Tingley, head of the theosophical cult. He has persuaded his prospective bride to become a theosophist, it is alleged, and has prepared a beautiful home for her at Point Loma, the Tingley headquarters.

Mrs. Ballou is tall and stately, with pale blue eyes, white skin and a mass of glowing red hair. She sings and plays the piano well, and has the reputation of being one of the most fascinating women in the city.

The announcement of the engagement was given out to local newspapers by a strange woman, whose identity is not known.

Mrs. Ballou is a daughter of George H. Ballou, a prominent merchant of San Diego, who admitted that his daughter was to marry Mr. Gage. Mrs. Ballou's friends say that several years ago she amrried a Pittsburg man, who was a winter visitor here. The courtship was brief, but romantic. She told her friends that he proposed while they were on a sailboat becalemd in the bay at night. He died soon after the wedding, and the widow returned here from Pittsburg, where they had gone to live. She resumed her maiden name.

Lyman Judson Gage, who has earned a high reputation as a financier, was born in 1836. When he marries Miss Ballou she will be his third wife. He married Miss Sarah Etheridge, of Hastings, Minn., in 1864; she died ten years later. In 1887 he married Mrs. Cornelia Washburn Gage, of Denver, Colo. She died in Washington, at the age of 58. Her husband was secretary of the treasury, and it was said the strain of her social duties at the national capital did much to break down her health.

Starting life as an office boy in a small bank, Mr. Gage became president of the First National bank, of Chicago. He has been three times president of the American Banking association. President McKinley made him secretary of the treasury, and he held that office from 1897 until 1902. Then he was elected president of the United States Trust company, of New York.

Retiring from business in 1906, Mr. Gage went to live at Point Loma, eight miles from San Diego, Cal. He was a member of the Society for Psychical Research, and the report spread widely that he had been converted to theosophy and would join the colony founded by Mrs. Kitty Tingley, the "Purple Mother," at Point Loma.

BIG BIRD FOR MR. TAFT

But Many Another Good Man Will Dine on Rabbit or Mackerel.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 24.—Horace Vose, purveyor of turkeys to his excellency, the president, is still on the job.

For many years Mr. Vose has supplied the bird for the Thanksgiving feast at the White House, and, as usual, he selected the best of his flock this year to be sent to Washington.

The bird chosen weighs about thirty pounds and is said to be a remarkable example of the scientific breeding of turkey flesh.

Big Pie for Taft, Also.

New York, Nov. 24—Members of the Pie Salesmen's Union, assisted by the union pie founders of the city, have built a mince pie six feet in diameter, which has been forwarded to President Taft for his Thanksgiving feast.

Mule Kick Killed a Missourian.

Richards, Mo., Nov. 24.—W. H. Benedict, a pioneer farmer and fruit grower, three miles southeast of here, died yesterday as the result of being kicked by a mule yesterday. Mr. Benedict was 64 years old.

"Ginseng Brokers" Busy.

Hartsburg, Mo., Nov. 24.—Hartsburg may not have all that some cities possess, but it boasts of one industry that few cities can lay claim to—ginseng raising.

This business is being developed by Herman Lieneke and L. C. Barner on their farms near here. Mr. Lieneke is putting in 12,500 plants and Mr. Barner is putting out several hundred.

They see no reason why Missouri should not be famous as a ginseng state as well as for other things.

WINE IN SLIPPER

RUSSIAN NOBLEMAN MADE ASS OF HIMSELF BY DRINKING FROM SLIPPER.

TWAS AT FRENCH STUDENTS BALL

Function of This Kind to Be Repeated in New York Tonight, and Thanksgiving Day Will Be Ushered in With a Vengeance.

New York, Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving day will be ushered in by the French students' organization of New York, who will begin their twenty-fifth annual masquerade ball at Terrace garden this evening.

The ball will continue through the night, and the customary high jinks will probably be exceeded.

It was at this annual festivity that a visiting Russian notable distinguished himself a few years ago by drinking wine from a lady's slipper. Other exploits quite as daring and original are indulged in by the thousands of department store salespeople, chorus girls, clerks, manicurists, buttonhole workers and other gay Bohemians of the metropolis, and joy is unconfined.

Handsome prizes have been offered Broadway show girls in a competition for the most novel costumes. For many days the stage beauties have been cudgeling their brains to decide what—or what not—to wear, and the effort of this mental effort is likely to be stunning to say the least of it.

The French students are not alone in preparing for Thanksgiving. The Salvation Army and all the charitable organizations have completed preparations to feed the city's poor, and none will go hungry. All the theaters will offer special matinees for the amusement of the well to do, and the big hotels and restaurants are prepared for an unprecedented rush on the part of the large population, which can't or won't dine at home.

Down in the Bowery there is deep gloom. The defeat of Tammany in the recent election has led the leaders to draw their purse strings tighter than usual, and free food and "booze" will not be so much in evidence along the famous thoroughfare as in past years. Judge Gaynor, the mayor-elect, has shown no disposition to lighten this load of woe.

"I guess we wil have to hit the Salvation Army," is the sorrowful cry of the Tammany followers. And the Salvationists do not provide liquid refreshments of a kind suited to the stomach of the Bowery. Hence the gloom. Hence the woe.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SAYS HE'LL START ANEW

Louisianan on Way to Prison Takes Rosy View of Life.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 24.—"I'm coming back again and start anew," declared Wyatt H. Ingram, defaulting trust officer of the Hibernia Bank and Trust company to the amount of nearly $150,000. Ingram is a Kentuckian. He takes a roseate view of life. He has been sentenced to the penitentiary for twelve years, and will depart in the morning for prison.

"I hope business is flourishing, and I think it is," he added. "There's no use kicking; I've got to go through this, and the quicker the better, so I can get out and start all over again."

Ingram discussed state finances.

"One thing Louisiana needs,' he concluded, "is to enter the list of doubtful states and vote the republican ticket once or twice. That would revolutionize things down here."

BUILDING $20,000 DYKES

Work Is Being Done to Protect Many Acres of Land.

Wilton, Mo., Nov. 24.—Work on the construction of 1,500 feet of dykes, near Burlington bend, on the Missouri river below here, is progressing rapidly. The improvement will cost $20,000. It is hoped to complete the improvement within two or three months. The work is being done to protect thousands of acres of rich bottom lands from the encroachments of the treacherous Missouri.

Farmers in the vicinity to be benefitted agreed to raise $10,000 for the work if the government would contribute an equal amount. The proposition was accepted. A. W. Farney has the contract. J. Richardson, government engineer, is in charge.

Solving Drainage Problem.

Elsberry, Mo., Nov. 24.—In order to be able to utilize sixty acres of land near the river, J. C. Wells is spending $1200 experimenting with tiling. He is having the tile laid in rows 75 yards apart, which he thinks will carry off all surface water.

If it does and the river does not rise to an unusual height next season he expects one crop to almost pay for the expense now. If the experiment is successful a number of other farmers will probably try it.

DEMAND MORE PAY

Ray County School Teachers Are Not Satisfied.

Richmond, Mo., Nov. 24.—Ray county school teachers are not going to slave their lives away teaching youngsters to read and write for a mere pittance, like many of them say they have been doing in the past. Unless the powers that be come across with not less than $45 per month, advancement along educational lines is not likely to progress very far in the county.

A committee on finance, appointed by the teachers' association, reported that the average annual salary paid the teachers in the high schools and grade scools in the county was $57.36 and in rural schools $38.31. This report started the strike for higher wages, and the teachers, by a unanimous vote, have adopted a resolution pledging themselves not to accept any position in Ray county for less than $45.

GIRL IS BURNED TO DEATH

Texas Child's Night Dress Caught Fire From Grate.

Paris, Texas, Nov. 24.—Marguerite Bolts, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bolts, was burned to death at their home on Graham street here yesterday.

The little girl had gotten out of bed and was warming herself at a grate, when the lower edge of her gown caught fire.

The flames soon spread over the body, burning off the child's hair, eyebrows and eye lashes. Marguerite ran out of her room up a stairway, where her mother put out the fire.

The girl remained conscious until 4 o'clock last afternoon, when she died. The father of the girl is a railroad conductor and was out of the city, but he arrived home just before her death.

SECRETARIES TO MEET

The Purpose Is to Boost Northeastern Missouri.

Hannibal, Mo., Nov. 24.—Secretaries of all the commercial organizations in Northeast Missouri are to be invited to meet in Hannibal some time during December to get better acquainted and to discuss important matters "for the good of the order."

The exact date of the meeting will be announced within a few days. Secretary Sidney J. Roy, of the Hannibal Commercial club, originated the idea of a "get together" meeting, which has met with the unanimous approval of the members of the club.

Each club will be invited to send as large delegations as possible in addition to the secretary. Plans to boost Northeast Missouri more effectively than ever before will probably be made by the boosters.

It is the intention of the club to have addresses delivered by a number of prominent men who have taken part in campaigns for developing industries and building up cities in various parts of the country.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

THANKSGIVING OYSTERS

SEALSHIPT OYSTERS

The Only Oysters

With the Tang of the Sea

We get our oysters straight from the seacoast beds; every mile of the journey under seal. We are registered agents of "The Sealshipt System." Under our contract the oysters are sealed in patented air-tight, germ-proof Sealshiptors. The seal is put on AT THE SEASIDE and we break it when the oysters are delivered at our store. "The Sealshipt System" insures our customers oysters that are firm, clean, solid, fresh.

Sealshipt Oysters

Sealed at the Seaside

Sealshipt oysters are radically different from the common oysters shipped in open tubs. Under this old method, which is still in use, the ice is IN THE TUB WITH THE OYSTERS. Fast as the ice melts, the expressman puts in another chunk of RAILROAD ice. Common oysters, as they are sold, are half liquor. That "liquor" is only the MELTED RAILROAD ICE that has washed the flavor out of the oysters and made them soggy, shapeless, insipid.

Don't be contented with anything less. A pint of Sealshipt oysters is sufficient for an ordinary family, because they are solid meats—no railroad ice "liquor."

We sell Sealshipt oysters from an attractive, cleanly white and blue porcelain Sealshipticase. No ice or water come into contact with the oysters. Call and see it at our store. At the same time we will be glad to hand you one of our books "Seaside Oyster Dishes," which contains many shore receipts.

PURE FOOD LAW VIOLATED

California Concerns Admit They Deceived Buyers.

San Francisco, Nov. 24.—Two wholesale concerns in this city and one in Oakland, Cal., pleaded guilty yesterday in the United States district court to violations of the pure food law.

The Chevalier company, of this city, confessed to having shipped eight bottles of liquor labeled "apricot brandy" to Reno, Nev., where an investigation revealed that no apricots had been used in its manufacture. A second count charged the company with having shipped "peach brandy" to Reno.

The Bertini Leipori company admitted having sent olive oil to Raton, N. M., which contained 45 per cent cotton seed oil, although the label on the cans declared the contents were the pure product from Italian groves.

KNOTS WERE TIED

CAPTAIN CHARLES GREVILLE MARRIED TO MRS. HENRY KERR TODAY.

THE CEREMONY IS SAID IN LONDON

Son of General Nelson A. Miles Is Married at Washington—There Was Another Society Wedding at Princeton.

London, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Henry Kerr, of New York, and Capt. Charles Greville were married in London today. The wedding was a quiet affair, but attracted much attention in social circles.

The bride was the widow of the late Henry S. Kerr, of New York, a niece of the late Mayor William R. Grace, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grace, of New York and Great Neck. It is said that Mrs. Kerr received $1,000,000 in her own name upon the death of her husband.

The Hon. Charles Beresford Fulke Greville is a captain in the Seventh Hussars and aid to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and to the governor of Bombay and the governor general of Australia.

He is 38 years old and in line for the baronage. His elder brother, Ronald Henry, the Hon. Ronald Henry Fulke Greville, has no heirs.

His mother was one of the pioneers in feminine journalism. Lady Greville is well known to the English newspaper reading public as Lady Violet Greville. She is the sister of the present Duke of Montrose and married the second Baron Greville, who was the private secretary of Gladstone forty-five years ago.

A Son of General Miles Weds.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Miss Davide Yulee Noble, daughter of Mrs. William Belden Noble, today became the bride of Lieut. Sherman Miles, U. S. A., son of Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles. The ceremony was performed at noon in St. John's church.

Another military wedding scheduled for today is that of Miss Bessie Reed Aspinwall, of Newburg, N. Y., to Lieut. Hayden Waite Wagner, of the Third United States cavalry.

Free Laxative For Babies

Just as a mother is careful about the food she gives a child, she should be careful about the kind of a laxative she gives it to move its little bowels. Not all remedies for this purpose, no matter how good they may be, are suited to a child.

You should especially avoid pills and tablets and powders, for they are difficult to digest and children find it hard to swallow them. And purgatives and salts and the various waters are too violent for the young. Better give it a gentle though effective laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is pleasant to the taste and absolutely does not gripe. A fifty cent or one dollar bottle can be bought of any druggist, and if you give a small dose, as the directions call for, before you put the child to bed, or a small dose before breakfast, you will have a cheerful, happy child in a few hours.

This remedy has been sold for almost a quarter of a century and thousands of families know about it, but if you have never used it, and you would like to make a test of it before buying it in the regular way, send your name and address to the doctor for a free sample bottle. In this way, without expense, many mothers have learned of a way of curing children of the little ills of life, and thereby avoiding the graver diseases.

In the family of Martha Eminter of Yorkville, S. C., and I. S. Bowyer of Jamestown, Colo., no other laxative but this is used. It is a remedy for all the family, strong enough to be effective on the most robust and mild enough so that women, children and old people, who especially need a gentle laxative, can use it. You will find nothing better for constipation, indigestion, sick headache, sour stomach, flatulency and such stomach, liver and bowel troubles than this Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Let it be your family remedy from today on and we assure you you will have a healthy household.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

NEW MAN AT HEAD

W. CAMERON FORBES IS NOW GOVERNOR GENERAL OF THE PHILIPPINES.

WAS INITIATED INTO OFFICE TODAY

Manila, Nov. 24.—W. Cameron Forbes was today inaugurated governor-general of the Philippines, succeeding James F. Smith.

The inaugural ceremonies were of an imposing character, and the new chief executive was given a popular ovation.

A great ball, which will be attended by the social elite of Manila, will be held this evening.

Among the responsibilities left with his successor by retiring Governor-General James F. Smith is an investigation which the latter ordered of charges of corruption at the polls filed by candidates disappointed at the recent general elections.

Protests have been made in several provinces, the specific allegations including the misuse of money in South Manila and throughout the province of Laguna.

The nationalists were generally successful in the election of assemblymen and provincial governors, one of their notable victories being in Laguna province, where they defeated Gov. Callies, a Filipino, who had long been the executive of that province and sought re-election.

Callies, in an appeal to the governor-general, charged that the election officers in Laguna had been bribed with large sums of money to record the votes of illiterates.

The teachers that attended the Teachers' association at Boonville last Thursday, Friday and Saturday are as follows: Misses Addie Hotsenpillar, Mary Leach, Nell Wilkerson and Eva Robertson and Prof. Mohler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Whurley, of near Sedalia, visited her mother, Mrs. Taylor Spillers, Sunday.

Miss Annie Bet Ames entertained quite a number of her friends Friday night and Miss Ruby Miller entertained quite a number at the hotel the same night.

Montie Ross, of Sedalia, attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Hiram Allen, last Thursday.

Mrs. Edith Gochenour returned last Friday from Red Oak, Ia., where she has been visiting relatives for a few months.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with to select a heating stove is by its price, unless you can't help yourself. is it not good business and economy to select a stove known for years by most everybody, as the first and foremost of its kind and always sold at a reasonable price? The genuine ROUND OAK will burn successfully and economically any kind of fuel and you can run your fire at just the speed you wish.

Then you can close up the stove when the proper time arrives — and hold the fire—just as you want it—till next day or next evening. Isn't a stove like the ROUND OAK worth a little more on the start? And can't you see? You get your money back little by little — until finally you have the cheapest stove possible — and then a stove that lasts — that stays sound and good!

If it is good business for us to sell it, it is good business for you to buy it.

If You Are Looking for a Stove that will Win, Don't Overlook the ROUND OAK

You are invited to see it. It is imitated. See the name ROUND OAK on the leg.

TABERNACLE FULL

GREAT CROWD OUT LAST NIGHT TO HEAR DR. TORREY'S FINE SERMON.

SEVERAL CONVERSIONS ARE MADE

Those Who Have Not Yet Attended the Meetings and Heard the Splendid Singing Have Missed Grand Treat, Truly.

The crowd that filled the tabernacle last night was inspiring. Have you been yet?

There was great inspiration, too, in the singing, and especially in the singing of "God Will Take Care of You." Many would have that fact strongly impressed on their minds.

Don't forget to join the great demonstration on Saturday night, the object of which is to reach those who are "down and out."

The result of these demonstrations in England was the reclaiming of many of those who were down. Many through these means were thoroughly converted and are today living changed and useful lives.

No one should miss hearing the story of Mr. Jacoby's life on Saturday night. It is in itself a demonstration of the wonderful power of the grace of God.

Yesterday was a red letter day, for those who were able to attend the three meetings held. The ministers' meeting in the morning was well attended. Dr. Torrey spoke with power and it was a time of great heart searching. No doubt those who were present will long remember it as a time of real power. It has not been our privilege to be in such a meeting for a long time past.

In the afternoon there was a good company, when Dr. Torrey spoke on the work of the Holy Spirit. These meetings are doubtless the most helpful of the whole series of meetings now being held. We believe they will be productive of the most good, for they touch the hearts of the Christians of Sedalia, and will influence their lives and work, long after Dr. Torrey and his noble band of workers are gone. We know of the blessed results of similar meetings held in Great Britain in the years gone by. Such meetings then changed the whole life and work of many a Christian.

But the night meeting! The tabernacle was full, with an attentive, eager, and, as far as one could judge, an earnest crowd. Dr. Torrey preached one of the most powerful and heart-searching sermons that we have ever heard, and made a strong appeal to those who were guilty of committing "high treason" against their divinely appointed king, Jesus Christ, to surrender to Him. After the sermon he made a strong appeal, when several complied and came forward. But there ought to have been many more, and we very sincerely trust that they will yet do so.

Those who have not yet been to the tabernacle to hear the fine singing have missed a treat. They had better hurry up, and come while they have the opportunity. Such singing, such gospel singing is seldom heard in Sedalia.

Following is an outline of last night's sermon:

Last Night's Sermon.

"What shall I do with Jesus which is called Christ?"

I have the same text that I had last night. I want to call your attention tonight to what we must do with Jesus Christ. Every one of us will have to do something with Jesus Christ tonight. You don't want to. Many a man here does not want to do anything with Jesus Christ. You don't want to accept Him or reject Him. You don't want to confess Him or deny Him. You just want to get Him off your hands. You can't do it. Pontius Pilate who asked the question of our text, tried to get Christ off his hands, but he could not do it. Neither can you. Every man and woman in this building will do something with Jesus Christ tonight. Now let me tell you what you must do.

You must either accept Him or reject Him. Jesus Christ is here, and now offers himself to every man and every woman in this building as your Savior and Lord and Master, and unless you definitely accept Him as such you definitely reject Him. Every man and woman will go out of this building tonight either having definitely accepted Christ or definitely rejected Him.

Secondly, we must either confess Him or deny Him. He himself said so in Matt. 10:32-33. There are just two classes of people in the world today, the confessed followers of Christ, and the deniers of Christ, and you belong to one or the other. Which do you belong to?

Third, you must either let Him into your heart or shut Him out of your heart. The Lord Jesus says in Rev. 3:20, "Behold I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come into him and will sup with him and he with me." The Lord Jesus is in this tabernacle tonight knocking, knocking! Who is it? The Son of God—knocking at your heart and mine. Will you throw your heart wide open and say, "Come in, Lord Jesus;" or will you shut your heart and bar it and say, "Stay out, Lord Jesus?" Every one of us will say one or the other tonight.

In the next place, we must be for Christ or against Him. He Himself says so. In Matthew 12:30 He says, "He that is not with me is against me." Every man that is not with Him is against Him. Every man that is not openly, decidedly, confessedly, out and out for Christ is against Christ. Where do you take your stand tonight, with Christ or against Him?

Now one other line of thought, and that is, who is this Jesus with whom we have to do?

He is the One whom God hath appointed and anointed to be your King. If you reject Jesus Christ, you reject your Divinely appointed and anointed King and you are guilty of High Treason against Heaven's King.

But He is more than your King—He is the Son of God. He is a divine person, and if you reject Him you are guilty of rejecting the Son of God.

Jesus Christ is not only your King; He is not only Divine; He is something more yet. He is your Savior. The One, who was wounded for your transgressions, bruised for your iniquities, upon whom the chastisement of your peace was laid, and oh, men and women, if you reject Him you reject the One who was wounded for your transgressions, and you will be guilty of the most awful ingratitude. Will you reject Him, will you deny Him, will you take your stand against Him, will you shut Him out of your heart? Oh, men and women, what are you made of?

In the light of what depends on your choice, in the light of what Jesus Christ is, what are you going to do with Christ tonight?

It was an awful crisis in the life of Pontius Pilate when he asked the question of the text. But it is a more solemn and a more awful crisis for you tonight for you know better who Jesus is. There you sit, and there stands Jesus, unseen but there He surely stands in all the dignity and beauty of His perfect manhood; there He stands in all the glory of His perfect deity; there He stands in all the wondrousness of His matchless love, crowned with thorns, and with pierced hands. And there you sit trying to decide what to do with Him. In your heart there are higher voice and lower voices. There is the voice of the Spirit of God which says, "Accept Him; confess Him; take your stand on His side tonight." There is the voice of conscience which says, "Accept Him." There is the voice of gratitude which says, "Accept Him." Everything that is noble and good and true in you says, "Accept Him; confess Him; let Him into your heart; take your stand with Him." But alas, there are lower voices in your heart tonight. There is in your heart the voice of cowardice, the fear of what people will say, which says, "Reject Him; take your stand against Him." The voice of avarice, the greed for gold that might slip through your fingers if you became a real Christian, and that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of lust, low, beastly lust that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of low political policy which says it will rob you of influence in your political party if you become a Christian, and that says, "Reject Him." Everything that is low and base and mean and devilish in your heart says, "Reject Him; deny Him; shut Him out of your heart; take your stand against Him."

Men and women, which are you going to listen to? What are you going to decide? God help you to decide right tonight.

DESK LAMP EXPLODED

Fire at the Home of Will Brummet Early Last Evening.

J. T. Brummet, father of Will Brummet, the linotype operator, who makes his home with his son at 1700 South Harrison avenue, attempted to open a desk drawer there at 7:30 o'clock last evening, when he overturned a lighted lamp.

The lamp exploded, igniting the desk and papers in it, which were burned, entailing a loss estimated at $25.

The blaze was extinguished without the aid of a fire department.

BACK FROM THE ASYLUM

Deputy Sheriff James Card Took Mrs. Weil There Last Afternoon.

Jacob B. Weil, a wagon maker, residing at 667 East Fifteenth street, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff James Card, left at 5:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for Nevada, where they placed Mr. Weil's wife, Mrs. Hannah Weil, in the state insane asylum to be treated for an unsound mind.

Mrs. Weil entered the institution as a private patient. Messrs. Weil and Card returned home on the flyer last midnight.

FIRE IN THE BASEMENT

It Was Discovered Last Midnight by a Janitor.

A still firm alarm was sent in from the Flower-Barnett Dry Goods company's store at 12 o'clock last night, following the discovery that a pile of slack in the basement of the building had ignited.

Will Amick, a member of company No. 2, responded to the alarm and remained with the blaze for two hours, extinguishing it at 2 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by the janitor of the building, and it is due to his prompt discovery that the building was saved from possible destruction.

QUESTIONED A DEATH

Jury Recommends That Stomach of Man Be Analyzed.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 24.—Interest in the case of John Waller, who was found dead in bed last Sunday morning, was renewed by the verdict yesterday of the coroner's jury that Mr. Waller came to his death "by hands other than his own and by parties unknown to the jury."

The jury recommended chemical analysis of the stomach and of any other organs that may be advisable and suggested that the findings of the chemists be laid before the authorities for legal action.

MATTER OF HYPNOTISM.

Most people are more familiar with demonstrations of hypnotism as an entertainment than as an agecy of therapeutics. There is more or less popular apprehesion of its value in the latter regard, but the general conception of the uses of hypnotism is that which pertains to entertainment.

Generally speaking, too, it is looked upon as a form of harmless entertainment when conducted by persons who possess the power of suggestion to an expert degree. Known instances of physical or mental damage from such demonstrations are rare; and on the whole there has been little disposition to condemn the exercise of hypnotic power for the amusement of the public.

But the other day at Somerville, N. J., a so-called professor of hypnotism reduced a subject to a condition of catalepsy, in which his muscles became absolutely rigid. While in this state the subject was lifted onto two chairs, his head resting on one and his feet on the other, and in that position he was used as a bridge by the professor. Physical collapse followed this experiment, and shortly afterward the man died. An autopsy disclosed that the cause of death was the rupture of aorta, or the main artery leading from the heart.

It does not appear that the hypnotic state in and of itself was the cause of death; but there is great probability that the fatal ending of the experiment was due to the muscular strain occasioned by sustaining the weight of the hypnotist. This unfortunate occurrence has brought the subject of hypnotism as a source of entertainment to the attention of the public.

Hypnotism is the power of mental suggestion exercised until it produces artificial sleep. It undoubtedly would have been well if the public long ago had denounced the use of such power for mere entertainment, as a perversion.

A French physician, Dr. Liebault, discovered the therapeutic value of hypnotism, and the utility of that discovery was developed and elaborated by a student of his, Dr. Bernheim, a noted clinical professor in the great hospital at Nancy, France. Liebault's discovery was at first treated as a curiosity.

When Bernheim became an enthusiast on the subject he published a book on the therapeutic value of mental suggestion, which gave great impetus to the study of hypnotism. Since that time medical science has concerned itself with the development of hypnotism as a very useful aid in the alleviation of human distress.

This is its only legitimate use, and by none other than a well trained and expert physician. Any other use is charlatan in its character, and of no benefit to anyone; while, as demonstrated in the Somerville case, it may involve injury or loss of life.

GIRLS TO LEARN TO SWIM.

Boston educational authorities have issued an order that high school girls of that city must learn to swim. Just how the order is to be carried into effect does not appear in what is published on the matter; but that is not so important. It will be made effective, and swimming will be made a part of the Boston high school curriculum.

And why not in Boston's high schools, and in every other high school where the proper equipment may be installed?—and that means every high school in every city of any considerable size in the country.

There is no physical exercise of so much value to girl pupils, all things considered, as swimming. Compare the two, even though it be solely in point of physical development, and swimming is infinitely superior to school calethenics; while beyond the mere "setting-up," the development of physical courage and the value of the art of swimming in the matter of life saving are in themselves sufficient recommendation of such a course.

The argument that might be made to the effect that swimming is no part of the mental development of high school girls falls flat when we think of these advantages, and of the strengthened lungs and stregth ened spine thrown in for good measure.

The Boston order for education in swimming is full of common sense

Sometimes Help the Hair to Go.

In any changeable climate the hair is apt to become brittle, and to break off stubby here and there. This makes a hair-dressing almost a necessity, especially to ladies. In using a hair dressing ,why not get the best, one that combines with it the efficiency in killing the dandruff germ, the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, causing what is called falling hair, and in time baldness. Newbro's "Herpicide" is that kind of a hair dressing. You have no idea how delightful your scalp will feel, and how stylish your hair will appear, after an application or two of Herpicide. It is certainly a wonderful innovation as a scalp antiseptic and hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE THIRD HOUSE

Abolish This Nuisance.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

There is something radically wrong and abominally wrong with the management of the street cleaning department. The "outfit" doing this work, presumably under a contract with the city, are utterly ignoring their contract, or their contract is of such a nature that it would seem that a "weakling" must have represented the city when the contract was made.

The street sweeper is put to work at "just any old time," it matters not whether the dust has been laid by the sprinkler or not; neither does this concern care how much loss or inconvenience the people are put to. They are after the money there is in it, whether they earn it or not.

Last night the sweeper was at its dastardly work at 7:30 o'clock, and the clouds of dust it was raising was astounding. There were very many people on the streets, as it was at the hour when the big crowd which attended the Torrey meeting last night in the tabernacle was assembling, and the inconvenience suffered by many of these people must have been very great.

While the driver of the machine is of course not to blame, yet it would not have been surprising if he had been ordered off of the street at the point of a shotgun. Respecting the comfort of some ladies, the driver did stop once when the volume of dust became so dense that it was unbearable.

This nuisance should be done away with. Surely the contract these people are working under provides that this work be done at a later hour than it was begun last night, and is done many other nights.

Then, as if to add insult to injury, the debris was not entirely removed till long after business hours this morning.

The attention of the mayor is hereby called to this rank imposition. He and the city council should see to it that the citizens are not thus unnecessarily annoyed.—Taxpayer.

A GREAT BLAZE

OF CONVICTION SWEEPING OVER SEDALIA.

The more people know of the new remedy, Root Juice, the more convinced they are of the wonderful merits of the discovery. Scores of people have bought it at Wilcox's drug store, and after using it a short while they are so loud in praise of it that their neighbors are going to the store in such crowds for the medicine it is hard to keep it in stock. Testimonials are being piled upon testimonials from every direction and many are buying the juice because it is doing so much good for a neighbor or relative. Root Juice has certainly created a great sensation over in Quincy, Ill. Mr. John Spratt said: "I have suffered a long time with a very painful kidney and bladder trouble, and had to get up every fifteen or twenty minutes during the night. I would sometimes so suffer with my back and kidneys that I would have to walk the floor for hours at a time. I began taking Root Juice when it was first introduced here, and after taking it for a short time I wish to say for the benefit of my friends and others who suffer as I did, that I am now free from all pain and rest well at night. I am rapidly regaining strength and am much improved in every way." Mr. Oscar Green, of the same point, R. R. No. 3, said: "Before taking Root Juice I had very bad stomach trouble of long standing. After eating a meal I felt like I had knots of rocks in my stomach. I bloated very much and had a burning in my stomach that pained me very much and caused me to be nervous, but the first dose of Root Juice soothed my stomach and caused me to feel better, and after taking the great medicine a short while I can eat anything without suffering from it." We are told taht the people at the drug store are glad to give any information in their power in relation to the remedy. The juice is now on sale for $1 a bottle or three bottles for $2.50.

Advantages of the Fireless Cooker Over the Usual Method

Retain all the natural juices of meats, vegetables, etc.
Renders food more nutritious and palatable.
Requires only about one-fifth the time.
Prevents scorching, drying up or burning.
Never overcooks or spoils the food.
Renders all food much more digestible.
Promotes good health and good temper.
Prevents the commingling of flavors.
Cooks cabbage, onions, etc., entirely without odor.
Gives you leisure for calling, shopping, taking a nap, etc.
Turns Sunday dinners from drudgery to delight.
Prevents worry if husband or guests are late.
Does away with kitchen heat.
Cooks for breakfast over night.
Physicians say "the dyspeptic's best friend."

Fireless Cookers and the art of fireless cooking are old, having been used in Norway and the old world ages ago—the only difference is that our Cooker is built scientifically for all practical purposes.

In operation this wonderful invention is simplicity itself. You simply prepare the food to be cooked in the regular way—place it on the stove and bring it to boil—then immediately transfer to the Cooker, cover tightly, add the insulated pillow covering — drop the lid and let the Cooker do the rest. In a few hours remove the cover and serve the boiling hot—perfectly cooked and with a taste that will prove delightfully surprising.

THE COOKER

Is 24 inches long, 12 inches wide by 12 inches deep, made of kiln dried, specially prepared wood, dovetailed on all corners.

The cabinet is packed with chemically treated mineral wood which retains heat at the highest temperature.

The Cover is pressed steel, perfectly sanitary, and indestructible; it cannot wear out. The lining and Kettle Container is made of heavy seamless enameled tin, airtight and waterproof. Intense cold has absolutely no effect whatever on the contents of the Cooker. A dinner can be put in the Cooker and taken in the open air, on the back porch for example, even if the temperature is 20 degrees below zero, the cooking process will continue just as perfectly and scientifically as if Cooker was in the house.

The Cooker contains a six-quart and also a four-quart enameled pressed steel cooking kettle with special airtight covers.

CABINET DECIDES TO GO VERY SLOWLY IN PROSECUTING THE "TRUSTS"

THIS WAS TO HAVE BEEN EXPECTED

Didn't All of the Big Corporations Do Their Level Best to Bring About the Election of the Gentleman from Ohio?

Washington, Nov. 24.—The Taft administration will pursue a conservative trust policy. Trusts chiefly were discussed during a two hours' meeting of the cabinet yesterday. The deliberations centered around the Standard Oil decision and its effect and led to talk of what should be done in cases similar to that against the Standard.

These general conclusions, according to excellent official authority, were reached:

No general prosecution of great corporations organized and operated like the Standard through holding companies.

Action to be brought only against such trusts as are operated unreasonably in restraint of trade.

Each case to stand upon its merits.

No prosecution of Oil Trust officials under the criminal section of the Sherman law.

Amendment of the Sherman law so that trusts not acting in restraint of trade will not come within the terms of he law.

The Taf administration does not propose to "run amuck." It will go slowly. There has been speculation here whether as the result of the Standard decision suits would be brought against the concerns which are managed through holding companies. Apparently now these corporations have little to fear.

An administration authority said today:

"The decision in the oil case, briefly, is that the law is violated when there is a combination in restraint of trade. The fact that there is a combination through a holding company does not necessarily constitute a violation of law. The point is whether the combination is in restraint of trade."

A BRIBE ATTEMPT

NOT CONFINED TO ELECTRICAL MEN

Mr. Bonaparte Declares That Certain Officials Pleaded With Him Before Election to Cease the Investigation.

Washington, Nov. 24—An interview obtained here yesterday with former Attorney General Bonaparte, of Baltimore, confirms the reports hitherto carried in these dispatches that the Electrical trust used extreme influences to cause a stoppage of the investigation into its affairs which was in progress just before the last presidential campaign began.

"Certain gentlemen," said Mr. Bonaparte, "informed me that the electrical investigation was damaging the business interests of the country."

The Baltimore lawyer also pronounces genuine the letter in which Roosevelt urged him to press the inquiry regardless of "whether—clients contribute a million for the election of Taft, or a million dollars for the election of Bryan, or whether they fail to contribute a cent on either side.

"I was approached by gentlemen who said that they came from the electrical interests," continued Mr. Bonaparte, "who said the investigation was hurting business generally, and declared that the country could not stand such investigations at such a time. However, this attemp at interference was in no wise peculiar to the investigation in the affairs of the threatened electrical combine.

"It applied to investigations into other matters. They all wanted the investigations called off or halted.

"I have some correspondence bearing on the effort to have these inquiries stopped; but I must hold it as private. I cannot tell the names of those who saw me on the subject."

Mr. Bonaparte would not discuss the fact that he investigation of the Electrical trust was in truth stopped after pressure was brough to bear.

TO INSPECT HERDS

DAIRYMEN OF MISSOURI WILL FIND THIS IS A MIGHTY GOOD THING.

PLAN OF STATE VETERINARIAN

Provides for the Inspection of All Herds In the State Furnishing Milk and Butter to the Public.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 24.—Dairymen are liable to have more trouble than a little on their hands in case they sell milk or butter from a herd of cattle that has not been officially inspected, if a pure milk ordinance that is being framed by State Veterinarian Dr. D. F. Luckey is adopted.

The doctor hopes to have the ordinance passed by the city council in Columbia first, although it will be suitable for adoption in any city in Missouri. It provides for the state inspection of all herds in Missouri furnishing milk and butter to the public.

"It will be to the advantage of every dairyman to have his herd inspected," says Dr. Luckey, "as he will get considerable free advertising from it, as we will boost them all we can. The inspection, which will be for tuberculin germs, will be without cost to the dairymen, and all condemned cattle will be bought by the state under certain restrictions. In no case will more than one-third or one-fourth the value of the animals be lost and the gain by having the spread of the disease checked will far more than offset it.

"The correction of evil existing in some cases may cause a temporary increase in the price of milk, but in the long run it should not do so. It costs only a trifle more to produce clean milk than impure milk. Milk from diseased cows is dear at any price."

MARK ON A COLLAR

LED TO AN ARREST IN ATTEMPT TO ROB BIG FOUR TRAIN OVER IN OHIO.

IMPLICATED BOLD HOLD-UP MAN

A Terre Haute, Indiana, Dispatcher Confesses to Crime—Was Also to Have Attempted Robbery of a Bank.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 24.—George Chandler Graves, arrested in St. Louis Monday on the charge of aiding Clyde Simpson, a Big Four train dispatcher at Terre Haute, in the attempted hold-up of the West Manchester, O., bank, is implicated in a confession which Simpson made on Sunday night.

Another attempt at holding up a bank was to have been made today in a town near Indianapolis, according to the police.

Graves had been a waiter in Terre Haute for several years preceding the hold-up of Oct. 19.

From the effects found in Simpson's room the police learned that he and Graves, who went to St. Louis immediately after the Ohio job, had been working together for some time.

A Terre Haute laundry mark on a collar left in the suit case the robbers left in a buggy, in which they made their escape from North Manchester, led to tracing the men.

Simpson says that when the posse following came to the corn field into which they had run after leaving the buggy, and stopped at the edge of the field because the two had done so much shooting, could have come on, for the last cartridge was gone.

He explains why the bloodhounds traced them only to the railroad track to which they came from the corn field by saying that they walked for a mile on a rail.

SOCIETY WOMAN'S HAIR

Says Miss Gertrude Gatlin, of Timberville, Miss., After She Had Taken Cardui for Her Pains.

Timberville, Miss.—Miss Gertrude Gatlin, of this place, writes:

"I did not know that anything could stop the womanly pains from which I had suffered for two years, until I tried your wonderful medicine—Cardui.

"I had been troubled with various female ailments, but they were cured in a little while, thanks to Cardui.

"When I hear any of my friends say they feel bad, I tell them to try Cardui. It is a blessing to womanhood."

Not every medicine can be depended on to cure a woman's ills.

Not every tonic will bring back woman's health.

Cardui, the woman's tonic medicine, will do both, by the power of its unique, specific, curative, strengthening ingredients especially adapted for use in cases of female ailments.

Composed exclusively of pure, vegetable materials, with a gentle, strengthening action on the system, Cardui is perfectly harmless to young and old and can be relied upon to have absolutely no bad after-effects.

Thousands of thankful ladies have written to tell of the benefits Cardui has been to them. Why not to you?

Will you try it?

Please do.

A BRIDE AT TIPTON

SEDALIA YOUNG MAN CLAIMED THE HAND OF MISS GUSSIE ROSENHAN.

THE REV. FR. KEUPPER OFFICIATED

The Bridal Couple Disappeared After the Ceremony and It Is Not Known Where They Went—Will Reside Here.

Will Etzbach, acting day ticket agent for the M., K. & T., returned last night from Tipton, where at 11 o'clock Tuesday forenoon he attended the marriage of his brother, Fred Etzbach, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, to Miss Gussie Rosenhan, a refined young lady of that place.

The wedding occurred at the parsonage of the Tipton Catholic church, the Rev. Fr. Keupper officiating. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the bride's home immediately afterward.

The bridal couple had been expected to board the afternoon train going east, and the wedding guests were at the station to bid them farewell, but when the train arrived, also when it departed, the couple could not be located and their destination is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Etzbach, after their honeymoon, will return to Sedalia to reside.

Among those from Sedalia to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Etzbach, parents of the groom, and Edward Bahner, a friend.

A RIDER JUROR JAILED

Expresses Sympathy for Accused Men and Is Sentenced.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 24.—The state scored yesterday in the trial of Garrett Johnson and Arthur Cloar, the alleged leaders of the Reelfoot Lake night riders accused of the murder of Capt. Quentin Rankin, when Juror Charles Jackson, charged by the state with having openly expressed sympathy for the night riders, was fined $50 by Trial Judge J. E. Jones and sentenced to ten days in jail for contempt. Witnesses supported the charge.

Attorney General D. J. Caldwell announced that he would prefer similar charges against two more jurors. A sharp altercation arose between Sheriff Easterwood and Judge Jones when the court, on motion of the state, instructed the sheriff to remove the jurors from the jail, where they have been residing during the progress of the trial. The sheriff yielded.

END STOMACH MISERY

A LITTLE DIAPEPSIN NOW WILL MAKE ANY SUFFERER FEEL FINE.

NOTHING ELSE CURES SO THOROUGHLY

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn, Headache and Other Distress From An Out-of-Order Stomach Relieved in Five Minutes.

If you have some Diapepsin handy and would take a little now your stomach distress or Indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disturbance.

CAUSES CONSUMPTION

If you have catarrh, don't fool yourself into the belief that it is a harmles disease.

At least one-half of the consumption in the world can be traced to catarrh.

Here are some symptoms of catarrh; if you have any of them get rid of them while there is yet time:

Is your throat raw?
Do you sneeze often?
Is your breath foul?
Are your eyes watery?
Do you take cold easily?
Is your nose stopped up?
Do you have to spit often?
Do crusts form in your nose?
Do you blow your nose a great deal?
Are you losing your sense of smell?
Does your mouth taste bad mornings?
Do you have to clear your throat on rising?
Do you have a discharge from the nose?
Does mucous drop in back of throat?

BURGLARS LOOT A HOME

Mistress of House Terrorized by Pair in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 24.—Two women burglars, masked and armed with revolvers, entered the residence of Mrs. W. Crosman, a Minneapolis woman, last night, while she was seated in her library reading a book. She heard a noise in the hall and went out to investigate. She saw two women leisurely taking hat pins from their hats on the rack.

She was speechless with fright and stood helplessly, watching them. One of the women turned and saw Mrs. Crosman leaning on the door jamb, near to fainting. She went up to her, Mrs. Crosman declares, and she saw the muzzle of a revolver protruding from the sleeve of the burglar's waist.

Mrs. Crosman managed to keep out of her reach. The robbers got about $400 in valuables.

To every one who reads this notice, You are invited to visit West's Book Shop and Studio November 26 and 27 to enjoy the annual holiday opening of 1909.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

MARRIED 55 YEARS

MR. AND MRS. WM. TRIPLETT TODAY CELEBRATING THE ANNIVERSARY.

NUPTIAL KNOT TIED IN KENTUCKY

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mr. and Mrs. William Triplett, the former bookkeeper for the Sedalia Candy Co., are today celebrating their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. Triplett is 77 years of age and his wife is 76. Mr. Triplett was formerly Miss Sydney Preston. Both were born at Stithton, Ky., where they were united in marriage.

Fifty-four years ago they left the Blue Grass state and came to Missouri, and for the past twenty years have resided in Sedalia, coming here from Kansas City.

At the noon hour today Mr. and Mrs. Triplett were the honor guests at a sumptuous family dinner given at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Hannefield, 1810 South Ohio avenue.

Among those present were their four children, grandchildren and friends.

Among those who attended the dinner were:

Mr. and Mrs. William Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Triplett and baby Lois, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fellers and son Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Hannefield and babe Roland, Misses Vera Fellers, Ethel Harris, Nora Smith, Edith Triplett, Mae Hannefield, Messrs. Ray and Elmer Harris, Murray Fellers, Ross Smith, William Triplett, jr., Rucker Triplett and Raymond Hannefield.

RODES VERSUS VAN DYNE

Arguments Being Made in Injunction Suit Today.

(From Monday's Daily)

Judge George F. Longan for the defense and Hon. C. E. Yeater for the plaintiff are today making final arguments before Circuit Judge Louis Hoffman in J. H. Rodes' injunction suit against J. R. Van Dyne, of the American Disinfectant Co. A decision will not be handed down for several days, however.

The suit was tried recently, arguments being postponed until later.

HEAVY EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS

Salins, Cal., Felt Earth Tremble This Morning—No Serious Damage.

Salins, Cal., Nov. 22.—The heaviest earthquake recorded here since the great disaster of April 18, 1906, was felt here early today.

Buildings rocked and cracked for fifteen seconds, and the people rushed to the streets in a panic. As far as is known, there was no serious damage.

DESERTS M. U. FOR K. U

How Could Miss Anderson Turn Back On the Former?

Independence. Mo., Nov. 22.—Friends of Miss Edna Anderson are still wondering how she had the heart to calmly turn her back on the unequaled advantages of Missouri university and affiliate herself with the Jayhawker tribe at Kansas university.

The theory has been advanced that some hypnotic influence was used to lure her away from the home institution, where she made an excellent record last year in the school of journalism, but her intimate friends are of the opinion that Miss Anderson thought Kansas had a better football aggregation.

Be that as it may, the fact remains that Miss Edna is now chanting "Rock chalk, jay hawk," instead of "Rah, rah, rah, Missourie, M. S. U., ni-ver-si-ty, Hurrah! hirah, yes, siree."

Moberly After Brick Plants.

Moberly, Mo., Nov. 22.—Moberly needs and wants more brick plants. Building and street paving work has been delayed for months, it is stated, on account of the lack of brick.

Raw material is found in inexhaustable quantities in the vicinity of the city, which is as good or superior to any found in the state. This being the case, business men and others interested in the advancement of Moberly are taking hold of a proposition to get more plants established here with vim.

The Man Who Beat His Wife.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Charles Evans, who was arrested recently for assaulting his wife and living in adultery with Hazel Reed, was given six months in the county jail and fined $1 and costs by Justice J. B. Rickman today on the charge of assault. The jail sentence was remitted on the defendant's promise to support his family.

GAGE IS TO MARRY

BE THIRD MATRIMONIAL VENTURE

The Bride-to-Be Is Mrs. Ada Ballou, Who Is Said to Be "Beautiful and Accomplished"—Ceremony to Be Said Tomorrow.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 24.—Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury, aged 73, is to have a Thanksgiving present tomorrow. The gift is the hand of Mrs. Ada Ballou, beautiful and charming, and young enough to be the ex-cabinet member's daughter.

Mr. Gage has lived here for some time, and is a devout disciple of Mrs. Katherine Tingley, head of the theosophical cult. He has persuaded his prospective bride to become a theosophist, it is alleged, and has prepared a beautiful home for her at Point Loma, the Tingley headquarters.

Mrs. Ballou is tall and stately, with pale blue eyes, white skin and a mass of glowing red hair. She sings and plays the piano well, and has the reputation of being one of the most fascinating women in the city.

The announcement of the engagement was given out to local newspapers by a strange woman, whose identity is not known.

Mrs. Ballou is a daughter of George H. Ballou, a prominent merchant of San Diego, who admitted that his daughter was to marry Mr. Gage. Mrs. Ballou's friends say that several years ago she amrried a Pittsburg man, who was a winter visitor here. The courtship was brief, but romantic. She told her friends that he proposed while they were on a sailboat becalemd in the bay at night. He died soon after the wedding, and the widow returned here from Pittsburg, where they had gone to live. She resumed her maiden name.

Lyman Judson Gage, who has earned a high reputation as a financier, was born in 1836. When he marries Miss Ballou she will be his third wife. He married Miss Sarah Etheridge, of Hastings, Minn., in 1864: she died ten years later. In 1887 he married Mrs. Cornelia Washburn Gage, of Denver, Colo. She died in Washington, at the age of 58. Her husband was secretary of the treasury, and it was said the strain of her social duties at the national capital did much to break down her health.

Starting life as an office boy in a small bank, Mr. Gage became president of the First National bank, of Chicago. He has been three times president of the American Banking association. President McKinley made him secretary of the treasury, and he held that office from 1897 until 1902. Then he was elected president of the United States Trust company, of New York.

Retiring from business in 1906, Mr. Gage went to live at Point Loma, eight miles from San Diego, Cal. He was a member of the Society for Psychical Research, and the report spread widely that he had been converted to theosophy and would join the colony founded by Mrs. Kitty Tingley, the "Purple Mother," at Point Loma.

Moonshiners Still Exist in Missouri.

Cape Girardeau, Nov. 22—Three moonshiners were arrested by revenue officers Saturday night, after a long trip through the dense woods of Ripley county. The still is the first captured in Missouri in five years, and had a capacity of twenty barrels of whisky a week.

DEATH IN FLAMES

CONGRESSMAN DE ARMOND AND LITTLE GRANDSON BURNED TO DEATH.

NO TRACE OF THE BODIES FOUND

It Is Thought Both Victims Were Incinerated—Other Members of the Family Escaped From the Burning House.

Butler, Mo., Nov. 23.—Representative David A. DeArmond, one of the oldest democratic members of congress, and his grandson, Waddie, aged 6 years, were burned to death in a fire that destroyed the DeArmond home here early today.

The other members of the family escaped and it is believed that none is hurt.

Neither the body of Congressman DeArmond nor that of his young grandson has been recovered, and it is believed they were incinerated, as bones which are believed to be those of the congressman were found among the ruins by searchers this morning.

The other occupants of the house at the time of the fire, all of whom escaped, were Mrs. DeArmond and Mrs. Hattie Clark, her married daughter, and a hired girl.

The home of Congressman DeArmond was situated across the street from that of General James A. DeArmond, his son. When the fire was discovered the son started to rush into the burning home of his father in an attempt to save his father and the child, but was restrained by the younger Mrs. DeArmond and neighbors.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The house was a two-story one and it burned fiercely. Mrs. DeArmond, wife of the congressman, who escaped in her night clothes, was unhurt, but fainted as soon as she reached the ground, as did her daughter, Mrs. Clark.

When revived later Mrs. DeArmond became hysterical and it was some time before she could tell of what had happened.

Mrs. Clark was awakened by a cry, and going to the door of her room on the second floor she saw smoke issuing from the front part of the house, where Congressman DeArmond andWaddie slept together.

"Get out of here," she heard Waddie cry.

"Never mind, son, I'll save you," the congressman answered.

These were the last words either of the victims uttered. A moment later the smoke increased in great volume and Mrs. Clark fled down stairs to the telephone and gave the alarm.

She hurried back to the room of her mother and with difficulty awakened her.

The two women had barely time to

KILLS SALOON MAN

M. A. SPANGLER WAS MURDERED IN KANSAS CITY, MO., EARLY THIS MORNING.

SHOT DOWN BEHIND HIS OWN BAR

He Drops Dead With Bullet Through His Heart—Son Shot in Pistol Duel With His Father's Slayer Later.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—While trying to grasp the revolver of one of two robbers who had attempted to rob his saloon at the northeast corner of Twentieth street and Grand avenue, at 12:45 this morning, M. A. Spangler, aged 59 years, was shot across the bar and instantly killed.

In a pistol duel with his father's murderer, Sam Spangler was shot through both arms, but not seriously.

He believes he shot the robber. The latter and his companion escaped.

The Spanglers were getting ready to close the saloon for the night. Sam Spangler had removed the cash from the register and was reading the totals from the detail adder, while the father was writing them on a card.

There were two visitors in the saloon when the robbers did the shooting, but they were covered with a revolver by one of the robbers, while the robber shot the Spanglers.

REPAIR THE ROAD

GEORGE GOULD MUST GET BUSY ON THE MISSOURI PACIFIC CENTRAL BRANCH.

GOV. STUBBS SENDS ULTIMATUM

Lines in Kansas Must Be Made Safe, or Otherwise a Receiver Will Be Asked—President Geo. Gould Makes Reply.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—Unless the Gould interests begin improvements on the Missouri Pacific properties in Kansas, and more especially the Central branch, at once, Governor Walter Roscoe Stubbs will instruct the attorney general to put the road into the hands of a receiver.

"That road has got to be improved, and improved right away. If the Missouri Pacific doesn't do it the state of Kansas will," said the governor. "The state will have a receiver appointed, as it has a right to do, under a law passed last winter.

"Under this receivership we will put the Central branch in first class condition, give good service to those people out there, and, having done this, we will then turn it back to the Missouri Pacific. The time for temporizing and listening to silly excuses is past. That road must be fixed, and that right away.

"The Gould interests have taken every cent they could get from the Kansas properties to build the Western Pacific. In the meantime Kansas people have been enjoying poor service, unsafe roadbeds, old and dirty cars. The company has made all sorts of excuses and promises, but has done very little. We don't propose to stand it any longer."

Gould Promises to Improve.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—A vigorous telegram from Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, to George J. Gould, president of the Missouri Pacific system, threatening to institute receivership proceedings against the Central branch, a subsidiary road which traverses a rich farming country in this state, unless the line was improved speedily, was followed late last [illegible] noon by a definite promise from Mr. Gould from New York to improve the road. One hundred miles of 85-pound rails have been ordered for 1910.

Reeder Goes Back to School.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Harry C. Reeder, formerly of the civil engineering department of the Missouri Pacific, who has been taking the baths at Mt. Clemens, Mich., the past month for rheumatism, departed from there yesterday for Troy, New York, to join his wife and baby daughter, Elizabeth.

Mr. Reeder had for several months past been under the care of some of the best specialists both east and west, but not one of them gave him even temporary relief.

The baths at Mt. Clemens, however, effected a cure, and Mr. Reeder now returns to Troy to resume his studies at the Rensselaer Polytechnic institute, this being his third year of a four year course.

CLARDY GETS JOB

SUCCEEDS ALEX. G. COCHRAN AS HEAD OF MISSOURI PACIFIC LEGAL DEPARTMENT.

APPOINTMENT IS EFFECTIVE NOW

Becomes Vice President and General Solicitor—For Five Terms Representative in Congress From Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23—A circular was issued yesterday from the Missouri Pacific executive offices announcing that Mr. Martin L. Clardy, general attorney for Missouri and Illinois, is appointed vice president and general solicitor, effective at once, with headquarters in St. Louis.

The circular is signed by Vice President C. S. Clarke and is approved by President George Gould. Mr. Clardy succeeds Mr. Alex G. Cochran, who recently resigned after twenty-two years' service.

Mr. Clardy has been connected with the legal department of the Gould lines, the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain, for seventeen years, and has been general attorney for fifteen and one-half years.

Prior thereto he served five consecutive terms in congress. His appointment will give general satisfaction in railroad and legal circles throughout the west and southwest.

HAVE CLASS INITIATION

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The members of Russell camp No. 2065, Modern Woodmen of America, at Monday night's meeting, made preliminary arrangements for a class initiation and supper to be given early in December.

On that occasion Head Consul Talbott, of Rock Island, Ill., and A. R. Smith, state director, of St. Louis, will be present.

Invitations will be extended to every member of the order in Pettis county to attend.

The exact date for the event is undecided by reason of the fact that it is not known definitely when the supreme officers will be able to be here.

The "blowout" will be given at one of the local theaters, according to present arrangements, and efforts will be made to secure one of the largest classes in the history of the camp for initiatory purposes.

A SUSPECT IS CAUGHT

Third Man Said to Be Concerned in Topeka Case.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—"Bob" Randolph, the third man said to be concerned in the kidnaping of Marion Bleakley, the incubator baby, at Topeka, Kas., last August, was arrested by Detective J. F. Lyngar at Twelfth and Walnut streets last night.

He had been driving a hack in Kansas City for the past four months.

A Glasgow Doctor Killed.

Dr. M. B. Collins, of Glasgow, Mo., aged 72 years, fell from a street car Saturday evening in Kansas City, where he had gone to visit a daughter, and died of his injuries two hours later. He had lived in Glasgow since childhood and was a surgeon in the Confederate army.

A BRIDE AT TIPTON

SEDALIA YOUNG MAN CLAIMED THE HAND OF MISS GUSSIE ROSENHAN.

The Bridal Couple Disappeared After the Ceremony and It Is Not Known Where They Went—Will Reside Here.

Will Etzbach, acting day ticket agent for the M., K. & T., returned last night from Tipton, where at 11 o'clock Tuesday forenoon he attended the marriage of his brother, Fred Etzbach, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, to Miss Gussie Rosenhan, a refined young lady of that place.

The wedding occurred at the parsonage of the Tipton Catholic church, the Rev. Fr. Keupper officiating. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the bride's home immediately afterward.

The bridal couple had been expected to board the afternoon train going east, and the wedding guests were at the station to bid them farewell, but when the train arrived, also when it departed, the couple could not be located and their destination is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Etzbach, after their honeymoon, will return to Sedalia to reside.

Among those from Sedalia to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Etzbach, parents of the groom, and Edward Bahner, a friend.

TO BE MARRIED TONIGHT

Mr. Wm. J. Freeland and Miss Bertha A. Thompson By Fr. Neiberg.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Miss Bertha A. Thompson, of 912 West Fifth street, will be married to Mr. W. J. Freeland this evening at 7 o'clock at the parochial residence Thompson, and has been a communicant at Sacred Heart church.

Mr. Albert Thompson and Miss Josie Esser will act as witnesses.

The bride-to-be is a popular young lady who since last May has made her home with her brother, J. P. been a communicant at Sacred Heart church.

The prospective groom is a boilermaker at the Missouri Pacific shops, and, like his intended, has a legion of friends.

In anticipation of the event the Democrat-Sentinel extends its congratulations to the happy couple.

CHARLES RICKMAN DEAD

Man 70 Years Old Died at the Home of His Son.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Charles Rickman, aged 70, father of H. L. Rickman, a Missouri Pacific car inspector, died from general debility at the home of his son, H. L. Rickman, 307 East Boonville street, at 10:10 o'clock this morning, following a brief illness.

Deceased was a member of the Southern Methodist church, but held membership in no lodge or society. His wife died a number of years ago, and the son is the only immediate relative who survives.

THEY KILLED TURKEYS

A Four-Days' Shoot Was Begun Monday Afternoon.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A four days' turkey shoot was inaugurated at the home of Mr. Wallett, one-fourth mile east of the High Point school house, Monday afternoon, quite a number of Sedalians attending.

C. J. Hieronymus and Dr. Wallace Simonds each killed three turkeys, Dr. C. B. Trader one, Reuben Gentry one, Clyde Patterson two and other Sedalians one each.

ARE GOING TO A WEDDING

Sedalia Boy to Claim a Tipton Bride Tomorrow.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Mrs. Fritz Etzbach, wife of the letter carrier, will leave at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon for Tipton, and will be followed tonight by her husband and sons, Fred and Will, where, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, Fred will be united in marriage to Miss Gussie Rosenhan, a popular Tipton girl.

Immediately after the wedding a dinner will be served at the bride's home, and the bridal couple will then come to Sedalia to reside.

To the "Pen" for Susie.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The supreme court has affirmed the five-year sentence of Susie Payne, a negress, for larceny from the person in the night time, and she was taken in custody by Sheriff Henderson. Susie has done one term of two years at the Missouri prison, and will be no stranger there. She's a confirmed criminal and Sedalia is to be congratulated in getting rid of her for even so short a term.

Removed to St. Louis.

E. M. Bradley, a Missouri Pacific conductor, has been transferred to St. Louis, and, accompanied by his family, who have been residing at 1105 East Ninth street, left for that place Friday to remain.

Special Thanksgiving Dinner

Liberty, Mo., Nov. 23.—Plans are being made for everyone at the Odd Fellows' home to know that Thanksgiving day has got around again. A special dinner is being prepared and appropriate services will be held during the day. The home is the finest institution of its kind in the world. The indications are that a large hospital will be added to it in the near future.

ASK THE USER

Did you ever know a man who owned and used a genuine ROUND OAK STOVE? If not, and you are going to buy a heating stove, find one — for ROUND OAKS are everywhere—and ask him and his family what they think of it. That is the way to prove the ROUND OAK. We will abide by "THE RETURNS."

It never failed a user yet. It has friends everywhere. Why? Because it's a good honestly made stove; it heats up, it holds the fire, it saves the fuel and it lasts. Sound and perfect, it comes forward year after year—ready for business. There are reasons for the remarkable showing this stove has made.

If interested you should know them. No trouble to show the stove and explain reasons why. Get curious! Investigate! It will pay you.

EQUINES FROM THE EAST DEFEATED

Interest in the Raising of Light Harness and Saddle Animals Is on the Increase All Over the State.

Lexington, Mo., Nov. 22.—When it comes to producing fine horses, Lafayette county is rapidly getting in a class by itself.

Harness meetings held on a number of half-mile tracks in Missouri this season have demonstrated that Missouri has become a powerful rival of Kentucky in the breeding of standard bred trotters and gaited saddle horses.

Lafayette county is entitled to share honors along this line. Interest in the raising of light harness and saddle horses and in the development of the trotter is rapidly increasing. The climate is particularly well adapted to the industry.

Eastern horsemen are taking more interest in the Missouri product and track meets than has been their custom in the past. The season just closed has seen a number of horses from the extreme eastern states entered in various meets over the state and in most instances they were defeated by local horses.

"I saw as good horses at the Missouri meetings as I ever saw anywhere in the United States," said an eastern man in speaking of the development of the horse raising industry in the state.

"I know that I did not win many races this season, but I was well treated everywhere and hope to come back some day with horses good enough to beat the home product, but I realize that I am up against a hard proposition.

DIVINE TALKS SENSE

The Pastor of a Wealthy Church Gave Advice to the Rich.

New York, Nov. 23.—The pastor of the well-to-do Collegiate Baptist Church of the Covenant astonished his comfortable congregation Sunday night by sayings concerning what rich men should do.

"The intellectual gymnastics," said the Rev. Dr. Haywood, "of the average New York preacher when confronted with the text, 'It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven,' are pitiable.

"I am perhaps the largest property holder here tonight, but I deny the right of any man to exploit the land while there are hungry stomachs to fill. I let my property to tenants for quite as little as will pay taxes and the expenses of one girl whom I am putting through college.

"I have known but two religious men in my life. One is dead and the other is on the Bowery. He has given millions to the poor and he lives the life of a day laborer. There is stamped on the face of J. Eads How, sometimes called the millionaire hobo, more worldly wisdom, more saintliness than any other face I ever saw."

PAY BETTER SALARIES

Retiring Treasurer Treat Says Its Due Employes.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Higher salaries for the thousands of clerks grown gray in the government service are urged upon congress in the annual report of the retiring United States Treasurer Charles H. Treat, made public by Secretary MacVeagh yesterday.

Taking much the same view that several cabinet officers and many bureau chiefs have formed, Mr. Treat points out that with the higher cost of living, the salaries paid by the government are grossly inadequate, remaining stationary while daily wages have been increased in almost every line of industry. He recommends a retirement.

TWELVE MONTHS' SCHOOL

Wisconsin Educator Sees No Need for Vacation Period.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—Kansas school teachers and students are up in arms against the proposal of Prof. E. A. Ross, of the University of Wisconsin, made in a recent address at the University of Kansas, for continuous schools.

The subject has aroused a great deal of comment in Kansas, most of it adverse. Prof. Ross declared that school vacations are a relic of pioneer days, and that children should attend school twelve months in the year.

The fact that in the early days the children were needed to help with the crops is cited by Prof. Ross as the reason for the original vacation. Now that this necessity is passed he advocates a continuous school term, with lighter work during the summer.

Friends of the members of either society are invited to be present.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy."—Arlington Pharmacy.

CRACK IT TO THEM

LET NO GUILTY MAN ESCAPE IN THE NEW YORK CITY SUGAR WEIGHING FRAUDS.

GET THE REALLY "HIGHER UP" ME!

Conviction and Stripes Behind Iron Bars for the Latter Will Certainly Teach Salutary Lesson to Crooks.

New York, Nov. 22.—Trial of Oliver Spitzer and the weighers involved in the sugar frauds against the government, of which the Sugar Trust is accused, was again postponed today. The authorities are seeking evidence against the "men higher up," and Spitzer and his accomplices will not be tried until the government is in possession of proofs of the whole conspiracy.

H. L. Stimson and Winfred T. Denison, who have charge of the case for the government, are known to be in possession of facts which showed that regularly once a month a report was made to responsible officers of the company exhibiting the amount of money that had been saved to the corporation through the underweighing frauds and the bribery of government weighers on the docks.

It is the contention of the government that the books of the corporation contain entries of these "savings" in some form. If they do, this will be evidence that men much "higher up" than Spitzer, who for years had charge of the company's docks at Williamsburg, had guilty knowledge all along of the crimes against the government. Moreover it is contended that they authorized the payment from the company's treasury of the large amounts of bribe money.

The two sugar trust officials under suspicion have been with the company for many years, and are men of great wealth and influence. Each was trained in the service of the company by the late Henry O. Havemeyer. It was the hope of the officers now threatened with indictment that the government would pursue its investigation no further than the grave of Havermeyer. But Stimson and Denison have been quietly working on the theory that Havemeyer was not the only officer of the trust who knew what was going on.

Attorney General Wickersham, it is known, has been informed of the efforts to procure these indictments, and is said to have given them his approval. This means that the whole power of the government will be used to obtain convictions.

Negro Porter Is Insane.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Edward Viley, a negro, aged 20, whose home is at Huntsville, Mo., and who has been employed as a Pullman porter on the Union Pacific railway out of Kansas City, is a prisoner in the Pettis county jail, in an insane condition. He was arrested at Georgetown Sunday morning by Constable John Jaegles and will be taken to Huntsville by Sheriff Henderson tonight.

When a cold becomes settled in the system it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

HIS LEG WAS NOT BROKEN

City Physician Said It Was a Bad Case of Alcoholism.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Fred Putcher, the expert accountant, while under the influence of liquor, was arrested by Officer John Jackson at the midnight hour last night, after he had been forcibly ejected from Stobel's saloon on West Main street.

Putcher cried pitifully, stating his leg had been broken. A city physician was summoned and pronounced the would-be fracture a bad case of alcoholism.

No docket entry was made of the case today.

SANTA CLAUS

North Pole,
City of Cook,
Peary County

November 12, 1909.

Mr. C. E. Messerly,
Sedalia, Mo.

My Dear Friend:—Your ever welcome letter received October 29th, and Mrs. "Santa" and I certainly were pleased to hear from you and more delighted to accept the kind invitation to make your store my headquarters while in Sedalia. This has been a year of great prosperity all over the world, and I am anxious that this Xmas shall be one of the best and happiest Christmas that anyone ever spent. On account of so many new Christmas gifts, it has compelled me to make a longer and a better sleigh than I had last season, so that I may carry everything that I want the boys and girls to have. Some of their mamas have written me not to bring any shotguns or 22 rifles, also not to bring any dolls with yellow, kinky hair.

Now you be sure and tell the boys and girls to be good to their Ma and Pa, and that I will be in Sedalia soon with the latest and most up-to-date line of Toys, Christmas Novelties, Candies, Fruits, Nuts, Etc., ever in your city, and will give a grand exhibit of them in your new enlarged store. Am sending you on this mail one of my photographs. Tell your printer not to put red ink on my nose when he puts my picture in the paper, as my nose ain't red.

Now, I trust you will have everything in readiness, your store properly decorated with mistletoe under every lamp and plenty of extra salespeople for the Christmas rush. Be sure and invite every one down to your store so I can shake their mitt when I lite in your town. I must now quit and go to bed. With best wishes to yourself and your vast army of customers,

Am sincerely yours,
"SANTA CLAUS."

P. S.—I forgct to tell you that last month while Mrs. Santa and I were over to Labador, at the Cook banquet, our reindeers got scared at a street car, broke loose and ran away. Th[illegible]shed over into the Aurora, Bonea Ellis knocked down two te[illegible]hone poles, hit an automobile and in some way my best reindeer got his left hind leg broke.

Yours, "SANTA."

SHOW OF POULTRY

CENTRAL MISSOURI ASSOCIATION MEETS AT MARSHALL NEXT FOUR DAYS.

ATTENDANCE IS SAID TO BE GOOD

The Northwest Association Opened at Palmyra This Morning—A Very Fine Lot of Birds On Exhibition.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 23.—This is a good day for chickens in Marshall, as there are probably more of the feathered fowls within the city limits than ever before in its history. Such a noteworthy event is caused by the opening of the tenth annual exhibition of the Central Missouri Poultry association.

The Central association is one of the livest organizations in the state, and has been accomplishing great things in the way of advancing the chicken industry. Specimens on exhibition at the show demonstrate what has been done, as there are chickens here that students of chickenology pronounce about as near perfect as can be produced. The attendance at the show is good. It will close Friday.

"The importance of the poultry industry in Missouri is not appreciated by many people," said a prominent chicken fancier while speaking in regard to the matter.

"During 1908, for instance, 146,850,857 dozen of eggs were marketed from the state. These eggs sold for $22,027,828. Poultry, live and dressed, sold for nearly the same sum as the eggs, $22,095,658.

"When poultry and poultry products are added together they are more than double in value the surplus wheat and are exceeded only by corn.

"A remarkable thing is that during the last nine years the surplus poultry and poultry products sold have grown from $12,843,011."

The Northeast Association.

Palmyra, Mo., Nov. 23.—The annual chicken show under the auspices of the Northeast Missouri Poultry association opened this morning with a fine lot of birds on exhibition.

AT HOME TO FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Menefee, Jr., Celebrated Marriage Anniversary.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The celebration by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Menefee, jr., of their tenth wedding anniversary at their home last night, anticipated in Monday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel, was one of the most enjoyable functions of the kind ever given in Sedalia. It was in compliment to the members of the Sans Gene club and their husbands and sweethearts, and it was a late hour when the affair was concluded, all pronouncing the event a grand success.

In the distribution of prizes following the playing of euchre, Melvin Ilgenfritz won the gentlemen's prize, a beautiful brass ash tray and cigar holder, while Mrs. I. D. Turner, wife of an M., K. & T. conductor, won the ladies' prize, a pretty brass vase.

Late in the evening refreshments of chicken salad, potato chips, sweet pickles, Dixie biscuits and orange ice were served.

Mrs. Frank Monroe, Mrs. Harvey MacGugin and Miss Lou Menefee assisted in entertaining.

COURT DENIES NEW TRIAL

Brandenburg Had Been Reporting Cherry Mine Disaster.

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—Broughton Brandenburg, the writer, who was fined $500 for abducting James Shepard Cabanne, III, was denied a new trial by Judge Grimm yesterday. He received permission to appeal to the supreme court and was released on a $1,000 bond.

Brandenburg arrived in court an hour after the time set for his new trial motion, but excused himself on the ground that he had been detained at Cherry, Ill., where he was assigned by a newspaper to report the mine disaster.

WILL CONSIDER APPEAL

Gompers, Mitchell, Morrison and Their Attorneys.

New York, Nov. 23.—It is understood that a private conference will be held in New York today or this evening between President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, and their counsel, when the question of an appeal from the conviction for contempt of court, and the line of defense will be fully discussed.

President Gompers declares that Justice Wright was guilty of "outrageous conduct in so cruelly excoriating the honest conduct of three citizens who undertook to test the law and in imposing unusual sentences."

Cyclone in Missouri.

Dexter, Mo., Nov. 23.—A cyclone struck this town shortly before noon yesterday, demolishing fifteen houses and wrecking the Stoddard county fair buildings, including the amphitheater. Two women and two children were injured.

RARE BOOKS SOLD

PRESIDENT SHERWOOD'S LIBRARY

He Is the Head of Naturalists' Club in Gotham—Some of the Volumes to Be Sold Will Be in Big Demand.

New York, Nov. 22.—Some of the rarest books, dealing with natural history, in the world, will be sold at auction during the three days beginning today. They are from the library of President Sherwood, of the New York Naturalists' club.

One feature of the collection is the manuscripts and autobiography of Dr. William Darlington, who was a major in the war of 1812, a member of congress, and a well known botanist, who was also a physician in practice for some years at West Chester, Pa. Dr. Darlington married Catherine Lacey, a daughter of Gen. John Lacy, of Revolutionary war fame.

One of the earliest American botanical works in the collection is the 1762 edition of John Clayton's 'Flora Virginica." This work was edited by the learned Prof. John F. Gronovius. It is the second edition and the one most cited, the first edition having been the first systematic enumeration of North American plants.

Another and greater rarity is Humphrey Marshall's 'Arbustrum Americanum: The American Grove, or an Alphabetical Catalogue of Forest Trees and Shrubs, Natives of the American United States, arranged according to the Linnteun System," Philadelphia, 1785.

It is the first important botanical work published in the United States. This copy belonging to the celebrated Dr. Fothergill, and bears his autograph presentation.

Some rare early editions of Edgar Allen Poe were also placed on sale today. One of the volumes is expected to realize thousands for its owner.

MISSOURI RANKS FIFTH

In the Production of Sand and Gravel —Our Stone and Clay.

Missouri ranks fifth in the production of sand and gravel, according to statistics compiled by the state bureau of labor. In 1908 the value of the products was $726,984.

Stone and clay products were valued at $8,904,013. The report states that Missouri kilns manufactured 379,467,000 building bricks during the year. These bricks, if laid end to end, would circle the earth and leave enough to lay eight courses across the continent from New York to San Francisco.

NO TURKEY RAFFLES

Saloons Must "Cut Out" Popular Thanksgiving Lottery.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23.—There will be no turkey raffles in St. Louis saloons this Thanksgiving day, Excise Commissioner Caulfield said Monday. The custom of raffling off birds and game on Turkey day has heretofore been general in the saloons.

Mr. Caulfield holds that raffling is based on chance, and that this constitutes it a form of gambling.

Killed While Trying to Escape.

Wichita, Kas., Nov. 23.—An unknown man placed under arrest by a policeman near the railroad crossing on Douglas avenue, jerked away from the officer and dived under a freight train yesterday. He was ground to pieces. The body cannot be identified.

GEORGE M'KEE RESIGNS

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A private letter received in Sedalia yesterday stated that George McKee, a former Sedalian, had resigned as general superintendent of motive power and equipment on the Mobile & Ohio railroad, with headquarters at both St. Louis and Mobile, Ala., but the missive gave no intimation as to his future plans.

Mr. McKee is one of the best known and most successful men in his line in the south or west. He has been with the Mobile & Ohio road a number of years, and was held in the highest possible esteem by the "powers that be" on the road and also by the employes.

Years ago Mr. McKee ran an engine out of Sedalia on the M., K. & T., and he has a legion of friends here whose best wishes will always be with him [illegible] where it may.

A WORD FROM ASTOR

On November 17 He and His Yacht Were in Porto Rico Harbor.

New York, Nov. 23.—The steam yacht Nourmahal, with Col. Astor on board, arrived at San Juan, Porto Rico, from Mayaguez, Sunday, November 14, and was still there on the evening of the 17th.

All on board were well. At that time the owner was planning to leave soon for Ponte.

This information was brought here by the Insular line steamer Harry Luckenback, which arrived here this afternoon from Porto Rico.

OLD LANDMARK TO GO

Missouri Supreme Court Building Soon to Be No More.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 23.—One of the old landmarks in Jefferson City, the supreme court building, will soon be no more. The building will be completely separated from the addition which was constructed about eighteen years ago. Part of the old circular court room will be torn away. Years ago the supreme court held its sessions in this old room, which the ravages of time have sadly marred.

Senator Vest, Col. James O. Broadhead, Judge George A. Medill, Judge Francis L. Black and many others like them have argued famous cases in the old room. It was in this room that Judge McFarlane handed down the opinion that the capital removal amendment should be submitted to the people. For some time the room has been used as a part of the offices of the state library commission.

LOVE LETTER IN SAUSAGE

Written by Katie Sheehan and Answered by R. J. Halley.

Keytesville, Mo., Nov. 23.—Love will find its way all right, even if a can of sausage has to be used to help the good work along.

R. J. Halley, one of Keytesville's hustling grocers, was agreeably surprised to find on opening a can of nicely packed sausage a slip of paper on which was written a request for the finder to write real soon and signed by Miss Katie Sheehan, of Kansas City, Kan.

Halley is no piker and has written the young lady all about it. The outcome probably depends on how long that can of sausage had remained unopened. If Katie is already a wife and mother it is not likely there will be anything doing for the grocery-man, but if not there is no telling what may happen.

Another Unlawful Combination.

Judge Shields, of the circuit court in St. Louis, has declared the Polar Wave Ice and Fuel Co., of that city, a combination in restraint of trade, the same as the Standard Oil Co. Of course the case will be appealed.

Standard Oil to Fight.

The Standard Oil Co. is scheming to evade the recent court decision declaring it an unlawful combination and ordering its dissolution. Western Pennsylvania instead of New Jersey is to be the battleground. Subsidiary companies are to be incorporated independently, and a secret meeting to that end was held Monday.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all dealers.

WHITE SLAVE ARREST MADE

Dance Hall "Bouncer" Implicated in Chicago System?

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 22.—Joseph Bova, "bouncer" for a dance hall, was arrested last afternoon, following an investigation of alleged traffic in "white slaves," by which girls were sent from St. Louis to headquarters in Chicago. The arrest of Bova will be followed by other arrests as soon as the men under suspicion can be found.

Recently an organized system was discovered in Chicago, and arrests made there revealed a St. Louis end to the underground system by which many girls had been lured to Chicago and distributed from there.

Chicago officials came to St. Louis and gave Chief Creecy their information, also causing the arrest of David Garfinkle, a saloon keeper, who was taken to Chicago on a charge of conspiracy against the public morals.

Two St. Louis girls, rescued after reaching Chicago, were returned to their homes.

THE CEREMONY IS SAID IN LONDON

Son of General Nelson A. Miles Is Married at Washington—There Was Another Society Wedding at Princeton.

London, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Henry Kerr, of New York, and Capt. Charles Greville were married in London today. The wedding was a quiet affair, but attracted much attention in social circles.

The bride was the widow of the late Henry S. Kerr, of New York, a niece of the late Mayor William R. Grace, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grace, of New York and Great Neck. It is said that Mrs. Kerr received $1,000,000 in her own name upon the death of her husband.

The Hon. Charles Beresford Fulke Greville is a captain in the Seventh Hussars and aid to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and to the governor of Bombay and the governor general of Australia.

He is 38 years old and in line for the baronage. His elder brother, Ronald Henry, the Hon. Ronald Henry Fulke Greville, has no heirs.

His mother was one of the pioneers in feminine journalism. Lady Greville is well known to the English newspaper reading public as Lady Violet Greville. She is the sister of the present Duke of Montrose and married the second Baron Greville, who was the private secretary of Gladstone forty-five years ago.

A Son of General Miles Weds.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Miss Davide Yulee Noble, daughter of Mrs. William Belden Noble, today became the bride of Lieut. Sherman Miles, U. S. A., son of Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles. The ceremony was performed at noon in St. John's church.

Another military wedding scheduled for today is that of Miss Bessie Reed Aspinwall, of Newburg, N. Y., to Lieut. Hayden Waite Wagner, of the Third United States cavalry.

Society Wedding at Princeton.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 24.—Miss Dorothy Ford, daughter of Henry James Ford, professor of politics in Princeton university, was married today to Thomas Hildt, of Baltimore.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health. There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

From Wednesday's Daily.)

A still firm alarm was sent in from the Flower-Barnett Dry Goods company's store at 12 o'clock last night, following the discovery that a pile of slack in the basement of the building had ignited.

Will Amick, a member of company No. 2, responded to the alarm and remained with the blaze for two hours, extinguishing it at 2 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by the janitor of the building, and it is due to his prompt discovery that the building was saved from possible destruction.

QUESTIONED A DEATH

Jury Recommends That Stomach of Man Be Analyzed.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 24.—Interest in the case of John Waller, who was found dead in bed last Sunday morning, was renewed by the verdict yesterday of the coroner's jury that Mr. Waller came to his death "by hands other than his own and by parties unknown to the jury."

The jury recommended chemical analysis of the stomach and of any other organs that may be advisable and suggested that the findings of the chemists be laid before the authorities for legal action.

A BRIBE ATTEMPT

Mr. Bonaparte Declares That Certain Officials Pleaded With Him Before Election to Cease the Investigation.

Washington, Nov. 24—An interview obtained here yesterday with former Attorney General Bonaparte, of Baltimore, confirms the reports hitherto carried in these dispatches that the Electrical trust used extreme influences to cause a stoppage of the investigation into its affairs which was in progress just before the last presidential campaign began.

"Certain gentlemen," said Mr. Bonaparte, "informed me that the electrical investigation was damaging the business interests of the country."

The Baltimore lawyer also pronounces genuine the letter in which Roosevelt urged him to press the inquiry regardless of "whether—clients contribute a million for the election of Taft, or a million dollars for the election of Bryan, or whether they fail to contribute a cent on either side.

"I was approached by gentlemen who said that they came from the electrical interests," continued Mr. Bonaparte, "who said the investigation was hurting business generally, and declared that the country could not stand such investigations at such a time. However, this attemp at interference was in no wise peculiar to the investigation in the affairs of the threatened electrical combine.

"It applied to investigations into other matters. They all wanted the investigations called off or halted.

"I have some correspondence bearing on the effort to have these inquiries stopped; but I must hold it as private. I cannot tell the names of those who saw me on the subject."

Mr. Bonaparte would not discuss the fact that he investigation of the Electrical trust was in truth stopped after pressure was brough to bear.

GREETINGS

TOMORROW is Thanksgiving, a day set apart, since the time of the Pilgrim fathers, in which to render from grateful hearts acknowledgment to the Giver of all good for the blessings that have come to us during the year that has now been numbered with those that are gone. Not one is there among us but that has some cause for gratitude; not one but has felt in some way the beneficient grace of an All wise Providence, guarding and directing life's devious course. True, there are many who suffer from hardships, from illness, poverty, sorrow—many to whom the skies are dark and dreary, and who cry aloud from anguished hearts that the burden is heavy—the pathway dark, but over all and through all each must feel that something of goodness, something of joy, something of sweetness has come to them, even though it may not have lingered long or wholly transformed their lives from sorrow's gloom to gladsome sunshine.

Each, searching deep into the heart, can find some blessing, some joy, some gift of peace, some measure of happiness for which to give thanks, and giving, go out into the world with greater strength, brighter eyes and firmer purpose, facing the future with steadfast courage and determined belief in themselves and their God.

Therefore, from the cottage of the poor, from the palace of the rich, from the humble and from those in high places will arise united paeans of praise that will echo and reach throughout the universe and swell the glad music of Paradise

'Tis a beautiful custom, this giving of thanks by a great nation, this acknowledgment of the Divine guidance that first gave a safe refuge on Plymouth Rock to the weary searchers for freedom, and since has so potently protected and fostered a weak and helpless people through the vicissitudes and struggles of strenuous years and brought them to the high place they now occupy among the nations of the earth.

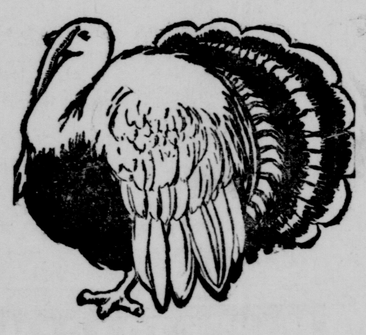

Truly this people, as a people, have just cause for thankfulness that it is as a light set upon a hill, a beacon to all the world, to greater and better government, to freedom and to the benevolent brotherhood of man

But in all our thanksgiving let us not forget those less fortunate than ourselves, those who see no rift in the clouds, who search wearily, and sometimes vainly, for some cause for gratitude.

Let us remember them this day, and in remembering give some just reason for uniting with us in praise and thanksgiving.

Thus can we show the true spirit of thanks, and in adding to the happiness of others fill our own hearts with the truest joy of life.

THE SUGAR TRUST SCANDAL.

Hardened to the revelations of corruption in which "big business" and big politicians are involved though this country has become in recent years, the people stand astounded at the magnitude of the sugar trust's stealings, as recently disclosed.

For more than twenty years, it appears, this monopoly has been defrauding the government, with the knowledge and connivance of government officials, until, it is estimated, more than $30,000,000 has been filched from the government treasury through false weighing of imports and underpaying of customs duties.

And it has remained for private individuals to make the exposures which has forced the government, with apparent reluctance, to take cognizance of the great frauds that have been perpetrated. Ten years ago Wiltur F. Wakeman, former appraiser of the port of New York, declares he laid proofs of sugar trust bribery of customs officers before Lyman J. Gage, secretary of the treasury under McKinley. According to Wakeman, Mr. Gage said:

"I don't believe that my good friend Mr. Havemeyer knows anything about this matter, and I want you to give him my compliments and present the statement which you have presented to me and tell him if anything like this exists it must be stopped."

That is as far as the government went in the matter, and the weighing frauds went merrily on.

The harmless trust buster, Mr. Roosevelt, showed similar lack of interest. Proofs were presented to him and to his attorney general, Mr. Bonaparte, of the sugar trust's violations of the Sherman anti-trust law Mr. Roosevelt was too busy making grandiloquent declarations of his intentions to "shackle cunning" and "curb rapacity" to pay any attention to concrete examples of violations of the law, and his attorney general indorsed by his lack of attention to the matter the possession of a straight tip direct from the throne that he had better keep his fingers out of the sugar bowl.

When Mr. Gage's "good friend," Mr. Havemeyer, declared many years ago that "the protective tariff is the mother of the trusts" he told a truth that has never successfully been controverted. He might have gone further and added that the protective tariff is the father of all the corruption, bribery and fraud that have ensued in the relations between the beneficiaries of the tariff and representatives of the government.

The sugar trust has never lacked for friends and emissaries in any branch of the government service. In congress it has ever had at its beck and call a motley array of faithful servants, headed by the ever watchful Aldrich. As the cases of Gage and Bonaparte show, it has not lacked for support in the cabinets of recent administrations, and, as indicated by Roosevelt's indifference to its individual crimes while thundering in the abstract against corporate wrong doing, even presidents have had as tigmatism where it was concerned.

It is a shameful mess. Enough has been disclosed to show that the government has been an accessory to the crimes committed for years. The revelations are such as to demand a congressional investigation, if there be enough members of the national legislature untouched by the sticky hands of the sugar trust "influence" to institute an inquiry.

GIRLS TO LEARN TO SWIM.

Boston educational authorities have issued an order that high school girls of that city must learn to swim. Just how the order is to be carried into effect does not appear in what is published on the matter; but that is not so important. It will be made effective, and swimming will be made a part of the Boston high school curriculum.

And why not in Boston's high schools, and in every other high school where the proper equipment may be installed?—and that means every high school in every city of any considerable size in the country.

There is no physical exercise of so much value to girl pupils, all things considered, as swimming. Compare the two, even though it be solely in point of physical development, and swimming is infinitely superior to school calethenics; while beyond the mere "setting-up," the development of physical courage and the value of the art of swimming in the matter of life saving are in themselves sufficient recommendation of such a course.

The argument that might be made to the effect that swimming is no part of the mental development of high school girls falls flat when we think of these advantages, and of the strengthened lungs and stregthened spine thrown in for good measure.

A Big Railway Merger.

Well-informed financiers, railroad men and brokers are discussing with deep interest a widely circulated report that Edwin Hawley is organizing a $500,000,000 holding corporation to include the St. Louis & San Francisco, Chicago & Alton, Missouri, Kansas & Texas, Chesapeake & Ohio, Toledo, St. Louis Western, Iowa Central, Colorado Southern, Minneapolis & St. Louis, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific companies, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

These roads have a total of more than 25,000 miles, reaching from Minneapolis on the northwest to Kansas City, Chicago, Newport News and Galveston.

That a transcontinental system also will be formed by a traffic arrangement with the James J. Hill interests with which Hawley is closely identified is considered a strong probability.

Stocks and bonds of the St. Louis roads, which are expected to figure in the discussed giant merger, have enjoyed a boom recently on the New York Stock Exchange.

Missouri Pacific Changes.

Freight Traffic Manager Flippin, of the Missouri Pacific, announces that W. B. Knight, assistant freight traffic manager, in charge of rates, divisions and publication of tariffs, will at once take the title of chief of tariff bureau. The office of assistant freight traffic manager is abolished.

J. M. Norton is appointed general agent for the traffic department at Los Angeles. General Freight Agent Githens announces the appointment of L. A. Mills as commercial agent and Fred Whitney as traveling freight agent at San Francisco.

The jurisdiction of K. M. Wharry, general freight agent, in charge of freight traffic of the companies in Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado, with office in Kansas City, is extended to include Missouri.

President Defies His Critics.

Washington, Nov. 23.—In a letter to William Dulley Foulke, of Richmond, Ind., the civil service reformer, who was so conspicuous in Theodore Roosevelt's train, President Taft defies his critics in the middle west.

He "stands pat" on his Winona speech, upholds the Payne tariff, stands by "Uncle Joe" Cannon and says:

"I expect to occupy the president's chair for three more years, and during that time I intend to be president of the United States."

Kidnaped Girl Found.

Amelia Johnson, aged 13, who was kidnaped from Elizabeth, N. J., two years ago by gypsies, was found Monday in Chicago by her father, who has traveled thousands of miles in trace of her. Zatacho Dementio, chief of all the gypsies in the United States, is in jail, charged with the kidnaping. An anonymous letter furnished the clew that led to the child's recovery.

MARK ON A COLLAR

IMPLICATED BOLD HOLD-UP MAN

A Terre Haute, Indiana, Dispatcher Confesses to Crime—Was Also to Have Attempted Robbery of a Bank.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 24.—George Chandler Graves, arrested in St. Louis Monday on the charge of aiding Clyde Simpson, a Big Four train dispatcher at Terre Haute, in the attempted hold-up of the West Manchester, O., bank, is implicated in a confession which Simpson made on Sunday night.

Another attempt at holding up a bank was to have been made today in a town near Indianapolis, according to the police.

Graves had been a waiter in Terre Haute for several years preceding the hold-up of Oct. 19.

From the effects found in Simpson's room the police learned that he and Graves, who went to St. Louis immediately after the Ohio job, had been working together for some time.

A Terre Haute laundry mark on a collar left in the suit case the robbers left in a buggy, in which they made their escape from North Manchester, led to tracing the men.

Simpson says that when the posse following came to the corn field into which they had run after leaving the buggy, and stopped at the edge of the field because the two had done so much shooting, could have come on, for the last cartridge was gone.

He explains why the bloodhounds traced them only to the railroad track to which they came from the corn field by saying that they walked for a mile on a rail.

MURDER MYSTERY

THE POLICE OF SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, ARE WRESTLING WITH THE CASE.

NAT B. JONES, A LAWYER, IS KILLED

His Wife Is Charged With the Crime and Pleads Self-Defense—The Dead Man Carried Large Amount of Insurance.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 23.—Circumstances of peculiar interest surround the killing of Nat B. Jones, a prominent lawyer of this city. His wife, Fay Heard Jones, is in custody, charged with the murder, and pleads self-defense.

Jones was killed at a local fashionable boarding house in what has been described as a particularly cold-blooded manner. Four shots were fired at the man and when other occupants of the house rushed in only his wife was seen. Jones rolled on the floor in convulsions and died shortly after his transfer to a hospital.

The only statement made so far by the woman is that her husband had threatened her with a razor, and that she had fired the shots to protect her own life. Around this statement the mystery of the case circles.

The fact that a large leather-cushioned chair was covered with blood and that two of the bullets had penetrated the back of the chair indicates definitely that the victim was sitting in the chair at the time he was shot. It is not thought that the man could have threatened the woman effectively in that position, and that had he done so the woman could have made her escape through the door.

The razor was found under the body of the man and its case under the bed. As yet it is not definitely known which of the shots penetrating the back of the chair proved fatal to the man. Two of the wounds inflicted were not such as to render him helpless, but the others were of that nature.

The question now is, was the man shot before he sat down in the chair to receive his quietus there, or was he sitting down when the fusilade began? It is not improbable that the victim fell into the chair after one or even two shots, and that in doing this dropped the razor where it was found. There is a theory, however, that he would have been hardly able to gain the chair in that case, for the succession of shots is alleged to have been too rapid, the gun used being an automatic.

All in all, the case is one of the most mystifying that has come to the attention of the local authorities. So far as the facts are known, the man must have been sitting in the chair when the woman began to fire at him.

The most peculiar circumstance is the fact that finger marks on the blade of the razor are not those of the murdered man. When the razor was found Chief of Police Van Riper was careful to close it without touching the blade. The razor, instead of having been opened by the extension of the back of the blade, as is invariably done by men familiar with its use, had been opened like a pocket knife.

On one side the imprint of the tip of a thumb is plainly visible, and on the other the mark of a finger tip appears. Impressions made of the fingers of the dead man are said not to correspond with the lines left on the razor.

What is so unusual is the fact that the razor is one used as a rule by barbers only, being of the "Barbers' Choice" brand. The appearance of its edge shows that it had been handled by a professional barber. At the store at which the razor had been bought it was said that both Mr. Jones and his wife dealt there considerably, but that neither of them had ever bought a razor of that kind.

Another feature of peculiar interest is that efforts had been made to deface the revolver with which the deed was committed. The number of the weapon had been carefully erased with a file, and the initials of the dead man had been scratched into the metal with a fine pointed tool, either a needle or a fine pointed file.

Another odd factor is that the "J" of the man's name had been reversed, something Mr. Jones would hardly do had he scratched the letters in himself, being a man of fine education and unusual intelligence. In the opinion of many the number of the gun was erased only a few days prior to the deed, for the filing has every appearance of newness.

The case is admitted to be a very baffling one and speaks of careful and deliberate preparation, either on the part of the woman or an accomplice, should her claim of self-defense not be sustained.

Mr. Jones left life insurances, in the amount of $35,000 and a little property, most of the former taken out in favor of his wife. He was a lawyer with a large clientele, and was well known all over the city. A little boy survives him. Both he and his wife had obtained divorces from other matrimonial partners.

PROBING THE BANK

THAT IS, INVESTIGATING THE AFFAIRS OF A FAILED INSTITUTION.

A SPECIAL GRAND JURY CONVENED

Report of the Auditors, Presented to the Jury, Shows a Badly Mixed Up Mess—The Officials Were "Crooked."

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 22.—A special grand jury was convened today in "John Doe" proceedings to investigate the affairs of the failed Truckers' and Traders' bank. The report of the auditors, presented to the jurors, shows a badly tangled condition of affairs.

The report shows that August 7, last, when the bank closed its doors, its deposits aggregated $198,359.54, with overdrafts of $60,789.43; while a report submitted to the corporation council on the same date, as shown by the bank's books, gives the total deposits subject to check at $132,982.94.

Terry B. Gordon, president of the bank, is held responsible for $54,284.90 and A. N. Cruser, cashier, for $12,460.04. Other claims acknowledged by Cruser place his responsibility at nearly $25,000.

The bank's final statement placed its reserves and liabilities at $238,660.23, while the auditors found them to be, according to the bank's books, $364,655.81.

Many of the deposits in the savings department, ranging from a few cents to a few dollars, were for the benefit of children.

THE CORNWALL CASE

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Florence Cornwall, whose trial after an indictment by the grand jury for keeping a bawdy house had been returned, attracted so much attention in the Pettis county courts, was discharged yesterday by the state supreme court in division No. 2, under a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was granted by Judge Henry Lamm. The Cornwall woman entered a plea of guilty to the charge against her December, 1908, conditional that she should receive a ninety days' sentence in the county jail, and that a stay of execution be granted provided she would leave her home and not violate the law again. At the expiration of the ninety days the woman, according to the prosecuting attorney, violated her parole, and in August, 1909, after Judge Hoffman had declared her parole revoked, was arrested and committed to the county jail. The woman, through her attorneys, Sangree & Bohling, sued out a writ of habeas corpus. Upon hearing the case, Judge Hoffman set aside the jail sentence and imposed a fine of $200 and ordered the woman into the custody of the sheriff until said fine was paid. The same day the woman presented her petition to Judge Lamm, of the supreme court, who, after Judge Hoffman had again denied the petition, granted the writ and made it returnable on October 1st, 1909. The result was announced yesterday by Judge Lamm, who ordered the woman finally discharged.

Sedalia's Loss Is Clinton's Gain.

The Clinton, Ia., Herald of Saturday afternoon devotes more than a column to the Brinkerhoff Stamp Vender Manufacturing Co., which is to remove to Clinton from Sedalia about January 1, 1910, as chronicled in detail in the Democrat-Sentinel Sunday morning.

The site consists of seven acres of land, necessary buildings, 110 horse power engine, stack that cost $13,000 to erect, and cash subscriptions of $17,000 to the stock of the company.

The Katy Leases Engines.

In an effort to prevent a freight blockade on its Oklahoma and Texas lines, the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad has leased from the Orient railroad twenty of its largest locomotives for use on the Muskogee and Denison divisions.

The Orient had the locomotives ordered for service and they were completed before the road was ready to put them into service.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT

Luke Emerson Charged With Carrying a Weapon.

Mexico, Mo., Nov. 22.—A special term of court was opened here this morning by Judge James D. Barnett in order to hear several motions left over from last term. One of the most iportant motions to be considered is in regard to quashing information in the case of the State vs. Luke Emerson, who is charged with carrying concealed weapons.

Emerson's attorneys contend that the law making the carrying of concealed weapons a felony did not become effective until November 1, and therefore Emerson should not be held.

Home From Colorado Trip.

THE SCHOOL DONATIONS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The public school donations to the city's poor for Thanksgiving will surpass last year's offerings by large amounts.

The provisions and cash offerings were collected after the noon hour today, and will be distributed between the City hospital and Mrs. Eula Cole, secretary of the Associated Board of Charities.

At the High school the cash offerings amounted to about $10, with an equal sum expended for provisions of all kinds.

Summit school donated two barrels of potatoes, one barrel of apples, more than one hundred cans of fruit, onions, all kinds of vegetables and various other provisions, and also clothing.

Prospect school donated two-thirds of a wagon of provisions and $9.12 in cash. Of this amount $1.36 was donated by the "Z. Z. G. B." club.

These are the only schools that reported to the Democrat-Sentinel, but it is said that every school in the city made donations in excess of last year.

PROSPERITY IS PREDICTED

Superintendent John Atwell Looks for Big Year in 1910.

Chillicothe, Mo., Nov. 22.—Superintendent John Atwell, of the North Missouri Lumber company, who has charge of eleven large lumber yards, predicts a year of great prosperity in 1910. He has been on the road a good deal of the time in the past six months and is well informed as to general conditions.

"I look forward to a great year in 1910," says Mr. Atwell. "There has been a marked improvement in conditions the past few months, and I see no reason why the improvement should not continue in an even more satisfactory manner.

"My company has experienced several severe losses the past year, but, all things considered, we are well pleased with the amount of business done, and are confidently expecting big things during the next twelve months."

168 DEAD BODIES

THEY WERE FOUND IN ST. PAUL MINE AT CHERRY, ILLINOIS, TODAY.

ABOUT 500 FEET FROM MAIN SHAFT

Messages Were Scrawled on Wood and Stone—Many of the Dead Were Lying With Their Heads Resting on Their Arms.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 24.—More than 150 bodies were found in the lowest level of the St. Paul mine today. It is now believed all but a score of the missing men have been accounted for.

The bodies were found 500 feet from the main shaft, on an elevated surface, where they had retreated before the advancing water and fatal black damp.

They could not escape the latter and died after a struggle that may have continued for two days.

Messages scrawled on wood and natural slate cropping from the walls placed the number of dead at 168. One message read:

"We are all here to die together."

Nailed onto the walls were two fans made of timbering, tied about pick handles, and under them were the biggest heaps of bodies.

IS HURLEY TO RETIRE?

Rumor Has It That He Is to Leave the Santa Fe.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 24.—Rumors started some days ago, that James E. Hurley, general manager of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, will soon sever his connection with that company, have gained force.

It is gossip here that he will take the place of A. J. Davidson, who resigned recently as president of the St. Louis & San Francisco.

At the general offices here it is believed that Mr. Hurley's resignation has been written, and that the discussion is now centered upon his probable successor.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Harry Suter, one of the pitching staff of the Chicago White Sox, was operated upon for appendicitis at Maywood hospital at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

He stood the operation nicely and is resting well as the Democrat-Sentinel goes to press.

It will be at least a fortnight before Mr. Suter will be able to be up and around. He will then go to San Francisco, Cal., where he owns a cigar store.

SIX LOST THEIR LIVES

Ten Were Also Injured in a Tenement House Blaze.

New York, Nov. 24.—Six persons were burned to death and ten seriously injured here early today in a fire that destroyed a tenement house.

The dead are two women, one man and three children.

Mrs. Rose Caraville was carried down from the third floor, but no sooner reached the ground than she dashed back into the flaming building to rescue three children.

She was never seen again.

Back to the 3-Cent Rate.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad, protected by an injunction granted by the federal court, began today to charge 3 cents a mile for tickets to points where the road has no competition.

This move is the entering wedge in the fight waged on the Illinois 2-cent fare law by the railroads.

THE TURKEY CROP

HAS BEEN CUT SHORT BY VERY UNFAVORABLE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

THIS IS GENERAL REPORT MADE

However, the Cranberry Crop Is Nearly Twice As Large As That of Last Year, So We May Have the "Sauce."

New York, Nov. 23.—Dealers say many New Yorkers will be deprived of their customary turkey feast day after tomorrow, unless the supply of the birds exceeds the present expectation.

It is expected that choice turkeys will be selling at from 25 to 30 cents a pound tomorrow, when the rush begins at the markets. Unfavorable weather conditions are said to account for a shortage in the turkey crop all over the country. There is consolation in the statement that cranberries are to be plentiful and cheap.

In the principal turkey centers, which are Vermont, Maryland and Virginia, the supply has fallen off thirty or forty per cent, according to local dealers.

In addition, the weather has been so warm that the meat has not developed the way it should, and is still soft and dry in a great number of the birds which have survived the delicate age and have grown to their full size.

In Indiana and Illinois, where a great many turkeys are raised, the weather has been too wet for the best results. While the fowls from this region are not equal in quality to those of Vermont and the southern states, the shortage in the general supply this year will enable the western raisers to obtain the higher price.

The Thanksgiing market is always flooded with large numbers of turkeys of inferior quality, and these will probably sell for a somewhat lower figure, but the choice birds will nowhere be obtainable for less than 28 cents at retail.

This year's cranberry crop is said to be nearly twice as large as that of last year, and low prices are prevailing. Attempts have been made by the growers to find a foreign market, but with little success.

In London the demand for cranberries is confined almost exclusively to the American colony. Many years ago Sir Joseph Banks cultivated the berry in England, and at one time Lincolnshire and Norfolk supplied all that England needed for tarts, pies and an acid summer beverage that had some popularity there. Nowadays, outside of the American berries, confessedly the best, England imports berries from Sweden and Russia.

The French are reported to regard the eating of cranberry sauce with fowl or game as "a mild form of barbarism."

The German people are more appreciative, but their government has prevented them from indulging in "a mild form of barbarism" by exacting a tariff duty of $1.19 on each 200 pounds, whereas the fruits of other countries are admitted free.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by all dealers.

A RIDER JUROR JAILED

Expresses Sympathy for Accused Men and Is Sentenced.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 24.—The state scored yesterday in the trial of Garrett Johnson and Arthur Cloar, the alleged leaders of the Reelfoot Lake night riders accused of the murder of Capt. Quentin Rankin, when Juror Charles Jackson, charged by the state with having openly expressed sympathy for the night riders, was fined $50 by Trial Judge J. E. Jones and sentenced to ten days in jail for contempt. Witnesses supported the charge.

Attorney General D. J. Caldwell announced that he would prefer similar charges against two more jurors. A sharp altercation arose between Sheriff Easterwood and Judge Jones when the court, on motion of the state, instructed the sheriff to remove the jurors from the jail, where they have been residing during the progress of the trial. The sheriff yielded.

JURY WAS 'BOOZY'

AT LEAST SOME OF THE JURORS WERE WHO CONVICTED BANKERMORSE.

SO ALLEGES LATTER'S ATTORNEY

Seeks a New Trial for Man Convicted of Illegal Banking and Sentenced to Fifteen Years in Federal Prison.

New York, Nov. 22.—Sensational charges of misconduct against the jurors who convicted Charles W. Morse were made by Attorney Martin W. Littleton when he appeared before the circuit court of appeals today to demand a new trial for his wealthy client. Morse is now under a sentence of fifteen years in federal prison for illegal banking practices. Littleton is confident of securing a new trial, but if he fails he will push his appeal to the United States supreme court.

Mr. Littleton makes several amazing charges, and declares he has proof in the shape of affidavits of everything he says.

He charges that at the moment the verdict was reached which resulted in the financier being sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment, one juror was suffering so much from the effects of alcohol that he was unable to stand and was lying on a cot in the jury room. He has an affidavit from the juror himself to this effect.

He charged that another juror was throughout the trial mentally incapable of considering the involved evidence, as he had been several times an inmate of sanitariums because of ailments following alcoholic excesses. He has affidavits from physicians and relatives attesting to this.

And not only these two men, but most of the members of the jury and most of the twelve guards drank whisky together daily and nightly in the Astor house, where they were quartered, according to the lawyer's allegations.

And on Sundays and holidays he declares, they all went about together and drank liberally, going to Coney Island in automobiles, to Staten island, to Van Cortland park and to various hotels and treating each other to beer and whisky wherever they went. Both jurors and guards admit these trips, the attorney says.

In addition to this state of affairs, Mr. Littleton asserts that the guards who attended the jurors were openly prejudicial against Morse, and didn't hesitate to tell the jurors how they felt. The head attendant, in fact, Morse's attorney says, remarked: "I hope they send that fellow to jail, and I'd like to have the job of taking him there."

"I am basing my appeal on the fact that the law says a defendant in any sort of a suit must have the clear, unprejudiced and unclouded judgment of twelve of his peers," Mr. Littleton said. "I think I can prove beyond doubt that Mr. Morse didn't have the unclouded judgment of these jurors—at least some of them.

"I have an affidavit from a juror admitting that a few hours before he voted 'guilty' he was under the attendance of a doctor noted as a specialist in alcoholic cases. And the federal prosecutors knew this, too.

"I never heard of such a condition among jurors and their attendants. And these men, drinking whisky constantly, were to pass upon evidence so complicated and involved that the court itself admitted it was very hard to understand."

Mr. Littleton said that ever since the trial of Morse, which concluded in November, 1908, various persons told him of unusual goings on between the jurors and their attendants. He put these statements down as imaginings of cranks, he said, until recently, when Morse's sentence of fifteen years' imprisonment was affirmed. Then he investigated, and, he said, was amazed to find that the conditions described to him were altogether true.

MARRIED 55 YEARS

MR. AND MRS. WM. TRIPLETT TODAY CELEBRATING THE ANNIVERSARY.

NUPTIAL KNOT TIED IN KENTUCKY

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mr. and Mrs. William Triplett, the former bookkeeper for the Sedalia Candy Co., are today celebrating their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. Triplett is 77 years of age and his wife is 76. Mr. Triplett was formerly Miss Sydney Preston. Both were born at Stithton, Ky., where they were united in marriage.

At the noon hour today Mr. and Mrs. Triplett were the honor guests at a sumptuous family dinner given at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Hannefield, 1810 South Ohio avenue.

Among those present were their four children, grandchildren and friends.

Among those who attended the dinner were:

Mr. and Mrs. William Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Triplett and baby Lois, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fellers and son Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. RODES VERSUS VAN DYNE

Arguments Being Made in Injunction Suit Today.

(From Monday's Daily)

Judge George F. Longan for the defense and Hon. C. E. Yeater for the plaintiff are today making final arguments before Circuit Judge Louis Hoffman in J. H. Rodes' injunction suit against J. R. Van Dyne, of the American Disinfectant Co. A decision will not be handed down for several days, however.

The suit was tried recently, arguments being postponed until later.

How Could Miss Anderson Turn Back On the Former?

Independence, Mo., Nov. 22.—Friends of Miss Edna Anderson are still wondering how she had the heart to calmly turn her back on the unequaled advantages of Missouri university and affiliate herself with the Jayhawker tribe at Kansas university.

The theory has been advanced that some hypnotic influence was used to lure her away from the home institution, where she made an excellent record last year in the school of journalism, but her intimate friends are of the opinion that Miss Anderson thought Kansas had a better football aggregation.

Be that as it may, the fact remains that Miss Edna is now chanting "Rock chalk, jay hawk," instead of "Rah, rah, rah, Missourie, M. S. U., ni-ver-si-ty, Hurrah! hirah, yes, siree."

Moberly After Brick Plants.

Moberly, Mo., Nov. 22.—Moberly needs and wants more brick plants. Building and street paving work has been delayed for months, it is stated, on account of the lack of brick.

Raw material is found in inexhaustable quantities in the vicinity of the city, which is as good or superior to any found in the state. This being the case, business men and others interested in the advancement of Moberly are taking hold of a proposition to get more plants established here with vim.

The Man Who Beat His Wife

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Charles Evans, who was arrested recently for assaulting his wife and living in adultery with Hazel Reed, was given six months in the county jail and fined $1 and costs by Justice J. B. GAGE IS TO MARRY

BE THIRD MATRIMONIAL VENTURE

The Bride-to-Be Is Mrs. Ada Ballou, Who Is Said to Be "Beautiful and Accomplished"—Ceremony to Be Said Tomorrow.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 24.—Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury, aged 73, is to have a Thanksgiving present tomorrow. The gift is the hand of Mrs. Ada Ballou, beautiful and charming, and young enough to be the ex-cabinet member's daughter.

Mr. Gage has lived here for some time, and is a devout disciple of Mrs. Katherine Tingley, head of the theosophical cult. He has persuaded his prospective bride to become a theosophist, it is alleged, and has prepared a beautiful home for her at Point Loma, the Tingley headquarters.

Mrs. Ballou is tall and stately, with pale blue eyes, white skin and a mass of glowing red hair. She sings and plays the piano well, and has the reputation of being one of the most fascinating women in the city.

The announcement of the engagement was given out to local newspapers by a strange woman, whose identity is not known.

Mrs. Ballou is a daughter of George H. Ballou, a prominent merchant of San Diego, who admitted that his daughter was to marry Mr. Gage. Mrs. Ballou's friends say that several years ago she amrried a Pittsburg man, who was a winter visitor here. The courtship was brief, but romantic. She told her friends that he proposed while they were on a sailboat becalemd in the bay at night. He died soon after the wedding, and the widow returned here from Pittsburg, where they had gone to live. She resumed her maiden name.

Lyman Judson Gage, who has earned a high reputation as a financier, was born in 1836. When he marries Miss Ballou she will be his third wife. He married Miss Sarah Etheridge, of Hastings, Minn., in 1864: she died ten years later. In 1887 he married Mrs. Cornelia Washburn Gage, of Denver, Colo. She died in Washington, at the age of 58. Her husband was secretary of the treasury, and it was said the strain of her social duties at the national capital did much to break down her health.

Starting life as an office boy in a small bank, Mr. Gage became president of the First National bank, of Chicago. He has been three times president of the American Banking association. President McKinley made him secretary of the treasury, and he held that office from 1897 until 1902. Then he was elected president of the United States Trust company, of New York.

Retiring from business in 1906, Mr. Gage went to live at Point Loma, eight miles from San Diego, Cal. He was a member of the Society for Psychical Research, and the report spread widely that he had been converted to theosophy and would join the colony founded by Mrs. Kitty Tingley, the "Purple Mother," at Point Loma.

DEATH IN FLAMES

CONGRESSMAN DE ARMOND AND LITTLE GRANDSON BURNED TO DEATH.

It Is Thought Both Victims Were Incinerated—Other Members of the Family Escaped From the Burning House.

Butler, Mo., Nov. 23.—Representative David A. DeArmond, one of the oldest democratic members of congress, and his grandson, Waddie, aged 6 years, were burned to death in a fire that destroyed the DeArmond home here early today.

The other members of the family escaped and it is believed that none is hurt.

Neither the body of Congressman DeArmond nor that of his young grandson has been recovered, and it is believed they were incinerated, as bones which are believed to be those of the congressman were found among the ruins by searchers this morning.

The other occupants of the house at the time of the fire, all of whom escaped, were Mrs. DeArmond and Mrs. Hattie Clark, her married daughter, and a hired girl.

The home of Congressman DeArmond was situated across the street from that of General James A. DeArmond, his son. When the fire was discovered the son started to rush into the burning home of his father in an attempt to save his father and the child, but was restrained by the younger Mrs. DeArmond and neighbors.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The house was a two-story one and it burned fiercely. Mrs. DeArmond, wife of the congressman, who escaped in her night clothes, was unhurt, but fainted as soon as she reached the ground, as did her daughter, Mrs. Clark.

When revived later Mrs. DeArmond became hysterical and it was some time before she could tell of what had happened.

Mrs. Clark was awakened by a cry, and going to the door of her room on the second floor she saw smoke issuing from the front part of the house, where Congressman De Armond and Waddie slept together.

"Get out of here," she heard Waddie cry.

"Never mind, son, I'll save you," the congressman answered.

These were the last words either of the victims uttered. A moment later the smoke increased in great volume and Mrs. Clark fled down stairs to the telephone and gave the alarm.

She hurried back to the room of her mother and with difficulty awakened her.

KILLS SALOON MAN

M. A. SPANGLER WAS MURDERED IN KANSAS CITY, MO., EARLY THIS MORNING.

He Drops Dead With Bullet Through His Heart—Son Shot in Pistol Duel With His Father's Slayer Later.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—While trying to grasp the revolver of one of two robbers who had attempted to rob his saloon at the northeast corner of Twentieth street and Grand avenue, at 12:45 this morning, M. A. Spangler, aged 59 years, was shot across the bar and instantly killed.

In a pistol duel with his father's murderer, Sam Spangler was shot through both arms, but not seriously.

He believes he shot the robber. The latter and his companion escaped.

The Spanglers were getting ready to close the saloon for the night. Sam Spangler had removed the cash from the register and was reading the totals from the detail adder, while the father was writing them on a card.

There were two visitors in the saloon when the robbers did the shooting, but they were covered with a revolver by one of the robbers, while the robber shot the Spanglers.

REPAIR THE ROAD

GEORGE GOULD MUST GET BUSY ON THE MISSOURI PACIFIC CENTRAL BRANCH.

GOV. STUBBS SENDS ULTIMATUM

Lines in Kansas Must Be Made Safe, or Otherwise a Receiver Will Be Asked—President Geo. Gould Makes Reply.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—Unless the Gould interests begin improvements on the Missouri Pacific properties in Kansas, and more especially the Central branch, at once, Governor Walter Roscoe Stubbs will instruct the attorney general to put the road into the hands of a receiver.

"That road has got to be improved, and improved right away. If the Missouri Pacific doesn't do it the state of Kansas will," said the governor. "The state will have a receiver appointed, as it has a right to do, under a law passed last winter.

"Under this receivership we will put the Central branch in first class condition, give good service to those people out there, and, having done this, we will then turn it back to the Missouri Pacific. The time for temporizing and listening to silly excuses is past. That road must be fixed, and that right away.

"The Gould interests have taken every cent they could get from the Kansas properties to build the Western Pacific. In the meantime Kansas people have been enjoying poor service, unsafe roadbeds, old and dirty cars. The company has made all sorts of excuses and promises, but has done very little. We don't propose to stand it any longer."

Gould Promises to Improve.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—A vigorous telegram from Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, to George J. Gould, president of the Missouri Pacific system, threatening to institute receivership proceedings against the Central branch, a subsidiary road which traverses a rich farming country in this state, unless the line was improved speedily, was followed late last [illegible] noon by a definite promise from Mr. Gould from New York to improve the road. One hundred miles of 85-pound rails have been ordered for 1910.

Reeder Goes Back to School.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Harry C. Reeder, formerly of the civil engineering department of the Missouri Pacific, who has been taking the baths at Mt. Clemens, Mich., the past month for rheumatism, departed from there yesterday for Troy, New York, to join his wife and baby daughter, Elizabeth.

Mr. Reeder had for several months past been under the care of some of the best specialists both east and west, but not one of them gave him even temporary relief.

CLARDY GETS JOB

SUCCEEDS ALEX. G. COCHRAN AS HEAD OF MISSOURI PACIFIC LEGAL DEPARTMENT.

APPOINTMENT IS EFFECTIVE NOW

Becomes Vice President and General Solicitor—For Five Terms Representative in Congress From Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23—A circular was issued yesterday from the Missouri Pacific executive offices announcing that Mr. Martin L. Clardy, general attorney for Missouri and Illinois, is appointed vice president and general solicitor, effective at once, with headquarters in St. Louis.

The circular is signed by Vice President C. S. Clarke and is approved by President George Gould. Mr. Clardy succeeds Mr. Alex G. Cochran, who recently resigned after twenty-two years' service.

Mr. Clardy has been connected with the legal department of the Gould lines, the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain, for seventeen years, and has been general attorney for fifteen and one-half years.

Prior thereto he served five consecutive terms in congress. His appointment will give general satisfaction in railroad and legal circles throughout the west and southwest.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The members of Russell camp No. 2065, Modern Woodmen of America, at Monday night's meeting, made preliminary arrangements for a class initiation and supper to be given early in December.

On that occasion Head Consul Talbott, of Rock Island, Ill., and A. R. Smith, state director, of St. Louis, will be present.

Invitations will be extended to every member of the order in Pettis county to attend.

The exact date for the event is undecided by reason of the fact that it is not known definitely when the supreme officers will be able to be here.

The "blowout" will be given at one of the local theaters, according to present arrangements, and efforts will be made to secure one of the largest classes in the history of the camp for initiatory purposes.

A SUSPECT IS CAUGHT

Third Man Said to Be Concerned in Topeka Case.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—"Bob" Randolph, the third man said to be concerned in the kidnaping of Marion Bleakley, the incubator baby, at Topeka, Kas., last August, was arrested by Detective J. F. Lyngar at Twelfth and Walnut streets last night.

He had been driving a hack in Kansas City for the past four months.

A Glasgow Doctor Killed.

Dr. M. B. Collins, of Glasgow, Mo., aged 72 years, fell from a street car Saturday evening in Kansas City, where he had gone to visit a daughter, and died of his injuries two hours later. He had lived in Glasgow since childhood and was a surgeon in the Confederate army.

A BRIDE AT TIPTON

SEDALIA YOUNG MAN CLAIMED THE HAND OF MISS GUSSIE ROSENHAN.

The Bridal Couple Disappeared After the Ceremony and It Is Not Known Where They Went—Will Reside Here.

Will Etzbach, acting day ticket agent for the M., K. & T., returned last night from Tipton, where at 11 o'clock Tuesday forenoon he attended the marriage of his brother, Fred Etzbach, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, to Miss Gussie Rosenhan, a refined young lady of that place.

The wedding occurred at the parsonage of the Tipton Catholic church, the Rev. Fr. Keupper officiating. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the bride's home immediately afterward.

The bridal couple had been expected to board the afternoon train going east, and the wedding guests were at the station to bid them farewell, but when the train arrived, also when it departed, the couple could not be located and their destination is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Etzbach, after their honeymoon, will return to Sedalia to reside.

Among those from Sedalia to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Etzbach, parents of the groom, and Edward Bahner, a friend.

Mr. Wm. J. Freeland and Miss Bertha A. Thompson By Fr. Neiberg.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Miss Bertha A. Thompson, of 912 West Fifth street, will be married to Mr. W. J. Freeland this evening at 7 o'clock at the parochial residence Thompson, and has been a communicant at Sacred Heart church.

Mr. Albert Thompson and Miss Josie Esser will act as witnesses.

The bride-to-be is a popular young lady who since last May has made her home with her brother, J P. been a communicant at Sacred Heart church.

The prospective groom is a boilermaker at the Missouri Pacific shops, and, like his intended, has a legion of friends.

CHARLES RICKMAN DEAD

Man 70 Years Old Died at the Home of His Son.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Charles Rickman, aged 70, father of H. L. Rickman, a Missouri Pacific car inspector, died from general debility at the home of his son, H. L. Rickman, 307 East Boonville street, at 10:10 o'clock this morning, following a brief illness.

Deceased was a member of the Southern Methodist church, but held membership in no lodge or society. His wife died a number of years ago, and the son is the only immediate relative who survives.

THEY KILLED TURKEYS

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A four days' turkey shoot was inaugurated at the home of Mr. Wallett, one-fourth mile east of the High Point school house, Monday afternoon, quite a number of Sedalians attending.

C. J. Hieronymus and Dr. Wallace Simonds each killed three turkeys, Dr. C. B. Trader one, Reuben Gentry one, Clyde Patterson two and other Sedalians one each.

Shipments of Stock.

Thomas Ulmer, a Green Ridge stockman, Monday shipped two car loads of stock to the St. Louis market, the same being purchased by William Doherty, representing the J. H. McCampbell Commission Co.

ARE GOING TO A WEDDING

Sedalia Boy to Claim a Tipton Bride Tomorrow.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Mrs. Fritz Etzbach, wife of the letter carrier, will leave at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon for Tipton, and will be followed tonight by her husband and sons, Fred and Will, where, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, Fred will be united in marriage to Miss Gussie Rosenhan, a popular Tipton girl.

Immediately after the wedding a dinner will be served at the bride's home, and the bridal couple will then come to Sedalia to reside.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The supreme court has affirmed the five-year sentence of Susie Payne, a negress, for larceny from the person in the night time, and she was taken in custody by Sheriff Henderson. Susie has done one term of two years at the Missouri prison, and will be no stranger there. She's a confirmed criminal and Sedalia is to be congratulated in getting rid of her for even so short a term.

Removed to St. Louis.

E. M. Bradley, a Missouri Pacific conductor, has been transferred to St. Louis, and, accompanied by his family, who have been residing at 1105 East Ninth street, left for that place Friday to remain.

Special Thanksgiving Dinner

Liberty, Mo., Nov. 23.—Plans are being made for everyone at the Odd Fellows' home to know that Thanksgiving day has got around again. A special dinner is being prepared and appropriate services will be held during the day. The home is the finest institution of its kind in the world. The indications are that a large hospital will be added to it in the near future.

ASK THE USER

Did you ever know a man who owned and used a genuine ROUND OAK STOVE? If not, and you are going to buy a heating stove, find one — for ROUND OAKS are everywhere—and ask him and his family what they think of it. That is the way to prove the ROUND OAK. We will abide by "THE RETURNS."

It never failed a user yet. It has friends everywhere. Why? Because it's a good honestly made stove; it heats up, it holds the fire, it saves the fuel and it lasts. Sound and perfect, it comes forward year after year—ready for business. There are reasons for the remarkable showing this stove has made.

If interested you should know them. No trouble to show the stove and explain reasons why. Get curious! Investigate! It will pay you.

MISSOURI HORSES

THEY ARE ATTRACTING MORE ATTENTION NOW THAN EVER BEFORE.

EQUINES FROM THE EAST DEFEATED

Interest in the Raising of Light Harness and Saddle Animals Is on the Increase All Over the State.

Lexington, Mo., Nov. 22.—When it comes to producing fine horses, Lafayette county is rapidly getting in a class by itself.

Harness meetings held on a number of half-mile tracks in Missouri this season have demonstrated that Missouri has become a powerful rival of Kentucky in the breeding of standard bred trotters and gaited saddle horses.

Lafayette county is entitled to share honors along this line. Interest in the raising of light harness and saddle horses and in the development of the trotter is rapidly increasing. The climate is particularly well adapted to the industry.

Eastern horsemen are taking more interest in the Missouri product and track meets than has been their custom in the past. The season just closed has seen a number of horses from the extreme eastern states entered in various meets over the state and in most instances they were defeated by local horses.

"I saw as good horses at the Missouri meetings as I ever saw anywhere in the United States," said an eastern man in speaking of the development of the horse raising industry in the state.

"I know that I did not win many races this season, but I was well treated everywhere and hope to come back some day with horses good enough to beat the home product, but I realize that I am up against a hard proposition.

DIVINE TALKS SENSE

The Pastor of a Wealthy Church Gave Advice to the Rich.

New York, Nov. 23.—The pastor of the well-to-do Collegiate Baptist Church of the Covenant astonished his comfortable congregation Sunday night by sayings concerning what rich men should do.

"The intellectual gymnastics," said the Rev. Dr. Haywood, "of the average New York preacher when confronted with the text, 'It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven,' are pitiable.

"I am perhaps the largest property holder here tonight, but I deny the right of any man to exploit the land while there are hungry stomachs to fill. I let my property to tenants for quite as little as will pay taxes and the expenses of one girl whom I am putting through college.

"I have known but two religious men in my life. One is dead and the other is on the Bowery. He has given millions to the poor and he lives the life of a day laborer. There is stamped on the face of J. Eads How, sometimes called the millionaire hobo, more worldly wisdom, more saintliness than any other face I ever saw."

PAY BETTER SALARIES

Retiring Treasurer Treat Says Its Due Employes.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Higher salaries for the thousands of clerks grown gray in the government service are urged upon congress in the annual report of the retiring United States Treasurer Charles H. Treat, made public by Secretary MacVeagh yesterday.

Taking much the same view that several cabinet officers and many bureau chiefs have formed, Mr. Treat points out that with the higher cost of living, the salaries paid by the government are grossly inadequate, remaining stationary while daily wages have been increased in almost every line of industry. He recommends a retirement.

TWELVE MONTHS' SCHOOL

Wisconsin Educator Sees No Need for Vacation Period.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—Kansas school teachers and students are up in arms against the proposal of Prof. E. A. Ross, of the University of Wisconsin, made in a recent address at the University of Kansas, for continuous schools.

The subject has aroused a great deal of comment in Kansas, most of it adverse. Prof. Ross declared that school vacations are a relic of pioneer days, and that children should attend school twelve months in the year.

The fact that in the early days the children were needed to help with the crops is cited by Prof. Ross as the reason for the original vacation. Now that this necessity is passed he advocates a continuous school term, with lighter work during the summer.

Will Give an Entertainment.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

The members of the Philomathean and Athenean societies of the High school will give a Thanksgiving entertainment of a musical and literary nature at the school auditorium after the close of school tomorrow afternoon, to show their friends what the literary societies of the High school are doing. Friends of the members of either society are invited to be present.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy."—Arlington Pharmacy.

CRACK IT TO THEM

LET NO GUILTY MAN ESCAPE IN THE NEW YORK CITY SUGAR WEIGHING FRAUDS.

Conviction and Stripes Behind Iron Bars for the Latter Will Certainly Teach Salutary Lesson to Crooks.

New York, Nov. 22.—Trial of Olive Spitzer and the weighers involved in the sugar frauds against the government, of which the Sugar Trust is accused, was again postponed today. The authorities are seeking evidence against the "men higher up," and Spitzer and his accomplices will not be tried until the government is in possession of proofs of the whole conspiracy.

H. L. Stimson and Winfred T. Denison, who have charge of the case for the government, are known to be in possession of facts which showed that regularly once a month a report was made to responsible officers of the company exhibiting the amount of money that had been saved to the corporation through the underweighing frauds and the bribery of government weighers on the docks.

It is the contention of the government that the books of the corporation contain entries of these "savings" in some form. If they do, this will be evidence that men much "higher up" than Spitzer, who for years had charge of the company's docks at Williamsburg, had guilty knowledge all along of the crimes against the government. Moreover it is contended that they authorized the payment from the company's treasury of the large amounts of bribe money.

The two sugar trust officials under suspicion have been with the company for many years, and are men of great wealth and influence. Each was trained in the service of the company by the late Henry O. Havemeyer. It was the hope of the officers now threatened with indictment that the government would pursue its investigation no further than the grave of Havemeyer. But Stimson and Denison have been quietly working on the theory that Havemeyer was not the only officer of the trust who knew what was going on.

Attorney General Wickersham, it is known, has been informed of the efforts to procure these indictments, and is said to have given them his approval. This means that the whole power of the government will be used to obtain convictions.

Negro Porter Is Insane.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Edward Viley, a negro, aged 20, whose home is at Huntsville, Mo., and who has been employed as a Pullman porter on the Union Pacific railway out of Kansas City, is a prisoner in the Pettis county jail, in an insane condition. He was arrested at Georgetown Sunday morning by Constable John Jaegles and will be taken to Huntsville by Sheriff Henderson tonight.

Office of SANTA CLAUS

North Pole, City of Cook, Peary County

November 12, 1909.

Mr. C. E. Messerly, Sedalia, Mo.

My Dear Friend:—Your ever welcome letter received October 29th, and Mrs. "Santa" and I certainly were pleased to hear from you and more delighted to accept the kind invitation to make your store my headquarters while in Sedalia. This has been a year of great prosperity all over the world, and I am anxious that this Xmas shall be one of the best and happiest Christmas that anyone ever spent. On account of so many new Christmas gifts, it has compelled me to make a longer and a better sleigh than I had last season, so that I may carry everything that I want the boys and girls to have. Some of their mamas have written me not to bring any shotguns or 22 rifles, also not to bring any dolls with yellow, kinky hair.

Now you be sure and tell the boys and girls to be good to their Ma and Pa, and that I will be in Sedalia soon with the latest and most up-to-date line of Toys, Christmas Novelties, Candies, Fruits, Nuts, Etc., ever in your city, and will give a grand exhibit of them in your new enlarged store. Am sending you on this mail one of my photographs. Tell your printer not to put red ink on my nose when he puts my picture in the paper, as my nose ain't red.

Now, I trust you will have everything in readiness, your store properly decorated with mistletoe under every lamp and plenty of extra salespeople for the Christmas rush. Be sure and invite every one down to your store so I can shake their mitt when I lite in your town. I must now quit and go to bed. With best wishes to yourself and your vast army of customers,

Am sincerely yours,

"SANTA CLAUS."

P. S.—I forgct to tell you that last month while Mrs. Santa and I were over to Labador, at the Cook banquet our reindeers got scared at a street car, broke loose and ran away. They dashed over into the Aurora, Bonea Ellis knocked down two telephone poles, hit an automobile and in some way my best reindeer got his left hind leg broke.

Yours, "SANTA."

CENTRAL MISSOURI ASSOCIATION MEETS AT MARSHALL NEXT FOUR DAYS.

ATTENDANCE IS SAID TO BE GOOD

The Northwest Association Opened at Palmyra This Morning—A Very Fine Lot of Birds On Exhibition.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 23.—This is a good day for chickens in Marshall, as there are probably more of the feathered fowls within the city limits than ever before in its history. Such a noteworthy event is caused by the opening of the tenth annual exhibition of the Central Missouri Poultry association.

The Central association is one of the livest organizations in the state, and has been accomplishing great things in the way of advancing the chicken industry. Specimens on exhibition at the show demonstrate what has been done, as there are chickens here that students of chickenology pronounce about as near perfect as can be produced. The attendance at the show is good. It will close Friday.

"The importance of the poultry industry in Missouri is not appreciated by many people," said a prominent chicken fancier while speaking in regard to the matter.

"During 1908, for instance, 146,850,857 dozen of eggs were marketed from the state. These eggs sold for $22,027,828. Poultry, live and dressed, sold for nearly the same sum as the eggs, $22,095,658.

"When poultry and poultry products are added together they are more than double in value the surplus wheat and are exceeded only by corn.

"A remarkable thing is that during the last nine years the surplus poultry and poultry products sold have grown from $12,843,011."

The Northeast Association.

Palmyra, Mo., Nov. 23.—The annual chicken show under the auspices of the Northeast Missouri Poultry association opened this morning with a fine lot of birds on exhibition.

AT HOME TO FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Menefee, Jr., Celebrated Marriage Anniversary.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The celebration by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Menefee, jr., of their tenth wedding anniversary at their home last night, anticipated in Monday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel, was one of the most enjoyable functions of the kind ever given in Sedalia. It was in compliment to the members of the Sans Gene club and their husbands and sweethearts, and it was a late hour when the affair was concluded, all pronouncing the event a grand success.

In the distribution of prizes following the playing of euchre, Melvin Ilgenfritz won the gentlemen's prize, a beautiful brass ash tray and cigar holder, while Mrs. I. D. Turner, wife of an M., K. & T. conductor, won the ladies' prize, a pretty brass vase.

Late in the evening refreshments of chicken salad, potato chips, sweet pickles, Dixie biscuits and orange ice were served.

Mrs. Frank Monroe, Mrs. Harvey MacGugin and Miss Lou Menefee assisted in entertaining.

COURT DENIES NEW TRIAL

Brandenburg Had Been Reporting Cherry Mine Disaster.

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—Broughton Brandenburg, the writer, who was fined $500 for abducting James Shepard Cabanne, III, was denied a new trial by Judge Grimm yesterday. He received permission to appeal to the supreme court and was released on a $1,000 bond.

Brandenburg arrived in court an hour after the time set for his new trial motion, but excused himself on the ground that he had been detained at Cherry, Ill., where he was assigned by a newspaper to report the mine disaster.

WILL CONSIDER APPEAL

Gompers, Mitchell, Morrison and Their Attorneys.

New York, Nov. 23.—It is understood that a private conference will be held in New York today or this evening between President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, and their counsel, when the question of an appeal from the conviction for contempt of court, and the line of defense will be fully discussed.

President Gompers declares that Justice Wright was guilty of "outrageous conduct in so cruelly excoriating the honest conduct of three citizens who undertook to test the law and in imposing unusual sentences."

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

"Dode" Hubbard, a mulatto, who was given two years in the state penitentiary some time ago for larceny from the person in the night time, and who took an appeal to the supreme coure, was arrested today by Deputy Sheriffs Card and Menefee on a telegram from Jefferson City, stating that the higher court had affirmed the decision of the lower court.

Cyclone in Missouri.

Dexter, Mo., Nov. 23.—A cyclone struck this town shortly before noon yesterday, demolishing fifteen houses and wrecking the Stoddard county fair buildings, including the amphitheater. Two women and two children were injured.

RARE BOOKS SOLD

PRESIDENT SHERWOOD'S LIBRARY

He Is the Head of Naturalists' Club in Gotham—Some of the Volumes to Be Sold Will Be in Big Demand.

New York, Nov. 22.—Some of the rarest books, dealing with natural history, in the world, will be sold at auction during the three days beginning today. They are from the library of President Sherwood, of the New York Naturalists' club.

One feature of the collection is the manuscripts and autobiography of Dr. William Darlington, who was a major in the war of 1812, a member of congress, and a well known botanist, who was also a physician in practice for some years at West Chester, Pa. Dr. Darlington married Catherine Lacey, a daughter of Gen. John Lacy, of Revolutionary war fame.

One of the earliest American botanical works in the collection is the 1762 edition of John Clayton's 'Flora Virginica." This work was edited by the learned Prof. John F. Gronovius. It is the second edition and the one most cited, the first edition having been the first systematic enumeration of North American plants.

Another and greater rarity is Humphrey Marshall's 'Arbustrum Americanum: The American Grove, or an Alphabetical Catalogue of Forest Trees and Shrubs, Natives of the American United States, arranged according to the Linntean System," Philadelphia, 1785.

It is the first important botanical work published in the United States. This copy belonging to the celebrated Dr. Fothergill, and bears his autograph presentation.

Some rare early editions of Edgar Allen Poe were also placed on sale today. One of the volumes is expected to realize thousands for its owner.

In the Production of Sand and Gravel —Our Stone and Clay.

Missouri ranks fifth in the production of sand and gravel, according to statistics compiled by the state bureau of labor. In 1908 the value of the products was $726,984.

Stone and clay products were valued at $8,904,013. The report states that Missouri kilns manufactured 379,467,000 building bricks during the year. These bricks, if laid end to end, would circle the earth and leave enough to lay eight courses across the continent from New York to San Francisco.

NO TURKEY RAFFLES

Saloons Must "Cut Out" Popular Thanksgiving Lottery.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23.—There will be no turkey raffles in St. Louis saloons this Thanksgiving day, Excise Commissioner Caulfield said Monday. The custom of raffling off birds and game on Turkey day has heretofore been general in the saloons.

Mr. Caulfield holds that raffling is based on chance, and that this constitutes it a form of gambling.

Killed While Trying to Escape.

Wichita, Kas., Nov. 23.—An unknown man placed under arrest by a policeman near the railroad crossing on Douglas avenue, jerked away from the officer and dived under a freight train yesterday. He was ground to pieces. The body cannot be identified.

GEORGE M'KEE RESIGNS

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A private letter received in Sedalia yesterday stated that George McKee, a former Sedalian, had resigned as general superintendent of motive power and equipment on the Mobile & Ohio railroad, with headquarters at both St. Louis and Mobile, Ala., but the missive gave no intimation as to his future plans.

Mr. McKee is one of the best known and most successful men in his line in the south or west. He has been with the Mobile & Ohio road a number of years, and was held in the highest possible esteem by the "powers that be" on the road and also by the employes.

Years ago Mr. McKee ran an engine out of Sedalia on the M., K. & T., and he has a legion of friends here whose best wishes will always be with him wherever he may be located where it may.

A WORD FROM ASTOR

On November 17 He and His Yacht Were in Porto Rico Harbor.

New York, Nov. 23.—The steam yacht Nourmahal, with Col. Astor on board, arrived at San Juan, Porto Rico, from Mayaguez, Sunday, November 14, and was still there on the evening of the 17th.

All on board were well. At that time the owner was planning to leave soon for Ponte.

This information was brought here by the Insular line steamer Harry Luckenback, which arrived here this afternoon from Porto Rico.

OLD LANDMARK TO GO

Missouri Supreme Court Building Soon to Be No More.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 23.—One of the old landmarks in Jefferson City, the supreme court building, will soon be no more. The building will be completely separated from the addition which was constructed about eighteen years ago. Part of the old circular court room will be torn away. Years ago the supreme court held its sessions in this old room, which the ravages of time have sadly marred.

Senator Vest, Col. James O. Broadhead, Judge George A. Medill, Judge Francis L. Black and many others like them have argued famous cases in the old room. It was in this room that Judge McFarlane handed down the opinion that the capital removal amendment should be submitted to the people. For some time the room has been used as a part of the offices of the state library commission.

LOVE LETTER IN SAUSAGE

Written by Katie Sheehan and Answered by R. J. Halley.

Keytesville, Mo., Nov. 23.—Love will find its way all right, even if a can of sausage has to be used to help the good work along.

R. J. Halley, one of Keytesville's hustling grocers, was agreeably surprised to find on opening a can of nicely packed sausage a slip of paper on which was written a request for the finder to write real soon and signed by Miss Katie Sheehan, of Kansas City, Kan.

Halley is no piker and has written the young lady all about it. The outcome probably depends on how long that can of sausage had remained unopened. If Katie is already a wife and mother it is not likely there will be anything doing for the grocery-man, but if not there is no telling what may happen.

Another Unlawful Combination.

Judge Shields, of the circuit court in St. Louis, has declared the Polar Wave Ice and Fuel Co., of that city, a combination in restraint of trade, the same as the Standard Oil Co. Of course the case will be appealed.

Standard Oil to Fight.

The Standard Oil Co. is scheming to evade the recent court decision declaring it an unlawful combination and ordering its dissolution. Western Pennsylvania instead of New Jersey is to be the battleground. Subsidiary companies are to be incorporated independently, and a secret meeting to that end was held Monday.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all dealers.

Abandoned Hunting Trip.

Fear of blood poisoning from a lacerated finger caused Governor Hadley to abandon his hunting trip in Taney county and return to the state capital, where the injured finger could have surgical attention.

COLD WEATHER

Cold weather invariably means coughs and throat troubles, and a cough once started may easily terminate seriously if not checked. As the best cough remedy we heartily recommend our

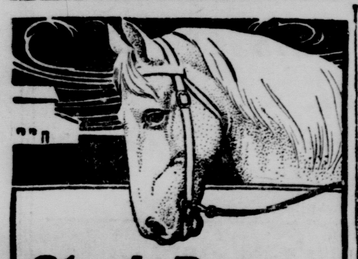

Mentholated White Pine and Tar

Cough Syrup. This syrup quickly, surely and safely relieves all coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness and other throat and lung troubles. It is pure and sure and pleasant to take. Use it and be safe. We deliver. Phones—Bell 1819; Home 172.

WHITE SLAVE ARREST MADE

Dance Hall "Bouncer" Implicated in Chicago System?

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 22.—Joseph Bova, "bouncer" for a dance hall, was arrested last afternoon, following an investigation of alleged traffic in "white slaves," by which girls were sent from St. Louis to headquarters in Chicago. The arrest of Bova will be followed by other arrests as soon as the men under suspicion can be found.

Recently an organized system was discovered in Chicago, and arrests made there revealed a St. Louis end to the underground system by which many giris had been lured to Chicago and distributed from there.

Chicago officials came to St. Louis and gave Chief Creecy their information, also causing the arrest of David Garfinkle, a saloon keeper, who was taken to Chicago on a charge of conspiracy against the public morals.

Two St. Louis girls, rescued after reaching Chicago, were returned to their homes.

THE CEREMONY IS SAID IN LONDON

Son of General Nelson A. Miles Is Married at Washington—There Was Another Society Wedding at Princeton.

London, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Henry Kerr, of New York, and Capt. Charles Greville were married in London today. The wedding was a quiet affair, but attracted much attention in social circles.

The bride was the widow of the late Henry S. Kerr, of New York, a niece of the late Mayor William R. Grace, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grace, of New York and Great Neck. It is said that Mrs. Kerr received $1,000,000 in her own name upon the death of her husband.

The Hon. Charles Beresford Fulke Greville is a captain in the Seventh Hussars and aid to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and to the governor of Bombay and the governor general of Australia.

He is 38 years old and in line for the baronage. His elder brother, Ronald Henry, the Hon. Ronald Henry Fulke Greville, has no heirs.

His mother was one of the pioneers in feminine journalism. Lady Greville is well known to the English newspaper reading public as Lady Violet Greville. She is the sister of the present Duke of Montrose and married the second Baron Greville, who was the private secretary of Gladstone forty-five years ago.

A Son of General Miles Weds.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Miss Davide Yulee Noble, daughter of Mrs. William Belden Noble, today became the bride of Lieut. Sherman Miles, U. S. A., son of Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles. The ceremony was performed at noon in St. John's church.

Another military wedding scheduled for today is that of Miss Bessie Reed Aspinwall, of Newburg, N. Y., to Lieut. Hayden Waite Wagner, of the Third United States cavalry.

Society Wedding at Princeton.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 24.—Miss Dorothy Ford, daughter of Henry James Ford, professor of politics in Princeton university, was married today to Thomas Hildt, of Baltimore.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health. There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by al. dealers.

From Wednesday's Daily.)

A still firm alarm was sent in from the Flower-Barnett Dry Goods company's store at 12 o'clock last night, following the discovery that a pile of slack in the basement of the building had ignited.

Will Amick, a member of company No. 2, responded to the alarm and remained with the blaze for two hours, extinguishing it at 2 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by the janitor of the building, and it is due to his prompt discovery that the building was saved from possible destruction.

QUESTIONED A DEATH

Jury Recommends That Stomach of Man Be Analyzed.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 24.—Interest in the case of John Waller, who was found dead in bed last Sunday morning, was renewed by the verdict yesterday of the coroner's jury that Mr. Waller came to his death "by hands other than his own and by parties unknown to the jury."

The jury recommended chemical analysis of the stomach and of any other organs that may be advisable and suggested that the findings of the chemists be laid before the authorities for legal action.

A BRIBE ATTEMPT

Mr. Bonaparte Declares That Certain Officials Pleaded With Him Before Election to Cease the Investigation.

Washington, Nov. 24—An interview obtained here yesterday with former Attorney General Bonaparte, of Baltimore, confirms the reports hitherto carried in these dispatches that the Electrical trust used extreme influences to cause a stoppage of the investigation into its affairs which was in progress just before the last presidential campaign began.

"Certain gentlemen," said Mr. Bonaparte, "informed me that the electrical investigation was damaging the business interests of the country."

The Baltimore lawyer also pronounces genuine the letter in which Roosevelt urged him to press the inquiry regardless of "whether—clients contribute a million for the election of Taft, or a million dollars for the election of Bryan, or whether they fail to contribute a cent on either side.

"I was approached by gentlemen who said that they came from the electrical interests," continued Mr. Bonaparte, "who said the investigation was hurting business generally, and declared that the country could not stand such investigations at such a time. However, this attemp at interference was in no wise peculiar to the investigation in the affairs of the threatened electrical combine.

"It applied to investigations into other matters. They all wanted the investigations called off or halted.

"I have some correspondence bearing on the effort to have these inquiries stopped; but I must hold it as private. I cannot tell the names of those who saw me on the subject."

Mr. Bonaparte would not discuss the fact that he investigation of the Electrical trust was in truth stopped after pressure was brough to bear.

Mrs. Weil entered the institution as a private patient. Messrs. Weil and Card returned home on the flyer last midnight.

Apple Season Profitable.

Higginsville, Mo., Nov. 22.—While the apples this year have been of an inferior quality to those usually raised, the industry has given employment to many people here, not only in the orchards, but in the evaporating plant, where the season has been much more profitable than expected.

Thousands of bushels were consumed by the evaporator and later shipped out to various parts of the

Fire at the Home of Will Brummet Early Last Evening.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

J. T. Brummet, father of Will Brummet, the linotype operator, who makes his home with his son at 1700 South Harrison avenue, attempted to open a desk drawer there at 7:30 o'clock last evening, when he overturned a lighted lamp.

The lamp exploded, igniting the desk and papers in it, which were burned, entailing a loss estimated at $25.

WHY GAME IS 'OFF'

REFERENCE IS HAD TO THE ANNUAL KEMPER AND WENTWORTH CONTEST.

PLAYED HERE PAST THREE YEARS

The Kemper School at Boonville Issues a Statement Explaining Why the Two Teams Will Not Meet Thursday.

Many readers of the Democrat-Sentinel have wondered why the annual football game between the Kemper Military school team of Boonville and the Wentworth Military academy team of Lexington, which has been played in Sedalia the past three years, is not to be played Thanksgiving day. The reason for no game this year is given in the Kemper Military School News Letter, just received here, as follows:

No Kemper-Wentworth Game.

There will be no Kemper-Wentworth football game this Thanksgiving for the reason that the authorities of the respective schools are unable to agree on the eligibility qualifications of the players.

Kemper proposes the following rules governing eligibility:

1 Players must be regularly enrolled at cadets at least one month before the game, and for the remainder of the academic year.

2. They must carry full courses of study—not less than four subjects daily with passing grades, and do full military duty.

3. They must receive no compensation for athletics, either directly or indirectly.

4. Since the eligibility duties required, together with the necessary athletic practice, demand all the candidate's time, no player shall be eligible who receives compensation from his school for any form of service, or whose legal guardian does not pay in cash the full charge for board, tuition, uniforms and equipment, as published in the last annual catalogue of his school.

5. No player shall be eligible who has played on the team of his school for four years.

6. No post-graduate shall play, except by special agreement in each case.

The first four rules define the qualifications that have been required of Kemper players for years. Wentworth admits to her athletic teams cadets who receive compensation for services of various kinds.

Kemper objects to these compensated players for the following reasons:

1. They are employes of the chool and should be excluded from inter academic contests, along with all other paid persons.

2. Even if the compensation is given for services other than athletics, as is claimed, conditions permit the selection of athletes for paid positions to the disadvantage of competing schools with different standards.

3. This means among others has, in fact, been used by Wentworth to develop teams stronger than the normal among preparatory schools.

4. On account of the opinion of the risk of life and limb in the game of football, that prevails among parents and the public, no conditions that tend to produces disparity should be waived in this game.

Wentworth objects to the rules:

1. Because the Kemper-Wentworth game has not been played under them heretofore.

2. Because the compensation given is not for athletics.

3. Because it is their right to admit cadets on any terms they choose.

4. Because, when admitted, it is not fair to exclude them from any of the student activities.

Kemper admits the correctness of these reasons, but denies their adequacy.

As this usual and important interacademic event is not to occur, we consider it due to our patrons, former students and the public to make this explanation. We are ready to meet any Wentworth football team that conforms to the same standards as our own.

SEDALIANS AT WINDSOR

Odd Fellows Had Class Initiation and Banquet.

Dr. M. L. Myers, Dr. H. L. Barnum, Bert Buren, G. W. Anamosa, U. S. Collier and R. A. Johnson went to Windsor at 5:15 o'clock Friday afternoon, where, that night they attended a class initiation of candidates into the Windsor lodge of Odd Fellows and also a banquet which followed.

Twenty-five candidates were initiated into the order in the presence of more than two hundred members of the order from Windsor and neighboring towns. Among those present was J. W. Wilkerson, of St. Louis, grand secretary.

The Sedalians returned home Saturday.

NO PRISON FOR HIM

MAN WHO CONDUCTED A PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS IN SEDALIA.

CALLED PROF. BARNEY M'FADDEN

Now, However, He Is a Resident of New York City, Where They Call Him Bernarr Macfadden —History of Case.

The two-year jail sentence of Bernarr Macfadden, of New York city, known in Sedalia twenty-five years ago as Prof. Barney McFadden, who came here from Sweet Springs, Mo., and conducted a school for the development of physical culture, and who wrestled several matches while a resident of this city, has been commuted by President Taft on the payment of his fine of $2,000 and the costs of the trial.

Although Macfadden was sentenced to prison for two years on November 11, 1907, for sending objectionable matter through the mails by means of his Physical Culture magazine, he did not serve a day of his term, but had managed to keep outside of prison walls by making use of legal tactics.

Right after his sentence he had his case appealed to the circuit court of appeals, and then carried it to the United States supreme court on a petition of certiorari.

After exhausting his legal remedies, Macfadden sought clemency and his sentence was suspended during a determination of the matter.

The Physical Culture Magazine still continues to be published by Mr. Macfadden in New York city, but in a much-modified form from that in which it was issued at the time of the intervention of the postal authorities.

EXPLORING PARTIES IN ST. PAUL MINE HAVE HOPE FOR IMPRISONED MEN.

INDICATIONS ARE TO THAT EFFECT

No Bodies Found Where Many Were Expected, and Live Rats Cheer the Hearts of the Searchers.

(From Monday's Daily)

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 22.—Two exploring parties in the St. Paul mine today found indications which led them to believe that there are a large number of living men in the last workings. This hope springs from the fact that they were able to pass far into the galleries today, and not a dead body was found where they expected to find many.

Nearly 200 men are still unaccounted for, dead or alive. Live rats also have been discovered in the newly explored portion of the mine. This increased the hope that the rats came from the remote sections of the cave, where comparatively pure air remained, and that if the rats could live there the men also could.

The rescuers at first thought that the noises of the rats scurring over the loose dirt was signals from imprisoned men behind the walls, but they soon discovered the truth. The men have been entombed nine days, and it is the belief today that unless they are rescued within twenty-four hours they will never come out alive.

There is a feeling among relatives of the entombed men, and even among the mine officials, that a number of Scotch miners who are among the missing have been able to take care of themselves and the rest of the miners. The twenty men rescued Saturday had completely recovered today.

ABOUT THIRTY STITCHES

Required to Sew Up the Wounds of Claude Rutledge.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Claude Rutledge, a 20-year-old son of Edward O. Rutledge, a Missouri Pacific carpenter, residing at 312 East Fourth street, was seriously injured at the skating rink at Liberty park at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Young Rutledge was on roller skates, when another young man, whose name could not be learned, also on roller skates, approached from the rear. The latter collided with young Rutledge, shoving Rutledge through a large glass window.

The left forearm, just above the wrist, was frightfully lacerated, the two arteries being cut in two parts and all the muscles severed.

Dr. K. R. Barnum was summoned to dress the wound, and removed the patient to his office, where, assisted by Drs. H. L. Barnum, W. D. Fansler and D. J. Loufbourrow, they sewed the wounds, which required almost thirty stitches.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO HANDLE PERSONAL FUNDS FOR DR. TORREY.

REV. D. M. CLAGGET IS CHAIRMAN

"Jake" Brandt, as Treasurer, Will Have the Custody of the Cash—Meeting of Negroes Thursday Morning.

(From Monday's Daily)

The Ministers' alliance held an interesting and important session this forenoon.

Rev. D. M. Clagett, Rev. C. R. Carlos and Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, with "Jake" Brandt as treasurer, were appointed a committee to collect offerings for Dr. Torrey's services.

Envelopes will be circulated through the audience at the tabernacle next Sunday, and all funds derived through that medium will be converted to Dr. Torrey's personal use. The envelopes will be collected the following Sunday, December 5.

It was decided to hold a meeting at the tabernacle for colored people next Sunday morning, at which meeting Dr. Torrey will preach.

Rev. C. R. Carlos was appointed a committee of one to arrange a meeting for Missouri Pacific shopmen at the shops, and Rev. Grant A. Robbins to arrange similar plans for a meeting for M., K. & T. shopmen.

The Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, pastor of the First Christian church, tendered his resignation as reporter for the Morning Capital, owing to other duties requiring his time, and William S. Dixon was appointed to succeed him.

It was decided to donate the offerings collected Thursday to the City hospital and Associated Board of Charities.

MARRIED AT CARTHAGE

Mr. L. C. Marshall and Miss Lynn Gold by the Rev. Moore.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mrs. John L. Gold received a telegram this afternoon from her daughter, Miss Lynn M. Gold, stating that her marriage to L. C. Marshall, of Cotter, Ark., had been solemnized at Carthage, Mo., at 11 o'clock this morning.

The Rev. R. C. Moore, pastor of a Christian church at Carthage, performed the ceremony. Among the attendants were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Krumm, of this city, the latter being a sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will leave for Cotter tomorrow morning to go to housekeeping in a nicely furnished residence.

Remembered Her Brother.

Kirk Anderson, a popular Missouri Pacific brakeman, Saturday received from his sister, Miss Beulah Anderson, who resides at Grand Junction, Colo., a box filled with some of the finest apples shown in Sedalia in years. The fruit retails at $4 a box and has a most luscious taste. Mr. Anderson, on receiving the fruit, treated his many friends, the universal verdict being that the apples are some of the finest ever tasted.

HAVE MORE LIGHT

BUSINESS MEN'S COMMITTEE MAKES ITS REPORT ON THE SUBJECT.

A SPLENDID PLAN IS SUGGESTED

If the Convention Hall Association Will Co-Operate, the Undertaking Almost Certain to Be Carried Out.

(From Monday's Daily)

The committee appointed by the Business Men's association to consider the advisability of erecting fixtures for the permanent better lighting of the court house square and Ohio avenue today submitted its report to Secretary J. W. Mellor, as follows:

The undersigned committee, acting for the Business Men's association and home-coming committee, has taken up the question of better and more artistic permanent illumination for the retail business section of this city, in line with the work now being done in other cities, and submits the following plan:

Forty-two ornamental lamp posts, 13 feet high and each carrying four 100-candle power Tungsten lamps in 10 or 12-inch round opalescent globes, can be secured at this time and erected complete, ready for connection with the electric company's service wires, for about $57.50 each, or $2,415 for the complete installation. Ordinarily the above posts complete would cost $85 each.

With the Convention hall fund of about $2,950 applied to this installation, the balance of the money to complete the work is available, and it is the opinion of this committee that as soon as the merchants realize the benefits to come from a brilliant illumination of Ohio street the system will be extended to cover all of the down town business district.

Inasmuch as every citizen is anxious to have the stranger well impressed when he comes to our city, we recommend that this entire installation of forty two ornamental posts be placed on Ohio avenue, from Main to Sixth street.

We find the cost for current and maintenance for the above installation on Ohio street will amount to about $1.50 per month per store front of 22½ feet.—L. P. Andrews, D. E. Kennedy, E. G. Cassidy, Committee.

JOHN F. BROYLES DEAD

Been Member of Local Masonic Lodge Since 1867.

(From Monday's Daily)

John F. Broyles, a prominent and wealthy farmer of near Nevland, Mo., and for forty-two years an active member of Sedalia lodge No. 236, A. F. and A. M., died from general debility at his home Sunday morning.

Mr. Broyles was a man of family, and on September 7, 1867, transferred his membership to Sedalia lodge of the Masons from a Masonic lodge at Greenville, Tenn.

Funeral services will be held at Hopewell chapel at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. Burial will be in that locality.

TO REGISTER GAS

PHOTOMETER WAS INSTALLED IN COUNCIL CHAMBER ON FRIDAY.

THE EXPERT DEPARTED SATURDAY

Mr. G. W. Wallace, of St. Louis, Did the Work—Says the Machine Can Only Be Read by One Familiar With It.

(From Sunday's Daily)

The installation of a photometer by the Sedalia Light and Traction company, as announced in Friday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel, has ended a long cry for that instrument by members of the city council and other gas consumers of the city.

According to Mr. Wallace, who installed the photometer, it is a very complicated device, and can be read only by an expert and one familiar with its intricate workings.

It is installed in an enclosure in the southwest corner of the city council chamber. The interior of the room is painted jet black. The room is thoroughly ventilated, a requirement necessary to the successful working of the gas register.

The photometer has not yet been turned over to the city by reason of the absence of Mayor Babcock, who is out of town, but on his return he will be given possession by Supt. Hamner, of the gas company.

The photometer, the expense of shipping it here and installing it will cost the gas company in the neighborhood of $500. It is a Bar photometer, and according to Mr. Wallace is an A No. 1 register.

The purpose of the device is to register accurately the exact candle power of gas furnished by the company.

Several readings have been made, showing the exact candle power of the gas furnished by the local company.

KICKED BY A MULE

John Bouldin, Horse Buyer, Met With Accident Yesterday.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

John Bouldin, the well known horse and mule buyer, had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving mules near the Arnold barn Saturday afternoon, but as it was he emerged with only a lacerated face and injured side.

John was standing near a mule, which he thought was docile, but which proved on the contrary to be quite troublesome. While John was looking in another direction from the animal the mule raised a hind hoof, kicking Mr. Bouldin in the right side and throwing him a distance of ten feet.

He alighted on his face, sustaining a painful bruise.

WARREN IS FREED

PETTIS COUNTY MAN ON TRIAL FOR MURDER ACQUITTED BY THE JURY.

TRIAL LASTED BUT TWO DAYS

Was Given to Jury at 3:40 O'clock This Afternoon and Verdict Was Rendered After 40 Minutes' Deliberation.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The jury in the case of Thomas W. Warren, charged with the murder of John Wilkerson, a farm hand, on July 16, last, returned a verdict of not guilty at 4:25 o'clock this afternoon.

The Thomas W. Warren murder case was resumed in circuit court this morning, after the state had rested late yesterday afternoon and Judge Hoffman had refused to peremptorily instruct the jury to acquit the defendant.

Mr. Warren was placed on the stand this morning in his own defense, but was not interrogated as to anything that occurred on the day of the killing, his entire testimony dealing with what had occurred the night before the shooting.

Three other witnesses testified for the defense in the persons of Gustave Arnst, J. L. Ward and Thomas Marcum, their evidence all telling of threats made by Wilkerson against Warren.

The instructions for the state were read to the jury by Mr. Dow, and those for the defense by Mr. Steele.

Mr. Dow made the opening argument for the state and Judge Longan for the defense, after which court adjourned until 1:30 o'clock p. m.

At the afternoon session W. D. O'Bannon and W. D. Steele addressed the jury for the defense. Court took a recess of ten minutes, after which Mr. Dow, at 3 o'clock, began the closing argument for the state. The case went to the jury at 3:40 o'clock.

The First Day's Proceedings.
(From Thursday's Daily.)

The trial of Thomas W. Warren, a farmer living eight miles north of Lamonte, in Blackwater township, charged with the killing of John Wilkerson, a hired hand, July 16, last, which was called in the criminal court yesterday, was resumed this morning before the following jurors:

R. M. Scotten, James McCampbell, George J. Altemueller, W. O. B. Dixon, Henry Kahrs, Will Cook, Lee Warren, A. A. Tevis, J. M. Wesson, J. S. Aldridge, W. B. Myers and J. S. Dirck.

W. D. Steele, Judge George F. Longan and W. D. O'Bannon are the attorneys for the defense, while Prosecutig Attorney Harvey D. Dow represents the state.

Mr. Dow, in opening the case, stated to the jury that Warren was held for murder in the first degree, and after giving a history of the killing the prosecutor admonished the jury to do its duty without fear or favor, after hearing all of the evidence.

Mr. Steele spoke in behalf of the defendant, stating that his client was justified in the shooting, as he merely acted in self-defense.

Mrs. Wilkerson, wife of the murdered man, was the first witness. She testified that Wilkerson came home from threshing on the farm of a neighbor, F. Sellers, about 9 o'clock the night before the tragedy. He arose about 4 o'clock the morning of July 16 and left the house a short time afterwards for his work, and the next time she saw him he was dead, his body lying in a box at Lamonte.

Upon cross-examination witness stated that she sent two telegrams after the shooting, one to her father and one to A. G. Collins, a friend, who had stayed with her husband and herself on the Warren farm.

Mr. Steele asked the witness if she had not seen Warren, the defendant, in Jack Lynch's store at Lamonte the afternoon of the shooting, and while walking past him had said, shaking a fan in his face, "We will get you yet; beware."

The witness answered that she did not.

A. J. Adams, a shopman, and father of Mrs. Wilkerson, was the second witness. In answer to questions Mr. Adams stated that he had worked about three weeks on Warren's farm, trimming the hedge, and upon finishing the work had returned the hedge knife to Warren at the new barn. Witness said he had known Wilkerson for ten years and that he was a left-handed man.

The third witness was Charles Jenkins, who stated that he lived seven miles west of Houstonia, and had seen both Wilkerson and Warren at Frank Sellers' the day before the shooting. The two were engaged in threshing. Mr. Jenkins' testimony seemed to have little bearing on the case.

Frank Sellers was next called. It was on his farm that the threshing was done the day before the shooting.

Witness stated that he lived eight miles north of Lamonte, and was at Warren's home between 5 and 6 o'clock on the morning of the killing. Warren told witness that he (Warren) went out to milk, and, seeing Wilkerson, came back to the barn, Wilkerson following. Warren stated that he fired once to scare Wilkerson, then shot twice, killing him.

On cross-examination witness stated that the hedge knife was in Wilkerson's right hand. The attack was made at the new barn. When witness first saw the dead man his feet were about twenty-four inches distant from the barn door.

Dr. F. R. Morley, coroner, the next witness, stated that he was a physician and surgeon and was coroner of Pettis county on the 16th day of July, last the day of the tragedy. He, in company with Sheriff M. T. Henderson, arrived at the Warren home about 9 o'clock on the morning of the 16th. They went to Warren's house and then to the barn, where he saw Wilkerson's dead body on the south side of the barn. The body lay from feet to head in a southeasterly direction, the feet toward the barn. The body was on its back, arms and feet extended, the right hand grasping a hedge knife two-thirds the way up.

Witness stated that upon examining the body he found two bullet wounds, one two inches directly above the left nipple, the other, two inches above and two inches to the left of the left nipple. The first wound penetrated the chest walls, lung and severed the main artery of the heart and lodged under the right shoulder, taking an upward course, lodging about three inches above the place of entrance to the body.

The second bullet, which entered to the left of the nipple, lodged in the back bone. The witness stated that either wound would have proven fatal, but the first caused instant death.

In answer to the question as to what he found upon close examination of the wounds, witness stated that the one directly above the nipple was more bruised than burned; both caused blisters and the clothing was powder-burned.

Witness stated that the external examination was made at the farm, and the post-mortem at Lamonte.

He also stated that Wilkerson had been dead probably three of four hours when he arrived, and that the shots were at very close range.

Adjourned for the Noon Recess.

When court reconvened Dr. Morley again took the stand, and in answer to questions by Mr. Steele stated that Warren told him that he had just turned the calves in with the cows when Wilkerson came up and had a fuss with him (Warren). The latter went back to the barn to get some feed. As he came out, Wilkerson came toward him with something in his hand. Warren said he did not know what it was. Warren then ran back to the barn. He slipped and his feet were caught by the door. He heard a crash and afterwards grabbed a hedge knife which Wilkerson had in his hand. A scuffle followed and Warren shot once to scare his assailant, and then fired two more shots hurriedly and killed Wilkerson.

Joseph Franklin, a farmer of Houstonia, was the next witness, his testimony being of no material importance.

E. R. Teeters, of the same locality, one of the arbitrators, was next called to the stand, explaining how the trouble between Warren and Wilkerson had been submitted to them for arbitration.

The case was still in progress as the Democrat-Sentinel went to press.

say that Painkiller sells the best of any medicine they keep; during the hard times of the past year or two, there were none too poor to pay their "quarter" for a bottle of this indispensable family medicine. Be sure and get the genuine. 25c., 35c. and 50c. bottles.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

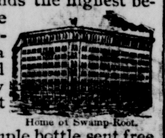

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

THE QUIGLEY ROAD

PEOPLE OF MANSFIELD WILL REFUSE TO PAY BONDS FOR THE RAILWAY.

LINE NOW ENDS IN A CORNFIELD

New Vehicles of Transportation Referred to as Push Carts—Said the Bridges Are Supported By So-Called Pig Pens.

Springfield, Mo., Nov. 20.—That J. B. Quigley, the promoter and general manager of the Kansas City, Ozark and Southern railway, otherwise known as the Mansfield-Ava electric line, will experience trouble in collecting the $10,000 bonus subscribed by the citizens of Mansfield is believed as a result of the attitude assumed by citizens of that place.

According to the alleged contract made by Quigley with citizens of Mansfield, he was to be paid $10,000 upon the completion and operation of an electric railroad between Mansfied and Ava. Passenger service was to have been installed last Tuesday.

In an effort to install service over the line, which Mansfield citizens allege now ends in a corn field a quarter of a mile from Ava, Mr. Quigley secured two storage battery motor cars.

The new vehicles of transportation have already been termed "push cars," it being stated that the assistance of the passengers is needed to help push them over the steep grades.

It is also stated that the necessary bridges on the road are supported by "pig pens," made of ties, and that in a great many cases there are not more than four ties under a thirty foot rail.

Although Mr. Quigley has not yet asked for the $10,000 bonus, which, according to the contract, was due Thursday, he will not be able to collect it without suit, according to the statement of M. J. Craig, cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank at Mansfield.

Mr. Craig stated it was the understanding that the line to Ava was to assume the proportions of an interurban electric railway and that passengers and freight would be transported. Under present conditions, he also stated, it is impossible to convey passengers with any degree of satisfaction, either to the passengers or to the promoters of the road.

The citizens of Ava are satisfied with the conditions, it was stated, they having paid the $20,000 demanded under the new contract of Aug. 14, and accepted a mortgage on the road. Mr. Quigley is in Ava on business connected with his enterprise.

FOUR BOYS STARTED FIRES

Seven in as Many Different Parts of Independence Friday Night.

Hearst News Service.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 20.—Seven fires in as many different parts of town were discovered at Independence, Mo., ten miles east of here, late last night. The night watchman at the factory of the Burnham-Hanna-Munger Dry Goods company declares the fires were the work of four boys, with whom he had exchanged shots after they had thrown a burning cloth against the rear of the factory. None was hit.

The incendiaries escaped in the darkness, following their severing of electric light connections of the town. The loss from the fires is small.

TAKEN TO STATE PRISON

Sheriff and Deputy Took a Quartette Saturday.

(From Sunday's Daily)

M. T. Henderson, sheriff, and Deputy James Card were passengers to Jefferson City Saturday noon, where they placed four prisoners in the state penitentiary, as follows:

Wesley Scott, negro, given a life sentence for murdering his wife.

Callie Jordan, negro, given ten years in the penitentiary for robbery in the night time, after he had refused to plead guilty and accept a two-year sentence.

John Hamilton, negro, given five years for assaulting Constable John Jones at Smithton, and two years for carrying a concealed weapon.

James Reed, negro, given two years for larceny from the person in the night time.

Contrary to former customs of announcing when prisoners are to be taken to the state prison, Sheriff Henderson said nothing to anyone outside of his office, in consequence of which only a few eager spectators were at the station to see the prisoners depart on their trip.

MRS. I. L. LOWE DEAD

Husband Former President of George R. Smith College.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mrs. Ella King Lowe, wife of I. L. Lowe, for eight years president of the George R. Smith college in this city, died from a complication of diseases at her home at Sterling, Neb., Thursday, after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Lowe's illness originated last September, while she and her husband were attending a Methodist conference at Lincoln, Neb. Since that date she had been in failing health.

Deceased was born at Amherst, Mass., on July 29, 1846. She was an active member of the Methodist church, and always had the interest of that faith at heart. On July 6, 1881, she was united in marriage to her surviving husband, who, with an adopted daughter, Jessie Opal, three brothers and one sister, will have the sympathy of every acquaintance.

Brief funeral services were conducted at Sterling Friday, after which the remains were shipped to deceased's former home in Massachusetts, where burial will be made.

Dr. and Mrs. Lowe left Sedalia last September for Sterling, where they have been located since.

LITTLE GIRL'S BIRTHDAY

Was Presened With Beautiful Gold Ring by Parents.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Little Miss Mildred Warren, a 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Warren, celebrated her birthday anniversary Saturday, and in honor of the occasion her parents gave a small party to a company of friends at their home, 1812 South Barrett avenue, between 2 and 5 o'clock last afternoon.

Various games were played, after which refreshments were served, and all had an enjoyable time. The honor guest was handsomely remembered with many presents, among them being a beautiful ring from her father and mother.

Those who attended were: Misses Julia Annie Gross, Vanita Lloyd, Allie Campbell, Lenora Amos, Helen Glassburn, Edith Oney, Dorothy Suter and cousins, Ralph and Clenn Warren and Master Clyde Warren.

Shipment of Cattle.

Bell Hutchinson, of this city, shipped five car loads of fat cattle from Green Ridge the past week.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures of prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

WILL MOVE PLANT

THAT OF THE POSTAL VENDING COMPANY IS GOING TO CLINTON, IOWA.

DATE WILL BE ABOUT JANUARY 1

Alleged Cheaper Freight Rates Is Given as the Cause of the Removal—Will Get a Substantial Bonus Also.

(From Sunday's Daily)

F. H. Brinkerhoff, principal owner of the Postal Vending Manufacturing company plant, occupying offices over the Sedalia Printing company, on East Fifth street, will on or about January 1 move his establishment to Clinton, Ia., where it will be located after that date.

Cheaper freight rates at Clinton is the alleged cause for the transferring of the plant from Sedalia.

This statement was made Saturday by W. H. Winslow, chief clerk for Mr. Brinkerhoff, in the absence of the latter, who has been in Iowa for the past week preparing for the establishment of the factory in that city.

The Postal Vending Manufacturing company has been in existence since 1900, having been brought to Sedalia from Springfield, Mo., in the early part of 1904.

Seventeen employes are on the company's pay roll, which amounts to about $400 weekly. Of these seventeen employes, which number does not include the owner, only six are single. All of the employes will accompany Mr. Brinkerhoff to the factory's new location.

The residents of Clinton have offered Mr. Brinkerhoff a substantial bonus for the removal of the plant there, part of this amount being invested in a location and the remainder in cash.

This, however, was not the cause for the removal, the sole reason, as previously stated, being on account of cheaper freight rates.

GOT A CHEST OF SILVER

Glen Moser and Bride Remembered Saturday Night.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Moser, the latter formerly Miss Mae B. Garrett, who were married recently, were handsomely remembered by the management and employes of the Flower-Barnett Dry Goods company at their home on West Fifth street Saturday night, when they were presented with a beautiful chest of silver.

The set contained twenty-eight pieces, and was purchased at C. H. Bard's jewelry store. It was one of the prettiest sold in this city and was gratefully received by the newly married couple.

COULD NOT CURE WEEPING ECZEMA

Disease Began over Ear and Spread till Face and Neck were Raw—Itching, Inflammation and Soreness were Terrible—Lasted Over a Year and All Treatments Failed

UNTIL CUTICURA AGAIN PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several things, but they did me no good. At last one side of my face and my neck clear up to my hair were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The eczema itched so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces. The disease began in the fall and I did everything for it until the next winter. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. I still use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills once in a while to cleanse the blood. I am very thankful that I tried Cuticura, and I can recommend it to any one. Miss Ann Pearsons, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, '07."

SURPRISE FOR MISS GOLD

Bride-Elect Pleasantly Remembered by Her Friends.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Miss Lynn Gold, whose marriage to L. C. Marshall at Carthage, Mo., on Tuesday, November 22, has been announced in the Democrat-Sentinel, was very pleasantly surprised by a company of twenty lady and gentlemen friends at her home on East Fifth street Saturday night, when they assembled to give her a farewell reception.

The guest list consisted mostly of members of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, choir, and during the evening the honor guest was remembered with a beautiful cut glass salad bowl.

The presentation speech was made by Dr. E. D. Holbert, to which the recipient responded appropriately.

The evening's program consisted of vocal and instrumental numbers, after which refreshments of ice cream, cake, nuts and fruit were served, and a late hour all departed for their homes, wishing the bride-elect a long and happy married life.

A RUNAWAY SATURDAY

C. G. Norris' Team Became Frightened at a Switch Engine.

(From Sunday's Daily)

A team of dun horses, owned and driven by C. G. Norris, of Otterville, were painfully injured in a runaway accident in the vicinity of the M., K. & T. railway crossing on East Broadway at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Norris was seated in a spring wagon when the team became frightened at a passing switch engine. The animals made one dash forward and continued running as rapidly as they could with the heavy wagon.

They followed the direction leading to a barbed wire fence surrounding the Smith & Cotton property and attempted to jump the fence, and in so doing were badly lacerated.

Mr. Norris was injured.

MISSING BOY IS FOUND

Judge's Son Writes Home for Money From Little Rock, Ark.

Carthage, Mo., Nov. 20.—An appeal for money and for a chance to come home and go to work notified Judge J. W. Halliburton, of this city, of the whereabouts of his son, John Halliburton, who mysteriously disappeared from Columbia, Mo., October 11.

The news of the young man came in the shape of a postal card from Little Rock, Ark., in which he appealed to his father for some "real money," so he could come home. The father departed last night for Little Rock.

Young Halliburton became much dissatisfied with university life and asked permission to go to work. His father agreed and sent him $100. Then John disappeared.

YOUNG GIRL IS JILTED

In Order That Fred Hahn, Aged 50, Might Wed Her Mother.

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 20.—Driven to desperation when she learned that Fred Hahn, aged 50, whom she was to have married yesterday, had been making love to her mother, and had decided to jilt her and marry her mother, Florence Honort, aged 24, committed suicide at her home yesterday. She drank carbolic acid and died in a few moments.

That her face might not be marred by the acid, she coated her lips with lard before drinking it.

THE STANDARD OIL

DECLARED TO BE AN ILLEGAL CORPORATION AND ORDERED DISSOLVED.

WAS HEARD IN ST. LOUIS IN APRIL

Attorney General Wickersham Says It Is One of the Most Important Decisions Ever Rendered in This Country.

Associated Press.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 20.—In an opinion written by Circuit Judge W. M. Sanborn, of St. Paul, filed in St. Louis and St. Paul today in the United States circuit court for the district of Missouri, it was held that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is an illegal corporation and it was ordered that it be dissolved.

The case was heard in the United States circuit court in St. Louis last April by Judges Sanborn, Van Deventer, Hook and Adams. All of the judges concurred in the opinion.

The suit was brought to enjoin John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, Henry M. Flagler, H. H. Rogers, John D. Archbold, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, Oliver H. Payne and Charles M. Pratt from maintaining a combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Today's decree enjoins the seven individual defendants and the Standard Oil company and its subsidiary corporations from continuing or carrying into effect the illegal combinations they have formed, and from entering into any like combination or conspiracy, and they are forbidden from engaging or continuing in interstate commerce until they discontinue their illegal combination.

The decree takes effect thirty days from date, unless suspended by an appeal to the supreme court.

Truly Important Decision.

Associated Press.

Leavenworth, Kas., Nov. 20.—"It's one of the most important decisions ever rendered in this country," declared Atorney General Wickersham when apprised today of the St. Paul decision.

He added that until he had seen the full text of the decision, any opinion of his must naturally be of a personal nature.

Will Appeal the Case.

Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 20.—It is authoritatively announced by the officers of the Standard Oil company that an appeal will be taken from the decision filed at St. Paul.

GAVE A PARCEL SHOWER

Mrs. W. M. Odell Entertained for Miss Higgins Saturday. Afternoon.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mrs. W. M. Odell very pleasantly entertained almost thirty lady friends at a parcel shower at her home, 1401 West Third street, between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in compliment to Miss Myrtle Higgins, who is to be wedded the latter part of this month to Louis Buckley, an electrician.

The principal amusements of the afternoon were two games, one a recipe contest and the other a stocking darning contest. In the first contest Miss Claudia Hatton won the first prize, a pretty china plate, while the consolation prize went to Miss Nina Ricks, who also won the first and only prize in the stocking darning contest, a needle book.

During the afternoon refreshments of nut sandwiches, oyster salad, olives, coffee, ice cream and Nabisco wafers were served, after which all returned home, voting the affair a charming success.

Miss Ruth Hatton, a sister of the hostess, assisted in entertaining.

MANY FOUND ALIVE

FORTY-ONE OF THE CHERRY MINERS RESCUER FROM LIVING TOMB.

ENTIRE WEEK SPENT IN TERROR

Great Rejoicing Follows the Return to Life of Men Given Up as Dead—Still Others May Be Found.

Hearst News Service.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 20.—Forty-one men alive and comparatively well have arisen from their graves, and before twelve more hours have elapsed at least a hundred probably will have followed them in arising from the fiery sepulchre in which they have been entombed six days.

In these six days the rescued men have passed through a horror the like of which never has been described even in fiction. Without food, heat or even air, the men gnawed at the bark of the logs used for supports in the mine, erected an earth wall to protect themselves from the deadly black damp of the mine and successfully fought off the death that appeared so imminent, until they were finally rescued shortly after noon today.

Cherry tonight presents the most remarkable contrast to the stricken village that it was six hours ago that the mind can picture. From the very depths of despair some of the women and children of the town have suddenly become almost insanely happy. Women who a few hours ago were hysterical or dumb with grief tonight are marching the streets singing and shouting or quietly holding the hands of the men who have been snatched from the grave.

Lined up in the morgue are scores of black coffins that will be thrown out to be burned, as the men who were to have been buried in them tomorrow or Monday are now seated by their own firesides with their families.

The mine experts from nearly every state in the union who ridiculed the ones who were bold enough to suggest that life existed in the depths of the mine tonight are leading reconnoitering expeditions into the far away drifts of the mine, where they are now convinced that more men will be found alive.

Those who have been rescued can only thank themselves and the scientific knowledge of one of their number for the fact they are still alive. From the moment that they were trapped in the blazing shaft last Saturday until they were carried from the mine the men have battled with death. It was Walter Wait, assistant mine superintendent, who headed this group of men. After discussing various plans it was finally agreed that the only hope of reaching the upper surface lay in outside assistance ,and they backed away from the smoke and accumulating gases into the dark passages which alone offered a means of escape. Finally Waite suggested the plan of throwing up a temporary wall to block out the flames, and take advantage of any opportunity of escape that Providence might offer.

CHECKS NO GOOD

WOMAN PASSED THEM ON TWO SEDALIA BUSINESS HOUSES.

'TWAS A VERY CLEVER SCHEME

Deposit Was Made in Local Bank and Withdrawn—Then Checks Were Issued and Cash Secured.

(From Sunday's Daily)

A demure looking woman, of small stature, with reddish blonde hair, entered Guenther's dry goods store late Thursday afternoon and made a small purchase. She tendered a Citizens' National bank check for $10 in payment, the check bearing the signature of W. A. Collins.

After securing her change she left the store. Proceeding directly to the Flower-Barnett Dry Goods company's store she purchased a small veil. At this place she also tendered a Citizens' bank check for $10, bearing the signature of W. A. Collins. Securing the change she left.

Saturday the checks were returned to the respective business houses and on their face was written, "No funds."

The proprietors of each house hastened to W. A. Collins, the attorney, to ascertain why his wife had given checks on a bank, when he had no funds on deposit.

"That's not my check because I don't write my signature that way," the attorney told them and the business men then went to the bank.

Assistant Cashier R. F. Harris recalled the fact that a man, a stranger here, had entered the bank Thursday and deposited $25. Later in the day he returned and withdrew $21. When asked why he did not withdraw all he had deposited the stranger said he had issued two other checks that would consume the amount he had placed on deposit.

The police were furnished with a description of the couple, but their efforts to locate them proved fruitless.

WILL OPERATE ON SUTER

He's a Member of Chicago White Sox Pitching Staff.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Harry Suter, one of the members of the pitching staff of the Chicago White Sox, will enter Maywood hospital tomorrow to be operated upon for appendicitis. The operation will be performed by Dr. E. A. Wood.

Harry, who is a son of G. F. Suter, has been troubled with the ailment for some time, the physician having decided last week to perform the operation tomorrow.

Death Claim Is Allowed.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

E. M. Shields, clerk of Sedalia camp No. 16, Woodmen of the World, Friday received notice that the claim of $2,000 on the death of John Metcalf, a former Missouri Pacific shopman, who died at the company hospital at St. Louis, had been allowed. The check for the payment of the policy will arrive probably today.

Turkey for New Members.

The members of Queen City grove No. 1, Woodmen Circle, are perfecting plans for a sumptuous turkey dinner to be given at the lodge hall next Friday night, the affair to be known as a Thanksgiving dinner for the enjoyment of new members.

Mrs. Martha Clingenpeel, Mrs. Lutitia Evans and Mrs. S. W. Ricketts compose the committee having the arrangements in hand and everything is being planned for a thoroughly delightful occasion.

TOMMIE ROWE "SPOTTED"

Came Near Being Nipped in St. Louis the Past Week.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Tom Rowe, one of the owners of the restaurant of Blatterman & Rowe, on West Main street, narrowly averted a night's lodging in the St. Louis police station last Thursday, but the details of his experience others than Tom relate.

"Tommy," who is a rather unique character, to say the least, was standing leisurely on a corner of Pine street, when he was approached by a stranger. The latter was well dressed, a smooth talker and seemed desirous of making the acquaintance of the Sedalia caterer.

After inquiring as to Tom's name, his place of residence and business, the stranger started to take the Sedalian to headquarters as a suspicious character, when Tom's presence of mind came to his rescue.

Tom handed the man, who later proved to be a detective, one of his cards, after which the two became quite chummy.

Policeman Resigned Last Night.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Charles Wentzleman, one of Sedalia's oldest police officers, retired Saturday night, after a very satisfactory service with the department. R. W. Barnett was transferred to East Sedalia to fill Mr. Wentzleman's place and H. E. Erwin, a new appointee, is transferred to Ohio avenue, vice Mr. Barnett.

FAREWELL TO PASTOR

Rev. Otto Press and Wife Remembered by Friends.

The Rev. Otto Press, who resigned some time ago as pastor of the German Evangelical church to become assistant pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church at St. Louis, and wife, were tendered a delightful reception by the members of the church at the church parlors Friday night, fully two hundred friends of the popular divine being present.

The evening was spent in social converse, instrumental music and vocal numbers, after which refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cake were served.

During the evening Rev. Press was presented with a purse containing $20.

Rev. Press and family will leave for St. Louis about December 2. The Rev. Paul Stoerker, of Atchison, Kas., the new pastor, will not assume his duties until the first Sunday in January.

ARE GOING TO ARIZONA

Mrs. Lemuel S. Norton and Daughter, Miss Helen.

Mrs. Lemuel S. Norton and daughter, Miss Helen, the reader, will leave about the middle of next month for Phoenix, Arizona, where they will spend the winter for the benefit of Mrs. Norton's health.

While absent Miss Helen will likely give readings at Phoenix, Douglas and other cities in Arizona; and in case she does the Democrat-Sentinel desires to commend her to the people of the territory, knowing full well that any entertainment at which she appears will be truly meritorious, and worthy of the patronage of the very best citizenship of the cities which she favors by her presence.

A Death at Warrensburg.

W. K. Morrow, police judge of Warrensburg, died suddenly at the home of his son, Walter L. Morrow, a member of the normal faculty, Friday.

Judge Morrow was born in Johnson county in 1837. He was deputy and circuit clerk of Johnson county for twenty-four years. For many years he was cashier of the People's National bank at Warrensburg.

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE OF CATARRH

S. S. S. cures Catarrh by removing the cause from the blood. It so thoroughly purifies the circulation that there is nothing left to inflame and irritate the mucous linings of the body, which is the most prominent and dangerous effect of Catarrh. As long as the mucous membranes and tissues are kept in a state of inflammation and irritation by an impure and infected condition of the circulation, Catarrh will remain. Its disagreeable symptoms of ringing noises in the ears, mucous dropping back into the throat, headaches, watery eyes, difficult breathing, and even stomach disorders and weakened health, cannot be permanently relieved until the blood is purified. Local applications alone can have no real curative value, because such treatment does not reach the blood. Sprays, inhalations, lotions, etc., are valuable only for their cleansing and antiseptic effect, but if depended on alone Catarrh sufferers will find a cure impossible. Nothing equals S. S. S. for curing Catarrh. It goes down into the circulation, gets at the root of the trouble, and removes every particle of catarrhal matter from the blood and enriches this vital fluid so that instead of irritating the different mucous portions of the body, it nourishes them with rich, health-giving properties. Then the symptoms begin to pass away, and Catarrh is permanently cured. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.
